The 19th Century Duel Between Idealism And Naturalism:

The Courage to Be Paul Tillich, 2023-11-26 The Courage to Be by Paul Tillich explores the existential anxieties of modern life delving into the nature of courage as a fundamental response to the inherent uncertainties of existence. Written in a profound yet accessible literary style, Tillich weaves philosophy, psychology, and theology, drawing from a rich tapestry of sources including existentialist thought and Christian existentialism. He articulates a nuanced discussion about the courage to be, a concept that emerges in the face of non-being, grounding his arguments in the tensions between personal faith and societal doubt amidst the chaos of the contemporary world. Paul Tillich (1886-1965) was a German American theologian and philosopher whose thought bridged the realms of faith and reason. Tillich's personal experiences, especially with the turbulence of World War I and the rise of fascism, profoundly informed his philosophical inquiries. His unique position as both a scholar and a pastor allowed him to grapple with the pressing existential dilemmas of his time, infusing his works with deep sensitivity to human suffering and the quest for meaning. For readers seeking a reflective journey through the complexities of courage in the face of existential dread, The Courage to Be is an indispensable text. It is not merely an academic treatise but a heartfelt invitation to confront the foundations of one's being, making it essential reading for anyone interested in philosophy, theology, and the human condition.

Collected Writings of Giles Clark Judith Pickering, Geoffrey Samuel, 2024-09-03 This timeless and thought-provoking volume makes available the collected writings of Giles Clark (1947-2019), whose original clinical theory constitutes a major contribution to the areas of analytical psychology, psychoanalysis, and philosophy. Clark's work influenced generations of analytical psychologists, psychoanalytic psychotherapists, and trainees in England, Australia, and elsewhere. His oeuvre covers important themes such as psychoanalysis as a deeply relational, mutually transformative, and intersubjective endeavor; how, as wounded healers, analysts learn the art of recycling their own madness so as to better assist their patients; the clinical treatment of borderline and narcissistic disturbances and personality disorders; and psychosomatic issues as manifest and experienced in transference and countertransference relations in the analytic field. The book also explores the relevance of Spinoza, Santayana, Jung, and German Romantic philosophers to analytical psychology and psychoanalysis, not merely in historical or theoretical terms but as a vital resource to guide clinical practice, as demonstrated through a series of compelling case studies. The Collected Writings of Giles Clark is of great interest to Jungian analysts, analytical psychologists, and psychotherapists in practice and in training, as well as anyone interested in understanding the interface between depth psychology, philosophy, and neuropsychology, and in the mind-body problem more generally.

The Things in Heaven and Earth: An Essay in Pragmatic Naturalism John Ryder, 2013-01-02 The Things in Heaven and Earth is a development and application of the Columbia Naturalism of John Dewey, John Herman Randall Jr, and Justus Buchler. The chapters deal with systematic ontology, epistemology, constructivism, and objectivity, philosophical theology, art, democratic theory, foreign policy, education, humanism, and cosmopolitanism.

Lenin,2022-10-15 In this classic text Lenin brilliantly explains the fundamental principles of the materialist philosophy of Marxism He defends them against idealist attacks from the subjective idealism of Machism a philosophical trend which at Lenin s time was becoming very fashionable even within the workers movement Step by step layer by layer quoting at length from the many trendy philosophical and scientific publications of the day the book exposes idealism in all its guises The aim was very simple to bring out in the open the real difference between Marxist dialectical materialism and subjective idealism which in the last instance always leads to some form of religious world outlook Analysing the different shades and expressions of Machism internationally Lenin stressed that in every philosophical question raised by the new physics we trace the struggle between materialism and idealism And he showed that Behind the mass of new terminological devices behind the litter of erudite scholasticism we invariably discerned two principal alignments two fundamental trends in the solution of philosophical problems Whether nature matter the physical the external world should be taken as primary and consciousness mind sensation experience as the widespread terminology of our time has it the psychical etc should be regarded as secondary that is the root question which in fact continues to divide the philosophers into two great camps
