The Opulent Eye Late Victorian And Edwardian Taste In Interior Design:

The Opulent Eye Nicholas Cooper, 1977 The opulent eye : late victorian and edwardian taste in interior design Nicholas Cooper, 1977 The Edwardian House Helen C. Long, 1993 Illustrates how Edwardian houses were built how they were used and what they meant at the time Nineteenth-Century Interiors Clive Edwards, 2023-12-05 This volume of primary source materials documents the nineteenth century search for a representative style and the alternating fashions for interiors that demonstrated the consumerism of the period Although in some senses every interior is unique so that a style canon may seem to be meaningless there have been important historical trends or styles that have influenced individual interiors and these have formed the groundwork from which other styles and tastes have developed and changed Accompanied by extensive editorial commentary this collection will be of great interest to students and scholars of art history

"Rethinking the Interior, c. 1867-1896 " Imogen Hart, 2017-07-05 From Aesthetes in Africa to the cultural history of the teapot the essays in this collection contribute to scholarly debates across a wide range of disciplines Addressing the question of whether eclectic relationships in Victorian decorative arts are actually self conscious iconographic schemes or merely random juxtapositions of assorted objects Rethinking the Interior c 1867 1896 Aestheticism and Arts and Crafts argues that no firm demarcation exists between the two movements examined here In the process the contributors explore a wide variety of interiors in locations as diverse as London Cornwall New England and Tangiers Analyzing spaces public and private sacred and secular the volume poses several historiographic challenges Drawing on a wide range of feminist and queer theories the book questions the identification of nineteenth century interiors as exclusively female or family spaces The collection also addresses the complex and temporary character of interiors and responds to the recent scholarly trend to return questions of feeling and embodied experience to the study of the decorative arts The Cosmopolitan Interior Judy Neiswander, 2008 Judith Neiswander explains that during these years liberal values individuality cosmopolitanism scientific rationalism the progressive role of the elite and the emancipation of women informed advice about the desirable appearance of the home In the period preceding the First World War these values changed dramatically advice on decoration became more nationalistic in tone and a new goal was set for the interior to raise the British child by the British hearth Neiswander traces this evolving discourse within the context of current writing on interior decoration writing that it is much more detached from social and political issues of the day BOOK JACKET "Women and Things, 1750-1950 " Maureen Daly Goggin, 2017-07-05 In contrast to much current scholarship on women and material culture which focuses primarily on women as consumers this essay collection provides case studies of women who produced material objects The essays collected here make an original contribution to material culture studies by focusing on women s social practices in relation to material culture The essays as a whole are concerned with women s complex and active engagement with material culture in the various stages of the material object s life cycle from design and production to consumption use and redeployment Also theorized and described are the ways in which women engaged in meaning making identity formation and commemoration through their manipulation of materials and techniques ranging from taxidermy and shell work to collecting autographs and making scrapbooks This volume takes as its object of investigation the overlooked and often despised categories of women s decorative and craft activities as sites of important cultural and social work This volume is interdisciplinary with essays by art historians social historians literary critics rhetoricians and museum curators The scope of the volume is international with essays on eighteenth century German silhouettes Australian aboriginal ritual practices Brittany mourning rites and Soviet era recipes that provide a comparative framework for the majority of essays which focus on British and North American women who lived and worked in the long nineteenth century This volume will appeal to a broad range of students and scholars in women s history art history cultural studies museum studies anthropology cultural and social history literature rhetoric and material culture studies
