Dark Tourism and Crime Derek Dalton, 2014-11-20 Dark tourism has become widespread and diverse It has passed into popular culture vernacular deployed in guide books as a short hand descriptor for sites that are associated with death suffering and trauma However whilst books have been devoted to dark tourism as a general topic no single text has sought to explore dark tourism in spaces where crime mass murder genocide State sanctioned torture and violence has occurred as an organising theme Dark Tourism and Crime explores the socio cultural contours of this unique type of tourism and explains why spaces places where crime has occurred fascinate and attract tourists The book is marked by an ethics of respect for the suffering a place has experienced and an imperative to learn something tangible about the history and legacy of that suffering Based on empirical ethnographic research it takes the reader from the remnants of Auschwitz concentration camp to the tranquil Australian island of Tasmania to explore precisely what things a dark tourist might encounter architecture art installations gardens memorials physical traces of crime and how these things invoke and evoke past crimes This volume furthers understanding of dark tourism and will be of interest to students researchers and academics of criminology tourism and cultural studies

Bodies in the Back Garden - True Stories of Brutal Murders Close to Home Nigel Cawthorne, 2014-08-07 For the killer there is always the problem of getting rid of the body Muswell Hill murderer Dennis Nilsen famously cooked the corpses of his victims in Cranley Gardens and flushed them down the lavatory only to be caught when the sewers blocked up But his first twelve victims were disposed of in the back garden of his previous home in Melrose Avenue Fred and Rosemary West buried the bodies of three of their victims in the back garden of the House of Horrors at 25 Cromwell Street Milwaukee cannibal Jeffrey Dahmer began his murderous career scattering human remains in the backyard of his parents home in Bath Ohio Convicted killer Peter Tobin went back on trial after two more bodies were found in the back garden of his former home in Margate And grisly granny Dorothea Puente murdered lodgers at her boarding house in Sacramento California dispatching them to the backyard while continuing to cash their Social Security cheques This book explores these and many other cases that suggest that whatever the motive for murder the back garden is a convenient place to dump the corpse The Mexican drug cartels use it So do drug dealers in London and sex killers in France Benjamin Laing who killed a father and daughter to steal a 7 000 car went one step further burying the bodies of his victims in the back garden of his girlfriend s house in Abbey Wood She called the police

Serial Homicide: Australian Serial Killers RJ Parker, PhD, 2016-12-26 Between 1989 and 2006 there were 5,226 homicides in Australia. Serial homicides account for 1% of this astonishing number of murders that were committed by 13 known offenders. In this 3rd volume of Serial Homicide the following cases are discussed. On their way to Sydney for a festival British backpackers Joanne Walters and Caroline Clarke suddenly disappeared. Their bodies were the first of many to be discovered buried in Belanglo State Forest. Joanne was stabbed 35 times while Caroline was shot in the head 10 times. Seemingly unstoppable The Backpacker Killer Ivan Milat went on to kill between 7 and 12 people. Known as The Moorhouse Murders David and Catherine Birnie cruised the streets to abduct young women and bring them to their house. There they raped, tortured and killed them without mercy. The Snowtown Murders aka Bodies in Barrels murders were committed by four serial killers who targeted homosexuals brutally killing 12 people before they were stopped. Arnold Sodeman the School girl Killer lured young girls between the ages of 6 and 16 with money and ice cream. None of his four victims made it home from the play ground or schools. Eric Edgar Cooke the Night Caller terrorized one community for four years where he killed a dozen people. His acts were so depraved it's questionable whether Cooke was even human. One victim was strangled to death with the cord from a bedside lamp after which Cooke he raped the corpse, dragged it to a neighbor's lawn then sexually penetrated it with an empty whiskey bottle. Lindsay Robert Rose is an Australian serial killer and contract killer from New South Wales currently serving five consecutive sentences of life imprisonment without the possibility of parole for the murder of 5 people between 1984 and 1994.

Murderers' Row Robin Odell, Wilfred Gregg, 2011-10-30 Criminologist Robin Odell has compiled this gruesome gallery of cases from all over the world revealing the growth in serial slayings, contract killings and middle class murders and investigating what motivates people to commit the ultimate crime. As well as gangsters and ordinary felons the book includes doctors, millionaires, housewives, children, lawyers, accountants, officers and gentlemen who have succumbed to the killing instinct. Behind the sensational names concocted by the tabloid press Boston Strangler, Dracula Killer, Night Stalker, Granny Killer lurk real murderers committing acts of violence in circumstances often more bizarre than fiction. Arranged in an easy to use A-Z format the book contains over 500 cases from serial killers such as Dennis Nilsen and Ted Bundy to those such as Jeremy Bamber and Steven Benson who dispatched their parents for money from murderous New Zealand teenagers whose story made a successful film to the many doctors and nurses who took life instead of saving it from unsolved murders such as the murder of Little Gregory in France to the paid assignments of John Wayne Hearn a Vietnam veteran who killed to order. The result is a classic of true crime, a definitive
