Mario Soldati

The Orange Envelope:

The Orange Envelope Mario Soldati, Bernard Wall, 1969 The Orange Envelope Mario Soldati, 1969 this is a scrupulous if self indulgent first person account of the examined but unlived life of one Carlo This is attributable to his mother who passionately possessive after the abandonment of her husband alternately cossets and castigates him She also uses orange envelopes for her official messages at her death one to him one to the only woman Meris with whom he has fallen in love effectively ending the relationship His mother equating sexuality with sin has scarred him only too well until Meris every carnal transaction ends in future disinclination Meris succeeds in holding him by putting a literal lock and chain around his waist Fifteen years after her disappearance he again attempts to love substituting a marriage certificate for the chain but then abandoning her even if he has been cunningly conned out of all he possesses A sleek and quite fascinating optical view of the devil in the flesh which is never more than sex in the head Kirkus Pension Reform Robert Holzmann, Edward E. Palmer, 2006 This book presents 25 state of the art papers on the conceptual foundations and issues surrounding Non financial or Notional Defined Contribution NDC country implementation of NDC Italy Latvia Poland and Sweden and case studies for countries where NDC is figured in the reform debate This book is intended to be a handbook for academics and policy makers who want to become informed about what NDC is and to learn about the pros and cons of this attractive reform proposal Nonfinancial Defined Contribution Pension Schemes in a Changing Pension World Robert Holzmann, Edward Palmer, David Robalino, 2012-11-01 Nonfinancial Defined Contribution NDC schemes are now in their teens The new pension concept was born in the early 1990s implemented from the mid 1990s in Italy Latvia Poland and Sweden legislated most recently in Norway and Egypt and serves as inspiration for other reform countries This innovative unfunded individual account scheme created high hopes at a time when the world seemed to have been locked into a stalemate between piecemeal reforms of ailing traditional defined benefit schemes and introducing pre funded financial account schemes The experiences and conceptual issues of NDC in its childhood were reviewed in a prior anthology Holzmann and Palmer 2006 This new anthology published in 2 volumes serves to review its adolescence and with the aim of contributing to a successful adulthood Volume 1 on Progress Lessons Implementation includes a detailed analysis of the experience and the key policy lessons in the old and new pilot countries and the implementation of NDCs elements in other reform countries This volume 2 on Gender Politics Financial Stability includes deeper and new analyses of these issues that found little or no attention in the 2006 publication The gender perspective includes 5 chapters with perhaps the most complete discussion on gender and pension issues available to date The financial stability perspective addresses in 6 chapters critical micro and macroeconomic aspects such as the balancing mechanism the use of a reserve fund the handling of legacy costs and technicalities related to the management of the longevity risk when designing annuities While the 2 volumes address many issues it also opens a number of new questions for which good answers are not yet readily available

Promoting Better Lifetime Planning Through Financial Education Naoyuki Yoshino, Flore-anne Messy, Peter J Morgan, 2016-02-29 Surveys show that financial literacy levels are typically low around the world despite the widening access to financial services and the increasing financial risks borne by households in many countries This suggests that there will be mounting challenges for households and SMEs to invest wisely and effectively as societies age and governments shift away from defined benefit to defined contribution pension schemes Individuals will increasingly have to make complex financial decisions to plan for their retirement and for a range of foreseen and unforeseen expenditures All of these developments suggest that financial education should be part of a lifetime process that starts at an early age and is pursued throughout adulthood The contributions in this book came from a symposium titled Promoting Better Lifetime Planning through Financial Education organized by the Asian Development Bank Institute the Bank of Japan the Japan Financial Services Agency and the Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development held on 22-23 January 2015 in Tokyo Amongst the topics discussed were effective pension management financial education curricula in schools training for teachers of financial education internationally comparable data on financial literacy and the
