out by award winning documentary maker Mike Morley with Dennis Nilsen then the country's most prolific murderer. In what became front page news, Morley overcame two eleventh hour government attempts in the High Court and Court of Appeal to stop ITV in the UK screening any extracts of the Nilsen interview. Controversially, the court ruled no more than 4 minutes of a four hour interrogation should ever be shown. The Dennis Nilsen Tapes: In Jail with Britain's Most Infamous Serial Killer covers those full four hours plus two days spent face to face with Nilsen in Albany Prison and two years of graphic correspondence and confessions from the infamous Scottish serial killer. With fresh insight from world famous psychological profilers and a leading pathologist, Morley completes almost three decades of investigation into what turned the former chef, policeman and civil servant into one of the world's most notorious murderers and necrophiles. Complete Report of the Proceedings of the . . . The cassette's contain a recording of the full text of the book. The Dylan Tapes Anthony Scaduto, 2022-04-26 The raw material and interviews behind Anthony Scaduto's iconic biography of Bob Dylan draw an intimate and multifaceted portrait of the singer-songwriter who defined his era. When Anthony Scaduto's Bob Dylan: An Intimate Biography was first published in 1971, the Nobel Prize winning songwriter at thirty had already released some of the most iconic albums of the 1960s including Highway 61 Revisited and Blonde on Blonde. Scaduto's book was one of the first to take an investigative journalist's approach to its subject and set the standard for rock music biography. The Dylan Tapes, compiled from thirty-six hours of interviews, is a behind-the-scenes look at the making of Scaduto's landmark book and a close-up encounter with pivotal figures in Dylan's life. These reel-to-reel tapes, found in a box in Scaduto's basement, are a never bootlegged trove of archival material about Dylan drawn from conversations with those closest to him during the early years of his career. In the era of ten-second takes, these interviews offer uncommon depth and immediacy as we listen to friends and lovers recall the Dylan they knew as he created his professional persona and perfected his craft from folk music protest songs and electric rock through the traumatic impact of a motorcycle crash to his later, more self-reflecting songwriting. Echo Helstrom Dylan's Girl from the North Country is here as are Suze Rotolo who graced the cover of the Freewheelin' album and Joan Baez remembering her relationship to Bobby. We hear from Mike Porco who gave Dylan his first gig in New York City, Sid and Bob Gleason who introduced him to his hero Woody Guthrie, folk artists from Greenwich Village like Phil Ochs and

Ramblin Jack Eliot John Hammond Sr who gave him his first record contract plus a host of musicians activists folk historians and archivists and of course Dylan himself From these reflections and frank conversations many published here for the first time a complex finely observed picture emerges of one of the best known yet most enigmatic musicians of our time
