The Opossums Tale:

The Opossum's Tale Deborah L. Duvall, 2005-12-01 Have you ever seen an opossum hurrying across the road with its eyes and coat shining in your headlights Or hanging upside down from a tree Or lying on the ground playing possum as if dead And did you ever wonder why the opossum acts this way The ancient Cherokee people wondered about the opossum whose silly grin and hairless tail caught their imagination In those days the people had no written language and they relied on stories to explain the behavior of the animals in their world According to Cherokee legend the Opossum owned a magnificent tail covered in glistening fur of which he was terribly proud The tail was so magnificent in fact that the Opossum thought it his duty to make everyone else appreciate it as well In this seventh volume of the Grandmother Stories Si qua the Opossum brags constantly about his tail until his neighbors can stand it no more Something must be done about him The prideful Si qua is overcome by loss and despair when his outer beauty is suddenly gone But an unexpected ally helps Si qua discover powerful abilities within himself that will soon win the true admiration of his friends Visit the authors website at www.jacobandduvall.com New Zealand Tales and Tours Mary P. The Raw and the Cooked Claude Lévi-Strauss, 1983-03-15 In anthropological terms the concept of the raw versus the cooked has long been associated with the dichotomy between the natural world and the world of human culture In a broad based empirical study of native mythologies Claude Lévi Strauss proposes a structural and thematic link between the opposition of the raw and the cooked in mythological thought and man's attempt to establish a balanced relationship between natural and cultural forces Lévi Strauss postulates that the raw/cooked axis is characteristic of all human culture with elements falling along the raw side of the axis being those of natural origin and those on the cooked side being of cultural origin i.e. products of human creation Symbolically cooking marks the transition from nature to culture by means of which the human state can be defined in accordance with all its attributes In mythological thought the cooking of food is in effect a form of mediation between nature and society between life and death and between heaven and earth The cook in turn can be viewed as a cultural agent whose function is to mediate the conjunction of the raw product and the human consumer the operation of which has the effect of making sure the natural is at once cooked and socialized Tall Tales of Bow Hunting and Fishing and Other Cool Stuff Randolph Harrison, 2001-08 Be thoroughly entertained by this ribald set of vignettes about deer hunting and fishing Fast paced easy and fun reading for the pre teen through the grandfather If you re a hunter or just someone who likes a good old down home yarn or two then this is the book for you Laugh at the three characters in Barber Shop Bucks then take a look through a deer s eyes in A WhiteTails Tale Be thrilled and warmed by a father and his young son as they experience First Day Deer Sit on the edge of your seat reading the frightening surprise ending in The Beast Try and guess the strange twist in The Great Adventure Woolly Worms should be read by all who believe that critters can predict weather And the author has also included hunting tips that he has garnered over decades in the timber A must have book for all outdoorsman and folks who just love a good short story
