

The Criterion Collection, a continuing series of important classic and contemporary films, presents the 400 blows

François Truffaut's first feature is also his most personal. Told from the point of view of Truffaut's cinematic counterpart, Antoine Doinel (Jean-Pierre L  aud), The 400 Blows (Les quatre cents coups) sensitively re-creates the trials of Truffaut's own childhood, unsentimentally portraying aloof parents, oppressive teachers, and petty crime. The film marked Truffaut's passage from leading critic to trailblazing auteur of the French New Wave.

The 400 Blows Criterion Collection:

A Companion to François Truffaut Dudley Andrew, Anne Gillain, 2013-02-11 A Companion to François Truffaut An unprecedented critical tribute to the director who in France wound up becoming the most controversial figure of the New Wave he helped found Raymond Bellour Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique This exciting collection breaks through the widely held critical view that Truffaut abandoned the iconoclasm of his early work for an academicism he had consistently railed against in his own film criticism Indeed if fever and fire were Truffaut's most consistent motifs the essays in this collection live up to his lifelong burning passion for the cinema Written by world famous scholars the essays exhaustively explore the themes and styles of the films as well as Truffaut's relationships to André Bazin Alfred Hitchcock and the directors of the New Wave his ground breaking and controversial film criticism and his position in the complex politics of French cultural life from the Popular Front to 1968 and after Angelo Restivo Georgia State University Although the New Wave one of the most influential aesthetic revolutions in the history of cinema might not have existed without him François Truffaut has largely been ignored by film scholars since his death almost thirty years ago As an innovative theoretician an influential critic and a celebrated filmmaker Truffaut formulated disseminated and illustrated the ideals of the New Wave with exceptional energy and distinction Yet no book in recent years has focused on Truffaut's value and his overall contribution to cinema deserves to be redefined not only to reinstate him in his proper place but to let us rethink how cinema developed during his lifetime In this new Companion thirty four original essays by leading film scholars offer new readings of individual films and original perspectives on the filmmaker's background influences and consequence Hugely influential around the globe Truffaut is assessed by international contributors who delve into the unique quality of his narratives and establish the depth of his distinctively styled work An extended interview with French filmmaker Arnaud Desplechin tracks Truffaut's controversial stature within French cinema and vividly identifies how he thinks and works as a director adding an irreplaceable perspective to this essential volume Focus On: 100 Most Popular French-language Films Wikipedia contributors, Vivre Ici Alison J. Murray Levine, 2018-03-19 Vivre Ici analyzes a diverse selection of contemporary French documentaries about spaces and places in France Integrating film theory eco criticism and cultural history Levine investigates documentary cinema as experience The book reveals a collage like fragmented vision of France as seen through documentary cameras and explores the social and political consequences of these films that matter Brown v. Board and the Transformation of American Culture Ben Keppel, 2016-01-11 Brown v Board of Education which ended legally sanctioned segregation in American public schools brought issues of racial equality to the forefront of the nation's attention Beyond its repercussions for the educational system the decision also heralded broad changes to concepts of justice and national identity Brown v Board and the Transformation of American Culture examines the prominent cultural figures who taught the country how to embrace new values and ideas of citizenship in the aftermath of this groundbreaking decision Through the lens of three cultural first responders Ben Keppel tracks the creation of an American culture in which race class and ethnicity could cease to imply an inferior form of citizenship Psychiatrist and social critic Robert Coles in his Pulitzer Prize winning studies of children and schools in desegregating regions of the country helped citizens understand the value of the project of racial equality in the lives of regular families both white and black Comedian Bill Cosby leveraged his success with gentle family centric humor to create televised spaces that challenged the idea of whiteness as the cultural default Public television producer Joan Ganz Cooney designed programs like Sesame Street that extended educational opportunities to impoverished children while offering a new vision of urban life in which diverse populations coexisted in an atmosphere of harmony and mutual support Together the work of these pioneering figures provided new codes of conduct and guided America through the growing pains of becoming a truly pluralistic nation In this cultural history of the impact of Brown v Board Keppel paints a vivid picture of a society at once eager for and resistant to the changes ushered in by this pivotal decision Contemporary Sino-French Cinemas Michelle E. Bloom,2017-11-30 Transnational cinemas are eclipsing national cinemas in the contemporary world and Sino French films exemplify this phenomenon through the cinematic coupling of the Sinophone and the Francophone linking France not just with the Chinese mainland but also with the rest of the Chinese speaking world Sinophone directors most often reach out to French cinema by referencing and adapting it They set their films in Paris and metropolitan France cast French actors and sometimes use French dialogue even when the directors themselves don t understand it They tend to view France as mysterious sexy and sophisticated just as the French see China and Taiwan as exotic As Michelle E Bloom makes clear many films move past a simplistic opposition between East and West and beyond Orientalist and Occidentalist cross cultural interplay Bloom focuses on films that have appeared since 2000 such as Tsai Ming liang s What Time Is It There Hou Hsiao hsien s Flight of the Red Balloon and Dai Sijie s Balzac and the Little Chinese Seamstress She views the work of these well known directors through a Sino French optic applying the tropes of m tissage or biraciality intertextuality adaptation and remake translation and imitation to shed new light on their work She also calls attention to important lesser studied films Taiwanese director Cheng Yu chieh s Yang Yang which depicts the up and coming Taiwanese star Sandrine Pinna as a mixed race beauty and Emily Tang Xiaobai s debut film Conjugation which contrasts Paris and post Tiananmen Square Beijing the one an incarnation of liberty the other a place of entrapment Bloom s insightful analysis also probes what such films reveal about their Taiwanese and Chinese creators Scholars have long studied Sino French literature but this inaugural full length work on Sino French cinema maps uncharted territory offering a paradigm for understanding other cross cultural interminglings and tools to study transnational cinema and world cinema The Sino French rich and multifaceted linguistically culturally and ethnically constitutes an important part of film studies Francophone studies Sinophone studies and myriad other fields This is a must read for students scholars and lovers of film

Comparative Cinema Beate Allert, 2008 An anthology of primarily doctoral student essays on European Film 1925-1965 which demonstrates how analyzing film provides insights into visual culture world literature and multiculturalism Shoot the Piano Player François Truffaut, 1960 French film with analysis The film shocked and delighted critics and audiences with its sudden shifts of tone and mood its willful play with genre stereotypes and its hilarious in jokes Along with Godard's Breathless the two films heralded the arrival of the so called New Wave of low budget shooting location and cinema as the personal statement of an author Truffaut was one of the directors who paved the way for a postmodern aesthetic The Question of Class in Contemporary Latin American Cinema María Mercedes Vázquez Vázquez, 2020-07-06 The Question of Class in Contemporary Latin American Cinema responds to the renewed interest in class within and outside academia by examining the aesthetics and politics of class in a representative selection of films from the contemporary cinemas of Venezuela Cuba Mexico Brazil and Argentina It explores the relationship of cinematic practices to conflicting socio political transformations taking place in these five countries such as the intensification of neoliberalism the Turn to the Left and the growth of the middle classes in the period from 2003 to 2015 Utilizing a critical comparative method it sheds a critical light on the presumed depoliticization or new aestheticized politicization of contemporary Latin American cinema The combined textual and industrial analyses of films from strikingly different cinemas and directors through the lenses of class allows for a contextualization of this trend and the observation of its limitations Furthermore this book distinguishes cinematic figurations that correspond to new conceptualizations of class introduced in social studies from figurations of class that have yet to be conceptualized Riding the New Wave Richard Ivan Jobs, 2007 This history reveals youth both as a concept and as a social group to be a primary factor in France's postwar rejuvenation and cultural reconstruction in the wake of the Second World War Mimetic Theory and Film Paolo Diego Bubbio, Chris Fleming, 2019-02-21 The interdisciplinary French American thinker Ren Girard 1923-2015 has been one of the towering figures of the humanities in the last half century The title of Ren Girard's first book offered his own thesis in summary form romantic lie and novelistic truth mensonge romantique et vérité romanesque And yet for a thinker whose career began by an engagement with literature it came as a shock to some that in La Conversion de l'art Girard asserted that the novel may be an outmoded form for revealing humans to themselves However Girard never specified what if anything might take the place of the novel This collection of essays is one attempt at answering this question by offering a series of analyses of films that aims to test mimetic theory in an area in which relatively little has so far been offered Does it make any sense to talk of v rit filmique In addition Mimetic Theory and Film is a response to the widespread objection that there is no viable Girardian aesthetics One of the main questions that this collection considers is can we develop a genre specific mimetic analysis of film and are we able to develop anything approaching a Girardian aesthetic Each of the contributors addresses these questions through the analysis of a film
