The Other America Caribbean Literature In A New World Context:

The Other America J. Michael Dash, 1998 A wide ranging work that explores two centuries of Caribbean literature from a comparative perspective While haunted by the need to establish cultural difference and authenticity Caribbean thought is inherently modernist in its recognition of the interplay between cultures brought about by centuries of contact domination and consent Perspectives on the 'other America' Michael Niblett, Kerstin Oloff, 2009 Uniting critical writing on novels poetry painting and ritual this volume takes a regional approach to the cultures of the Caribbean Basin Ranging across the linguistic spectrum of the area it examines cultural production from the Anglophone Francophone and Hispanophone islands Suriname and the Guyanas and Latin and Central America The interdisciplinary nature of the collection and the challenge it poses to the balkanization of the region within academic discourse will make it of especial interest to students and scholars of the Caribbean Inspired by the category of the Other America as developed by douard Glissant the book offers a series of original and stimulating engagements with topics that include nationalism migration and exile landscape and the environment gender and sexuality and Postcolonial Studies and world literature In addition to contributions by leading scholars such as Peter Hulme Theo D haen and Lizabeth Paravisini Gebert it contains interviews with two renowned novelists from the region Lawrence Scott and Mayra Santos Febres Underpinning the collection is an interrogation of received ideas of the nation state and a suggestion that regionalism might provide a better optic through which to view the circum Caribbean that national consciousness in other words must always also be a regional consciousness Race in Translation Ella Shohat, Robert Stam, 2012-05-28 While the term culture wars often designates the heated arguments in the English speaking world spiraling around race the canon and affirmative action in fact these discussions have raged in diverse sites and languages Race in Translation charts the transatlantic traffic of the debates within and between three zones the U S France and Brazil Stam and Shohat trace the literal and figurative translation of these multidirectional intellectual debates seen most recently in the emergence of postcolonial studies in France and whiteness studies in Brazil The authors also interrogate an ironic convergence whereby rightist politicians like Sarkozy and Cameron join hands with some leftist intellectuals like Benn Michaels i ek and Bourdieu in condemning multiculturalism and identity politics At once a report from various fronts in the culture wars a mapping of the germane literatures and an argument about methods of reading the cross border movement of ideas the book constitutes a major contribution to our understanding of the Diasporic and the Transnational

Masculinity Under Construction LaToya Jefferson-James, 2020-09-17 Masculinity Under Construction Literary Re Presentations of Black Masculinity in the African Diaspora analyzes Black male identity as constructed by Black male authors In each chapter Dr Jefferson James discusses a different construction or definition of masculine identity produced by men of African descent on the continent of Africa in the Caribbean and in North America Combing through the works of James Baldwin Chinua Achebe Ralph Ellison George Lamming and other pan African authors Masculinity Under Construction argues for the importance of analyzing the historical context that contributed to the formation of Black male identity. Additionally, Dr. Jefferson James draws a relationship between Black feminists and writers such as Anna Julia Cooper and her contemporaries and these works of literature viewed as primarily about Black masculinity. The Evolution of Literature in the Americas Earl E. Fitz, 2025-03-31. This book offers a systematic and comparative history of the evolution of literature in the Americas from the beginning to the present day. It begins with an introduction that assesses the development of the field and then proceeds to a chapter on the literature of Pre-Columbian and indigenous America. It then moves forward chronologically from the arrival of the Europeans beginning in 1492 to the year 2026. Including indigenous literature, the other American literatures represented in the book are those of Canada, both Francophone and Anglophone, the United States, the Caribbean, Francophone and Anglophone Spanish America, and Brazil. Not every book ever written in the Americas is included; of course, only those that in the author's estimation offer some valid point of comparison with other American literary cultures. These points of comparison include issues of theme, genre, literary periods, literature and other disciplines such as history, art, music, or politics, cases of influence and reception, and translation. The book's emphasis is on viewing American literature from a hemispheric and comparative lens. The Passage of Literature Christopher GoGwilt, 2011-01-27. Through a set of comparative studies of the fiction of Joseph Conrad, Jean Rhys, and Pramodha Ananta Toor, The Passage of Literature explains the interrelation between English Creole and Indonesian formations of literary modernism, arguing that each passage of literature is the site of contest between competing genealogies of culture.

Between Two Worlds Celucien L. Joseph, Jean Eddy Saint Paul, Glodel Mezilas, 2018-02-07. Between Two Worlds Jean Price Mars: Haiti and Africa is a special volume on Jean Price Mars that reassesses the importance of his thought and legacy and the implications of his ideas in the twenty-first century's culture of political correctness, the continuing challenge of race and racism, and imperial hegemony in the modern world. Price Mars's thought is also significant for the renewed scholarly interests in Haiti and Haitian Studies in North America and the meaning of contemporary Africa in the world today. This volume explores various dimensions in Price Mars's thought and his role as historian, anthropologist, cultural critic, public intellectual, religious scholar, pan-Africanist, and humanist. The goal of this book is fourfold: it explores the contributions of Jean Price Mars to Haitian history and culture; it studies Price Mars's engagement with Western history and the problem of the racist narrative; it interprets Price Mars's connections with Black Internationalism, Harlem Renaissance, and the Negritude Movement; and finally, the book underscores Price Mars's contributions to post-colonialism, religious studies, Africana Studies, and Pan-Africanism. On Tropical Grounds Francisco-J. Hernandez Adrian, 2024-10-11. On Tropical Grounds develops a new approach to the avant-garde and Surrealism in Caribbean and Atlantic studies. The book examines how islands and their tropical associations figure in the cultural and political imaginaries of the Caribbean and the Atlantic and identifies genealogies of local responses to continental fantasies of exotic insularity. Examining written and visual works that reflect on the Hispanic and Francophone Caribbean and the Canary Islands as well as critical debates around discourses of insularity in island and metropolitan spaces this book considers notions of ethnic purity originality imitation appropriation cosmopolitanism and self exoticism to challenge the idea that avant garde practices were pre eminently urban and metropolitan cultural forms The book argues that attention to the relational dimension implicit in exchanges around ideas of anticolonial struggle radical social transformation and anti fascist resistance should inform analyses of cultural production in Caribbean and Atlantic insular spaces On Tropical Grounds develops a persuasive critical model for the investigation of politically and aesthetically situated archipelagic relations that transgresses disciplinary boundaries and reconfigures our conception of the avant garde as a global movement that was overdetermined by racial gender and colonial conflicts This book will be of value to anyone interested in Caribbean and Atlantic studies avant garde and visual culture studies and literary and cultural studies
