The Religious Art of Zen Master Hakuin Katsuhiko

Yoshizawa,Norman Waddell,2010-12-01 A charismatic and extraordinary Zen teacher and artist Hakuin 1686 1769 is credited with almost single handedly reforming and revitalizing Japanese Zen from a state of extreme spiritual decline As a teacher he placed special emphasis on koan practice inventing new koans such as the famous What is the sound of one hand clapping He also stressed the need to extend the benefits of Zen to others What made Hakuin even more remarkable was that he was not only a religious teacher but also a prolific artist Using calligraphy and painting to create visual Dharma his teachings were rendered on paper in pictures characters and images uniquely and magnificently expressing the nature of enlightenment as he wished to impart it to his students The Religious Art of Zen Master Hakuin is a stunning volume containing many of Hakuin s finest calligraphies and paintings along with brilliant commentary by Katsuhiko Yoshizawa the leading Japanese expert on Hakuin and his work Yoshizawa masterfully guides the reader from one piece of artwork to the next sharing the story of Hakuin s life revealing the profound religious meaning embedded in each illustration and providing a detailed documentary of the lessons of one of Zen s most respected teachers

And That's the Way It Was Florence McDaniels, M.ED.,2006-12 And That s the Way it Was is a legacy to her family daughter son and three grandsons and many nieces and nephews as told by Florence Baltimore McDaniels The intent is to tell how a family that had little material things and wealth functioned and worked together to make a happy home The family was poor but the children didn t realize that they were because they had the most important necessity love There were a lot of family oriented activities fun and games and wholesome activities that stimulated a desire to learn and excel in everything that was done Lessons learned are instilled in behaviors such as trustworthiness obedience versus disobedience doing one s part sharing the responsibilities caring for each other and respecting one s parents and siblings It is very important that every individual knows how to spend one s spare time One should have a hobby or develop a skill to hone in on when alone or when you need time to one s self and to reflect on one s inner strength Continue to take on new skills and acquire new knowledge that will enhance and stimulate the mind Try to keep up with current events and be aware of how changes in government and community will affect you When making decisions always try to make choices with which you can live It s all right to take chances but remember that you must live with the consequences And remember that no one is perfect We all make mistakes but once we make a mistake try not to repeat that same mistake again An intelligent person learns from his her mistakes That is how we grow and gain self confidence
