The Old Bachelor:

The Old Bachelor William Wirt, Dabney Carr, St. George Tucker, Fielding Lucas, Joseph Robinson, 1818* The Old Bachelor William Congreve, 2019-10-12 The Old Bachelor is Heartwell a surly old pretended woman hater who falls in love with Silvia not knowing her to be the forsaken mistress of Vainlove and is lured into marrying her only discovering her true character afterwards from the gibes of his acquaintances The parson who has been brought in to marry them however is in fact Vainlove's friend Belmour who has assumed the disguise for the purpose of an intrigue with Laetitia the young wife of an uxorious old banker Fondlewife and Heartwell is relieved to discover that the marriage was a pretence The Old Bachelor William Wirt, 1818 An Old Bachelor's Thoughts on Love, Marriage, and Compatibility David Webster, 2025-05-29 My Thoughts on Love Marriage and Compatibility It stands to reason that to get good practical advice you should look to someone who's been there and done it With all the qualified and experienced pastors councilors sociologists etc who have written on love and marriage why should a lifelong bachelor with no specific education on the subject bother to write on it First just to explain my views since I have difficulty doing so in person Also it's my observation that no one is so ignorant that a wise person can't learn something of value from him So I wrote this for those friends who can glean wisdom from the most unpromising sources It has quite a different perspective than most so for what it's worth there may be something here that's not in scholarly works While divorce was multiplying marriage books and counseling by marriage experts were too almost all by married people That says inside the box thinking isn't doing enough It's easier to think outside the box when you live outside the box The main thrust of this booklet is this the more Christians love the Lord the more compatible they are period and the more they value the things of this world this life good or bad the more those things will come between them At the same time God will bless those who's courtship and marriage model the union of Christ and His Church and not those that don't even when those attitudes good or bad were acquired as a cultural norm while growing up and not as a well thought out belief It's God's first purpose for marriage to symbolize and in believers demonstrate that blessed relationship so we all have a way to believe in what would otherwise be beyond comprehension It's very much a love story The Old Bachelor William Wirt, 1814 Introduction. Letters. Incognita. The old batchelour William Congreve, 1923 Not All Wives Karin A. Wulf, 2019-05-15 Marital status was a fundamental legal and cultural feature of women's identity in the eighteenth century Free women who were not married could own property and make wills contracts and court appearances rights that the law of coverture prevented their married sisters from enjoying Karin Wulf explores the significance of marital status in this account of unmarried women in Philadelphia the largest city in the British colonies In a major act of historical reconstruction Wulf draws upon sources ranging from tax lists censuses poor relief records and wills to almanacs newspapers correspondence and poetry to recreate the daily experiences of women who were never married widowed divorced or separated With its substantial population of unmarried women eighteenth century Philadelphia was much like other early modern cities but it became a distinctive proving ground for cultural debate and social experimentation involving those women Arguing that unmarried women shaped the city as much as it shaped them Wulf examines popular literary representations of marriage the economic hardships faced by women and the decisive impact of a newly masculine public culture in the late colonial period

The Old Bachelor William Congreve,2001-10 The Old Bachelor William Congreve,2014-02-08 My Lord It is with a great deal of pleasure that I lay hold on this first occasion which the accidents of my life have given me of writing to your lordship for since at the same time I write to all the world it will be a means of publishing what I would have everybody know the respect and duty which I owe and pay to you I have so much inclination to be yours that I need no other engagement But the particular ties by which I am bound to your lordship and family have put it out of my power to make you any compliment since all offers of myself will amount to no more than an honest acknowledgment and only shew a willingness in me to be grateful I am very near wishing that it were not so much my interest to be your lordship s servant that it might be more my merit not that I would avoid being obliged to you but I would have my own choice to run me into the debt that I might have it to boast I had distinguished a man to whom I would be glad to be obliged even without the hopes of having it in my power ever to make him a return
