

Six Characters Looking for an Author

by Luigi Pirandello, translated by David Harrower

Day. A theatre stage. Curtain up as audience enter. Stage dark and empty, without wings or flats so immediately from the start the impression of an improvised performance is given.

Two sets of steps from auditorium to stage, on either side. On stage, the hood removed from the prompter's box, standing beside it.

Downstage, a table and the Director's chair. Two other tables, one with chairs around it ready for rehearsal. More chairs scattered around right and left for the actors. Upstage, almost hidden from view, a piano.

When the house lights go down a Technician enters, begins nailing some lengths of wood together. At the sound of this, the Stage Manager enters quickly from direction of the dressing rooms.

Stage Manager What're you doing?

Technician What's it look like?

Stage Manager It's half ten. The director's going to be here any minute.

Technician So when'm I supposed to do this?

Stage Manager Not now. There'll be time later.

Technician When?

Stage Manager When the rehearsal's over. Clear this away, c'mon. I've to set up for Act Two.

*The Technician gathers his stuff, leaves. The company members drift in, in ones and twos, in all, nine or ten, to rehearse Pirandello's The Rules of the Game. They greet each other and the Stage Manager. Some go off to the dressing room, others, including the Assistant Stage Manager holding the script, stand about talking. One has a cigarette, another complains about his part, another reads out something from a theatrical paper. At some point, one of the actors could start playing the piano, with others joining in.*

Stage Manager All right. Enough. He's here.

Music stops. The Director enters down the central aisle of the auditorium, on to the stage.

Director Can we have more light? I can't see a thing in here.

The Stage Manager goes out. After a moment, the right-hand side of the stage where the company are is lit by a bright white light.

Director Let's make a start then. Are we all here?

Stage Manager The leading lady.
