Hubbell, 2014-10-28 The blood chilling true story of a nineteenth century girl's terrifying and bewildering haunting First published in 1879 The Haunted House A True Ghost Story is the author's account of the infamous haunting of eighteen year old Esther Cox who lived with her extended family in Amherst Nova Scotia a beautiful peaceful little village population three thousand during the late 1800s Walter Hubbell stayed with the family for six weeks during which he witnessed a variety of alternately compelling and terrifying paranormal and unexplained events As he describes these manifestations No person has yet been able to ascertain their cause Scientific men from all parts of Canada and the United States have investigated them in vain Some people think that electricity is the principal agent others mesmerism whilst others again are sure they are produced by the devil Of the three supposed causes the latter is certainly the most plausible theory for some of the manifestations are remarkably devilish in their appearance and effect For instance the mysterious setting of fires the powerful shaking of the house the loud and incessant noises and distinct knocking as if made by invisible sledge hammers on solved and he aspired to be the one to do so He walked deeper into the forest than any other mouse had dared to go before far from his warm home motivated by his need for adventure Max s little feet led him to a location most people would avoid on a particularly misty morning when the woodland was shrouded in a thick layer of fog that made everything appear mysterious and bizarre The Haunted House loomed there towering over the old trees with its intimidating presence Among the woodland creatures it was a fabled spot that was talked about in whispers and watched with a mix of curiosity and terror The home remained an empty monument to the unknown with ghost stories and strange noises scaring visitors away But Max saw an opportunity where others saw threat His small heartbeat seems enthusiastic about the prospect of exploring the house rather than scared It was more than just an ancient creepy structure to him it was a buried treasure trove waiting to be unearthed He imagined himself roaming its hallways uncovering stories hidden beneath the layers of time and proving to everyone that there was nothing to be afraid of Max had a sense of purpose that he had never felt before as he stood in the heart of the famed Haunted House with all of its secrets and tales revealed before him Max confidently waved his tail as he approached the Haunted House s towering entryway He did not even wait to cast a brief check behind him The walls moaning and the creaking of the old wood seemed like a welcome song inviting him inside to explore what lay on the other side Max was ready to face whatever the house had in store for him because he knew a great adventure required courage He was an adventurer on the verge of making a huge discovery demonstrating that even the smallest creatures may have the biggest hearts and the bravest goals with each step he took inside the old building
