repertoire for treble voices conducting an orchestra and preparing a children's choir to sing a major work with a professional orchestra. The underlying educational philosophy is sound: the author sees development of musicianship through singing as the primary goal of a children's choir program. This philosophy differs dramatically from the traditional concept of the conductor as all-knowing and the singers as receptacles. An outstanding aspect of the book is how the author leads the reader to an understanding of how to teach musicianship. Developing literacy in the choral setting is a mysterious, amorphous process to many conductors, but the author clearly outlines this important process with practical suggestions, well-documented examples, and a clear reading style which will reach readers on many levels. The comprehensive repertoire, skill-building sheets, and programs for all types of children's choirs will provide teachers with immediate and highly valuable resources.

Really Good Books for Kids Janaan Manternach, 2007. Locating worthwhile books for kids can be a challenge in our contemporary culture. How can a teacher, catechist, or parent find reading material these days that reflects moral values and/or teaches something about God? In Really Good Books for Kids, catechist and author Janaan Manternach meets that need head-on by providing an invaluable reference that presents an outstanding selection of children's books along with valuable reviews of their entertainment and educational value. She has organized this guide to help readers locate books by subject matter (e.g., Books That Raise Moral Consciousness, Bible Storybooks, and Poetry) or by religious theme (e.g., Resurrection Stories, Christmas Stories). This unique reference is an ideal resource for parents and for anyone else entrusted with the care and upbringing of kids, especially teachers and catechists looking for the right books to read to their pupils and add to their libraries. And Really Good Books for Kids is a perfect Baptism or First Communion gift for parents.
