Multiculturalism C. James Trotman,2002-05-06 Multi culturalism Roots and Realities Edited by C James Trotman Examines the place of multiculturalism in our society The most meaningful support for multiculturalism has come from intellectuals such as those represented in this book who have discovered greater meaning about our American past by incorporating the concepts driving multi culturalism These essays engage the word and its meanings as varied as they are in an effort to add and expand on the dialogue for this ever increasingly vital concept However Multiculturalism Roots and Realities is not a book aimed at debates instead each essay generally makes use of multiculturalism as a way of examining history and social themes while providing a broader and perhaps a deeper view of 19th century American life and thought The book s general goal which in fact belongs to all of us is to recognize excellence in the cultures of the historically neglected claim excellence where it is found and position it so that it can contribute to a fuller understanding of the human condition Contributors include Susan Alves Barbara J Ballard Jeannine DeLombard Juniper Ellis Joe B Fulton Henry Louis Gates Richard E Greene Richard Hardack Julie Husband Gillian Johns Verner D Mitchell Christine Palumbo DeSimone Janet Shannon C James Trotman Matthew Wilson and Julie Winch C James Trotman is Professor of English and founding director of the Frederick Douglass Institute at West Chester University of Pennsylvania He is author of Langston Hughes The Man His

Douglass Frederick Douglass,2014-07-01 The story of Frederick Douglass is passionate harrowing and inspiring As a former slave impassioned abolitionist gifted writer newspaper editor and powerful orator Douglass was an immense motivational figure His early life filled with physical abuse deprivation and tragedy adds up to a heart wrenching history However he was able to overcome everything that bound a slave to his life and become a leading spokesman for his people In this first of his three autobiographies Douglass relates graphic descriptions of his childhood his shocking experiences as a slave and his thrilling escape from slavery to safety in the North and his pivotal freedom Originally published in 1845 a date significant for the fact that very few African Americans could read or write at that time this tale of sadness danger and eventual liberation will appeal to readers of all kinds For those interested in African American history and the life of one of the most daring and heroic champions of civil rights this page turner is a perfect library addition Skyhorse Publishing along with our Arcade Good Books Sports Publishing and Yucca imprints is proud to publish a broad range of biographies autobiographies and memoirs Our list includes biographies on well known historical figures like Benjamin Franklin Nelson Mandela and Alexander Graham Bell as well as villains from history such as Heinrich Himmler John Wayne Gacy and O J Simpson We have also published survivor stories of World War II memoirs about overcoming adversity first hand tales of adventure and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home Figures in Black : Words,

Signs, and the "Racial" Self Henry Louis Gates Jr. Chairman of the Department of Afro-American Studies and W.E.B. DuBois Professor of the Humanities Harvard University,1987-07-16 The originality brilliance and scope of the work is remarkable Gates will instruct delight and stimulate a broad range of readers both those who are already well versed in Afro American literature and those who after reading this book will eagerly begin to be Barbara E Johnson Harvard University A critical enterprise of the first importance Gates promises to lead and to show the way in boldness of conception in vigor of execution and in vitality and pertinence of expression James Olney Louisiana State University Recently awarded Honorable Mention from the John Hope Franklin Publication Prize Committee of the American Studies Association Figures in Black takes a provocative new look at how we analyze and define black literature Henry Louis Gates Jr attacks the notion that the dominant mode of Afro American literature is or should be a kind of social realism evaluated primarily as a reflection of the Black Experience Instead Gates insists that critics turn to the language of the text and bring to their work the close methodical analysis of language made possible by modern literary theory But his goal in this volume is not merely to apply contemporary theory to black texts Indeed as he ranges from 18th century poet Phillis Wheatley to modern writers Ishmael Reed and Alice Walker he attempts to redefine literary criticism itself moving it away from a Eurocentric notion of a hierarchical canon mostly white Western and male to foster a truly comparative and pluralistic notion of literature In doing so he provides critics with a powerful tool for the analysis of black art and more important reveals for all readers the brilliance and depth of the Afro American tradition

A House Divided Mason I. Lowance Jr., 2018-06-05 This anthology brings together under one cover the most important abolitionist and unique to this volume proslavery documents written in the United States between the American Revolution and the Civil War It makes accessible to students scholars and general readers the breadth of the slavery debate Including many previously inaccessible documents A House Divided is a critical and welcome contribution to a literature that includes only a few volumes of antislavery writings and no volumes of proslavery documents in print Mason Lowance's introduction is an excellent overview of the antebellum slavery debate and its key issues and participants Lowance also introduces each selection locating it historically culturally and thematically as well as linking it to other writings The documents represent the full scope of the varied debates over slavery They include examples of race theory Bible based arguments for and against slavery constitutional analyses writings by former slaves and women's rights activists economic defenses and critiques of slavery and writings on slavery by such major writers as William Lloyd Garrison John Greenleaf Whittier Walt Whitman Henry David Thoreau and Ralph Waldo Emerson Together they give readers a real sense of the complexity and heat of the vexed conversation that increasingly dominated American discourse as the country moved from early nationhood into its greatest trial
