INNOCENTS only turns to fiction in the last third of the novel when the author cannot find justice in the judicial system or in life itself for defendant Marco Barrera Until that moment it presents a Spanish language interpreter s continuous struggle for emotional survival during a 2001 Los Angeles Superior Court death penalty trial The author interpreter must repeat into Spanish every word of testimony for the two defendants and thereby relive in stereo the horror of two of the most shocking domestic violence murders of California history The only way the interpreter can keep his battered emotions at bay during testimony is by recalling his own delightful youth and adolescence This defense mechanism eventually turns to rage against the defendant It then can only be appeased by striking out against domestic violence The death penalty man s reason to live defendant Marco Barrera s worst nightmares and justice itself all cry out for a helping hand The final resolution is a surreal
