The One by Whom Scandal Comes René Girard, 2014-01-01 Why is there so much violence in our midst Ren Girard asks No question is more debated today And none produces more disappointing answers In Girard s mimetic theory it is the imitation of someone else s desire that gives rise to conflict whenever the desired object cannot be shared This mimetic rivalry Girard argues is responsible for the frequency and escalating intensity of human conflict For Girard human conflict comes not from the loss of reciprocity between humans but from the transition imperceptible at first but then ever more rapid from good to bad reciprocity In this landmark text Girard continues his study of violence in light of geopolitical competition focusing on the roots and outcomes of violence across societies latent in the process of globalization The volume concludes in a wide ranging interview with the Sicilian cultural theorist Maria Stella Barberi where Girard s twenty first century emphases on the continuity of all religions global conflict and the necessity of apocalyptic thinking emerge

Smith,2013-11-13 That YHWH is numerically one is foundational to the theology of the Hebrew Bible Christian theologians historically have affirmed that there is a more fundamental type of oneness attributable to God God is one not merely in the sense of being the only God but also in the sense of being simple or non composite having no parts of any kind In this way God is said to be an absolute unity After a consideration of all the evidence Barry D Smith reaches the conclusion that there is no basis for ascribing simplicity to God The simplicity doctrine is not found in Scripture and the traditional arguments used to establish it are unconvincing In addition the recent defenses of the simplicity doctrine prompted by Alvin Plantinga s work Does God Have a Nature are unsuccessful It should not be thought however that the rejection of divine simplicity means that by default God must be conceived as composite not even as a perfect composite with maximally great God making properties Rather there is a third option God should not be conceived as either simple or composite The question of in which mode God has attributes or exemplifies properties should be set aside
