Thats Revolting Queer Strategies For Resisting Abimilation:

That's Revolting! Mattilda Bernstein Sycamore, 2008-04-22 As the gay mainstream prioritizes the attainment of straight privilege over all else it drains queer identity of any meaning relevance or cultural value writes Matt Bernstein Sycamore aka Mattilda editor of That's Revolting This timely collection shows what the new queer resistance looks like Intended as a fistful of rocks to throw at the glass house of Gaylandia the book challenges the commercialized commodified and hyperobjectified view of gay queer identity projected by the mainstream straight and gay media by exploring queer struggles to transform gender revolutionize sexuality and build community family outside of traditional models Essays include Dr Laura Sit on My Face Gay Art Guerrillas Legalized Sodomy Is Political Foreplay and Queer Parents An Oxymoron or Just Plain Moronic

That's Revolting! Pasha Malla, 2010-11 Ten years ago one might not have imagined the largest national gay rights lobbying group Human Rights Campaign endorsing a right wing Republican Senatorial candidate Al D Amato in New York or the San Francisco Pride parade adopting the Budweiser advertising slogan as its official theme 2002 As an assimilationist gay mainstream wields increasing power the focus of gay struggle has become limited to marriage military service and adoption The gay mainstream presents a sanitized straight friendly version of gay identity which makes it safe for Richard Chamberlain or Rosie O'Donnell to come out and still rake in the bucks By the twisted priorities of this gay mainstream it's okay to oppose a queer youth shelter because it might interfere with property values or to fight against the inclusion of transgendered people under hate crimes legislation because this might not appeal to straight voters As the gay mainstream ironically prioritizes the attainment of straight privilege over all else it drains queer identity of any meaning relevance or cultural value and calls this progress That's Revolting shows us what the new queer resistance looks like The collection is a fistful of rocks to throw at the glass house of Gaylandia That's Revolting uses queer identity and struggle as a starting point from which to reframe reclaim and re shape the world The Ashgate Research Companion to Lesbian and Gay Activism

David Paternotte, Manon Tremblay, 2016-03-03 The Ashgate Research Companion to Lesbian and Gay Activism provides scholars and students with a comprehensive and authoritative state of the art review of the current research in this subject Each of the 22 specially commissioned chapters develops and summarises their key issue or debate in relation to activism that is the claims strategies and mobilisations including internal debates and divisions impediments and state responses of the lesbian and gay movement By drawing together leading scholars from political science sociology anthropology and history this companion provides an up to the minute snapshot of current scholarship as well as signposting several fruitful avenues for future research This book is both an invaluable resource for scholars and an indispensable teaching tool for use in the classroom Safe Space Christina B. Hanhardt, 2013-12-04 Winner 2014 Lambda Literary Award in LGBT Studies

Since the 1970s a key goal of lesbian and gay activists has been protection against street violence especially in gay neighborhoods During the same time policymakers and private developers declared the containment of urban violence to be a top priority In this important book Christina B Hanhardt examines how LGBT calls for safe space have been shaped by broader public safety initiatives that have sought solutions in policing and privatization and have had devastating effects along race and class lines Drawing on extensive archival and ethnographic research in New York City and San Francisco Hanhardt traces the entwined histories of LGBT activism urban development and U S policy in relation to poverty and crime over the past fifty years She highlights the formation of a mainstream LGBT movement as well as the very different trajectories followed by radical LGBT and queer grassroots organizations Placing LGBT activism in the context of shifting liberal and neoliberal policies Safe Space is a groundbreaking exploration of the contradictory legacies of the LGBT struggle for safety in the city

Non-Binary Genders Ben Vincent,2020-07-02 Methodologically innovative in its use of mixed media diary research this timely book offers a focused sociological study of non binary people s identities and experiences in the UK From negotiating a sense of legitimacy when not feeling trans enough to how identities can shift over time it reveals important nuances of diverse gender identities while offering crucial insights into trans related healthcare inequalities The findings of this ground breaking research mark an important contribution to the wider fields of gender studies LGBTQ scholarship and medical policy

Writing Shame Mitchell Kaye Mitchell,2019-11-01 Examines the intersection of shame gender and writing in contemporary literature Considers the particular intersection of shame gender and writing in literature produced since the 1990s Views shame as a constitutive factor in the social construction and experience of femininity Analyses a diverse range of texts from pulp to literary fiction to life writing and autofiction with a self reflexive focus on the formal disjunctions produced by in the writing of shame and on the shame attending the act of writing itself Offers political readings of neglected genres lesbian pulp fiction highly topical texts like Kraus s I Love Dick and Knausgaard s My Struggle and established authors such as Mary Gaitskill A M Homes Rupert Thomson Through readings of an array of recent texts literary and popular fictional and autofictional realist and experimental this book maps out a contemporary Western shame culture It unpicks the complex triangulation of shame gender and writing and intervenes forcefully in feminist and queer debates of the last three decades Starting from the premise that shame cannot be overcome or abandoned and that femininity and shame are utterly and necessarily imbricated Writing Shame examines writing that explores and inhabits this state of shame considering the dissonant effects of such explorations on and beyond the page

Handbook of LGBT-Affirmative Couple and Family Therapy Jerry J. Bigner, Joseph L. Wetchler,2012-05-04 The editors and contributors of this comprehensive text provide a unique and important contribution to LGBT clinical literature Spanning 30 chapters they discuss the diverse and complex issues involved in LGBT couple and family therapy In almost 15 years this book provides the first in depth overview of the best practices for therapists and those in training who wish to work effectively with LGBT clients couples and families need to know and is only the second of its kind in the history of the field The clinical issues discussed include raising LGBT children coming out elderly LGBT issues sex therapy ethical and training issues Because of the breadth of the book its specificity and the expertise of the contributing authors and editors it is the definitive handbook on LGBT couple and family therapy

The Politics of Right Sex Courtenay W. Daum, 2020-08-01 Examines the limitations of rights based mobilization and litigation for advancing the interests of trans individuals in the contemporary United States While the growing attention to trans rights and the development of trans specific interest groups suggest that the time is right for a trans rights movement akin to prior civil rights movements The Politics of Right Sex explores the limitations of rights based mobilization and litigation for advancing the interests of trans communities Synthesizing critical theory transgender studies and extant law and society research Courtenay W Daum argues that trans individuals particularly those situated at the intersection of gender race class and immigration status are regulated by myriad forces of governmentality that work to maintain the sex and gender binaries and associated power hierarchies Because many informal practices and norms are located beyond the reach of civil rights laws a trans politics of rights may produce some modest legal and legislative reforms but will not eliminate the disciplinary forces that work to subject trans individuals It will also privilege those who are able to conform with dominant gender norms at the expense of the interests of those individuals who are gender nonconforming gender queer trans people of color and others unable or unwilling to embrace a transnormative presentation of self and or lifestyle In order to disrupt the dominant discourse and hierarchical power arrangements in pursuit of collective liberation for all as opposed to rights for some The Politics of Right Sex advocates for a more confrontational approach that directly engages and challenges the hegemonic power structures that govern and discipline trans individuals

The Routledge Research Companion to Geographies of Sex and Sexualities Gavin Brown, Kath Browne, 2016-05-20 Comprehensive and authoritative this state of the art review both charts and develops the rich sub discipline geographies of sexualities exploring sex gender sexuality and sexual practices Emerging from the desire to examine differences and exclusions as a key aspect of human geographies these geographies have engaged with heterosexual and queer lesbian gay bi and trans lives Developing thinking in this area geographers and other social scientists have illustrated the centrality of place space and other spatial relationships in reconstituting sexual practices representations desires as well as sexed bodies and lives This book reviews the current state of the field and offers new insights from authors located on five continents In doing so the book seeks to draw on and influence core debates in this field as well as disrupt the Anglo American hegemony in studies of sexualities sexes and geographies This volume is the definitive collection in the area bringing together many international leaders in the field alongside scholars that are well established outside the Anglophone academy and many emerging talents who will lead the field in the decades to come

Normal Life Dean Spade, 2015-07-23 Revised and Expanded Edition Wait what's wrong with rights It is usually assumed that trans and gender nonconforming people should follow the civil rights and equality strategies of lesbian and gay rights organizations by agitating for legal reforms that would ostensibly guarantee nondiscrimination and equal protection under the law This approach assumes that the best way to address the poverty and criminalization that plague trans populations is to gain legal recognition and inclusion in the state's institutions But is this strategy effective In Normal Life Dean Spade presents revelatory critiques of the legal equality framework for social change and points to examples of transformative grassroots trans activism that is raising demands that go beyond traditional civil rights reforms Spade explodes assumptions about what legal rights can do for marginalized populations and describes transformative resistance processes and formations that address the root causes of harm and violence In the new afterword to this revised and expanded edition Spade notes the rapid mainstreaming of trans politics and finds that his predictions that gaining legal recognition will fail to benefit trans populations are coming to fruition Spade examines recent efforts by the Obama administration and trans equality advocates to pinkwash state violence by articulating the US military and prison systems as sites for trans inclusion reforms In the context of recent increased mainstream visibility of trans people and trans politics Spade continues to advocate for the dismantling of systems of state violence that shorten the lives of trans people Now more than ever Normal Life is an urgent call for justice and trans liberation and the radical transformations it will require

Why Are Faggots So Afraid of Faggots? Mattilda Bernstein Sycamore, 2012-02-14 A new anthology edited by America's most outrageous queer theorist

Queer Lovers and Hateful Others Jin Haritaworn, 2015-07-20 Queer subjects have become acceptable in society only through being cast in the shadow of the new folk devil the homophobic migrant who is rendered by society as hateful and disposable This book explores this concept of queer regeneration Queerness has entered a transitional phase as it becomes co-opted by neoliberalism to make punishment and neglect appear as signs of care and love for diversity To understand this transition Jin Haritaworn looks at the environments in which queer bodies have become worthy of protection discussing the everyday erasures that shape life in the inner city focusing on Berlin and how queer activists actively seek out and dispel the myths of sites of nostalgia for the invented traditions of women and gay friendliness The author explores a rich archive of media arts policy and activism including posters newspaper reports hate crime action plans urban projects psychological studies demonstrations kiss ins political speeches and films Through these sources the relationships between Islamophobia racism within Europe and the United States and the global war on terror serves to reinforce the politics of homonationalism

Sexuality Matters James W. Koschoreck, Autumn K. Tooms, 2009-10-15 Sexuality Matters brings together scholars from a variety of epistemological perspectives to explore the multiple ways in which sexuality does indeed matter in the arena of public education This book is arranged into three main thematic areas Policy and Activism Curriculum and Pedagogy and Identity and Lived Experiences each of which explores specific ideas and challenges found within the corresponding topic The special features of this collection include a focus on the implications of sexuality for educational leadership as well as a multi perspectival approach to the exploration of these concerns This text will prove to be especially useful both to scholars who prepare future educational leaders and to practitioners who are seeking ways to deal with the complex social realities of their communities Screening American Independent Film Justin Wyatt,W.D.

Phillips,2023-05-31 This indispensable collection offers 51 chapters each focused on a distinct American independent film Screening American Independent Film presents these films chronologically addressing works from across more than a century 1915 2020 emphasizing the breadth and long duration of American independent cinema The collection includes canonical examples as well as films that push against and expand the definitions of independence The titles run from micro budget films through marketing friendly Indiewood projects from auteur driven films and festival darlings to B movies genre pics and exploitation films The chapters also introduce students to different approaches within film studies including historical and contextual framing industrial and institutional analysis politics and ideology genre and authorship representation film analysis exhibition and reception and technology Written by leading international scholars and emerging talents in film studies this volume is the first of its kind Paying particular attention to issues of diversity and inclusion for both the participating scholars and the content and themes within the selected films Screening American Independent Film is an essential resource for anyone teaching or studying American cinema The Sage International Encyclopedia of Politics and Gender Lia K. Roberts,2025-09-02 This four volume encyclopedia set is organized to allow the reader to explore gender and politics from an updated interdisciplinary intersectional and global perspective The organization format will be an A Z approach of approximately 500 600 entries with entries ranging in word count from 1 500 3 000 words with some entries on foundational topics at around 5 000 Coverage will examine both the role gender plays within the realm of politics political participation leadership etc as well as policies that are based in gender abortion and reproductive policies transgender rights etc Foundational topics will include entries such as International Security and Gender which will introduce gender and war human trafficking gender and militarism and women and terrorism and International Relations and Gender which will introduce topics such as gender mainstreaming the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women CEDAW and eco feminism A Comparative Politics foundational entry will focus on research areas surrounding political representation and participation legislative processes and law such as gender quotas gender gap in political participation and leadership intersectionality and barriers in representation and leadership Ni Unos Menos Not One Less Movement recent significant activist movements and transgender specific law Concepts connected to feminist and queer theory as applied in regional studies will also be covered For example marianismo or the connection between Catholicism and gender roles in Latin American and Latinx communities Asian American and Pacific Islander AAPI voters and political mobilization and LGBTQIA leaders and social movements will be included This encyclopedia will be essential for any undergraduate or graduate course on gender studies in gender studies programs as well as sociology political science history or other related programs disciplines gender and politics international relations and gender or area specific courses such as Gender and Latin American Politics or Gender and African Studies Transforming Citizenship Isaac West, 2014

Transforming Citizenship engages the performativity of citizenship as it relates to transgender individuals and advocacy groups Instead of reading the law as a set of self executing discourses Isaac West takes up transgender rights claims as performative productions of complex legal subjectivities capable of queering accepted understandings of genders sexualities and the normative forces of the law Drawing on an expansive archive from the correspondence of a transwoman arrested for using a public bathroom in Los Angeles in 1954 to contemporary lobbying efforts of national transgender advocacy organizations West advances a rethinking of law as capacious rhetorics of citizenship justice equality and freedom When approached from this perspective citizenship can be recuperated from its status as the bad object of queer politics to better understand how legal discourses open up sites for identification across identity categories and enable political activities that escape the analytics of heteronormativity and homonationalism
