The Heart of Our Music: Digging Deeper John Foley,2015-06-12 In The Heart of Our Music master practitioners of the art of liturgical music come together to offer enriching insights a stirring vision and practical new ideas that will change the way you think about liturgy and liturgical ministry These reflections are written with the needs of parish liturgists and liturgical musicians in mind This volume includes reflections on how the music we sing and play comes across to the people processes for bringing different cultures together the way we think about liturgy and the way we think about ourselves in liturgy Contributors and their articles include How Music in the Liturgy Is Perceived and Received An Anthropological Semiological Perspective by Paul Inwood Collecting Harmony Three Approaches to Cultural Diversity for Worship Music Today by Ricky Manalo CSP The Mothering Wing Catholic Imagination and Liturgy by John Foley SJ and To Be Known as We Are Known A Possible Future for Liturgical Engagement by Roc O Connor SJ

Beyond Spoon River Ronald Primeau,2014-08-27 As the first full length critical study of Edgar Lee Masters Beyond Spoon River is important not only for its reevaluation of this American poet and his work but also for its valuable insights into central questions of aesthetics regionalism and the nature and meaning of literary influence The inordinate popularity of Spoon River Anthology has for many years unfairly restricted Masters reputation as a one book phenomenon although between 1911 and 1942 he wrote over fifty other books most of which were neglected or misinterpreted precisely because they attempted a large scale rewriting of what he felt had been obscured or distorted in the Anglo American tradition Masters wide reading in the whole of western literature shaped his own attitudes themes and style and his detailed accounts of that reading and its effect on his work form the basis for this reinterpretation of his place in American poetry in this century After reviewing Masters own statements on literary influence and his role as a critic Primeau devotes the main body of his study to the major influences on Masters work the Greeks Goethe Emerson Whitman Shelley and Browning For Masters the composite of all these influences provided a corrective to the poetry and criticism of his time which he little admired Primeau concludes by exploring Masters midwestern heritage in the light of recent reinterpretations of regionalism

Musical Creativity Guerino Mazzola, Joomi Park, Florian Thalmann, 2011-11-03 This book represents a new approach to musical creativity dealing with the semiotics mathematical principles and software for creativity processes After a thorough introduction the book offers a first practical part with a detailed tutorial for students in composition and improvisation using musical instruments and music software The second theoretical part deals with historical actual and new principles of creative processes in music based on the results and methods developed in the first author s book Topos of Music and referring to semiotics predicative objects topos theory and object oriented concept architectures The third part of the book details four case studies in musical creativity including an analysis of the six variations of Beethoven s sonata op 109 a discussion of the creative process in a CD coproduced in 2011 by the first and second authors a recomposition of Boulez s Structures pour deux pianos using the Rubato software module BigBang developed by the third author and the Escher theorem from mathematical gesture theory in music This is both a textbook addressed to undergraduate and graduate students of music composition and improvisation and also a state of the art survey addressed to researchers in creativity studies and music technology The book contains summaries and end of chapter questions and the authors have used the book as the main reference to teach an undergraduate creativity studies program and also to teach composition The text is supported throughout with musical score examples

Herald of Gospel Liberty Elias Smith, 1911 The Harbinger, 1845 What and Where is God? A Human Answer to the Deep Religious Cry of the Modern Soul Richard La Rue Swain, 2022-09-04

In the thought provoking treatise What and Where is God A Human Answer to the Deep Religious Cry of the Modern Soul Richard La Rue Swain delves into the profound existential questions that have perplexed humanity for eons Captivating in its literary style the work seamlessly weaves philosophical inquiry with theological exploration reflecting the author's adept engagement with the spiritual quandaries of his era Embedded within its meticulously reconstructed text by DigiCat Publishing the book remains an evocative piece that resonates with contemporary seekers of truth serving as a testament to the enduring nature of humankind's search for the divine Richard La Rue Swain emerges as a scholar deeply attuned to the spiritual tumult of his time channeling his insights into a narrative that grapples with the nature of God in the context of human experience His profound contemplation stems from an astute observation of the zeitgeist possibly influenced by the accelerating secularization and the consequent vacuum felt within the souls of modern individuals Swain's personal journey and scholarly pursuits likely provided the fertile ground from which this seminal work sprouted What and Where is God is highly recommended for readers drawn to the intersections of theology philosophy and the human condition It stands as an essential read for those aspiring to grasp the essence of spirituality through a humanistic lens Swain's intellectually rich prose invites reflection engaging one's own beliefs whilst providing a compassionate response to the existential dilemmas faced by many today This carefully resurrected classic by DigiCat Publishing warrants recognition and contemplation offering wisdom that transcends the temporal bounds of its original publication

Music, Myth and Story in Medieval and Early Modern Culture Katherine Butler, Samantha Bassler, 2019

The complex relationship between myths and music is here investigated Myths and stories offer a window onto medieval and early modern musical culture Far from merely offering material for musical settings authoritative tales from classical mythology ancient history and the Bible were treated as foundations for musical knowledge Such myths were cited in support of arguments about the uses effects morality and preferred styles of music in sources as diverse as theoretical treatises defences or critiques of music art sermons educational literature and books of moral conduct Newly written literary stories too were believed capable of moral instruction and influence and were a medium through which ideas about music could be both explored and transmitted How authors interpreted and weaved together these traditional stories or created their own reveals much about changing attitudes across the period Looking beyond the well known figure of Orpheus this collection explores the myriad stories that shaped not only musical thought but also its styles techniques and practices The essays show that music itself performed and created knowledge in ways parallel to myth and worked in tandem with old and new tales to construct social political and philosophical views This relationship was not static however as the Enlightenment dawned the once authoritative gods became comic characters and myth became a medium for ridicule Overall the book provides a foundation for exploring myth and story throughout medieval and early modern culture and facilitating further study into the Enlightenment and beyond KATHERINE BUTLER is a senior lecturer in music at Northumbria University SAMANTHA BASSLER is a musicologist of cultural studies a teaching artist and an adjunct professor in the New York metropolitan area Contributors Jamie Apgar Katie Bank Samantha Bassler Katherine Butler Elina G Hamilton Sigrid Harris Ljubica Ilic Erica Levenson John MacInnis Patrick McMahon Aurora Faye Martinez Jacomien Prins Tim Shephard Jason Stoessel Fredia J Stone Davis Amanda Eubanks Winkler
