Northern Sun, Southern Moon Mike Heffley, 2005-01-01 Until the 1960s American jazz for all its improvisational and rhythmic brilliance remained rooted in formal Western conventions originating in ancient Greece and early Christian plainchant At the same time European jazz continued to follow the American model When the creators of so called free jazz Ornette Coleman Cecil Taylor John Coltrane Albert Ayler Sun Ra Anthony Braxton and others liberated American jazz from its Western ties European musicians found their own distinctive voices and created a vital innovative and independent jazz culture Northern Sun Southern Moon examines this pan Eurasian musical revolution Author and musician Mike Heffley charts its development in Scandinavia Holland England France Italy and especially former East and West Germany He then follows its spread to former Eastern bloc countries Heffley brings to life an evolving musical phenomenon situating European jazz in its historical social political and cultural contexts and adding valuable material to the still scant scholarship on improvisation He reveals a Eurasian genealogy worthy of jazz's well established African and American pedigrees and proposes startling new implications for the histories of both Western music and jazz The Musical Leader, 1929 Song Carol Kimball, 2006-12-01 Carol Kimball's comprehensive survey of art song literature has been the principal one volume American source on the topic Now back in print after an absence of several years this newly revised edition includes biographies and discussions of the work of 150 composers of various nationalities as well as articles on styles of various schools of composition The Musical Leader, 1932 Schoenberg Harvey Sachs, 2023-08-15 A NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK OF 2023 A New Yorker Best Book of the Year An immensely valuable source for anyone desiring an accessible overview of this endlessly controversial and chronically misunderstood giant of 20th century music John Adams New York Times Book Review cover review An astonishingly lyrical biography that rescues Schoenberg from notoriety restoring him to his rightful place in the pantheon of twentieth century composers In his time the Austrian American composer Arnold Schoenberg 1874 1951 was an international icon His twelve tone system was considered the future of music itself Today however leading orchestras rarely play his works and his name is met with apathy if not antipathy With this interpretative account the acclaimed biographer of Toscanini finally restores Schoenberg to his rightful place in the canon revealing him as one of the twentieth century s most influential composers and teachers Sachs shows how Schoenberg a thorny character who composed thorny works raged against the Procrustean bed of tradition Defying his critics among them the Nazis who described his music as degenerate he constantly battled the anti Semitism that eventually precipitated his flight from Europe to Los Angeles Yet Schoenberg synthesizing Wagnerian excess with Brahmsian restraint created a shock wave that never quite subsided and as Sachs powerfully argues his compositions must be confronted by anyone interested in the past present or future of Western music Complete Catalog of Books in All Fields Dover Publications, Inc,1997 Catalogue of Title-entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, Under the Copyright Law ...
