Charles Dillard Thompson

The Old Brethren:

Minutes of the Annual Meetings of the Old German Baptist Brethren Church from 1778 to 2002 Old German Baptist Brethren. Meeting, Church of the Brethren. Meeting, 2002 The Old German Baptist Brethren Charles Dillard Thompson, 2006-04-19 Since arriving nearly 250 years ago in Franklin County Virginia German Baptists have maintained their faith and farms by relying on their tightly knit community for spiritual and economic support Today with their land and livelihoods threatened by the encroachment of neighboring communities the construction of a new highway and competition from corporate megafarms the German Baptists find themselves forced to adjust Charles D Thompson Jr s The Old German Baptist Brethren combines oral history with ethnography and archival research as well as his own family ties to the Franklin County community to tell the story of the Brethren s faith on the cusp of impending change The book traces the transformation of their operations from frontier subsistence farms to cash based enterprises connecting this with the wider confluence of agriculture and faith in colonial America Using extensive interviews Thompson looks behind the scenes at how individuals interpret their own futures in farming their hope for their faith and how the failure of religiously motivated agriculture figures in the larger story of the American farmer Chronicles of the Brethren John M. Kimmel, 1951

Holsinger, 2018-03-21 Excerpt from Holsinger s History of the Tunkers and the Brethren Church Embracing the Church of the Brethren the Tunkers the Seventh Day German Baptist Church the German Baptist Church the Old German Baptists and the Brethren Church Forty nve years ago I became a member of the Church of the Brethren as it was then known Among those who did not belong to the same denomination the members were called Dunkards especially among those who were not friendly to their cause Besides these names I knew no other I was then in full harmony with the teachings of the church as far as I knew with a few exceptions I was told that the gospel of Christ was our only creed and discipline My father was a minister in the church and his father was a minister Hence I had every opportunity of knowing the customs and practices as well as the sentiments of the church and can safely say that taking all together I was in harmony with the average membership With the gospel peculiarities of the church I was in full sympathy Among those may be enumerated Faith Repent ance Triune Immersion Laying On of Hands Feet washing Lord s Supper Communion Anointing Salutation Anti war Anti slavery Non swearing Non conformity from all sinful fashions and customs I set out to serve the Lord in good faith In a few things however I did not agree with the average member ship of that day For instance I never could see that education was a dangerous thing and had a great thirsting for more of it I always preferred to hear a man preach who knew more than myself which did not require anything uncommon I was never much afraid of Sunday schools although I never had attended a Sunday school regularly I believed in plainness of attire but never accepted the uniformity theory I worked along without jarring with the congregations in which I lived or the officers under whom I served for more than fifteen years About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
