Mills sociological imagination i.e. the proposition that the best way to theorize and practice sociology is via a continual conversation between the study of one's personal troubles and that of broader public issues the present issue turns its attention to fostering sociological re-imaginings in and of universities. Several faculty, recent graduates or alumni and current undergraduate students advance insightful critical perspectives about their own learning and teaching experiences and personal troubles and broader university disciplinary and administrative public issues that in their view merit immediate attention in favor of fundamental rectifications of outdated procedures and educational habits that continue to persist at the cost of more creative and in fact more scientific and rational approaches to production and dissemination of knowledge. Liza Long, the author of I Am Adam Lanza's Mother as seen in the HBO documentary A Dangerous Son, speaks out about mental illness. Like most of the nation, Liza Long spent December 14, 2012, mourning the victims of the Newtown shooting. As the mother of a child with a mental illness, however, she also wondered: What if my son does that someday? The emotional response she posted on her blog went viral, putting Long at the center of a passionate controversy. Now she takes the next step. Powerful and shocking, The Price of Silence looks at how society stigmatizes mental illness, including in children, and the devastating societal cost. In the wake of repeated acts of mass violence, Long points the way forward. Natural Questions. Lucius Annaeus Seneca, 2014-08-20. In Natural Questions, Seneca expounds comments on the natural sciences as understood in his day, offering insights to ancient philosophical/scientific approaches to the physical world as well as vivid evocations of the grandeur, beauty, terror of nature. The Long Walk Home. Raymond J. Castellani, 2017-02-02. The Long Walk Home will most likely be the last book I write. I am eighty-three years old; this book is important to me; it goes over to a degree what has been said in my previous books The End Was A Beginning, the first, the second, The Silent Voice, in much more detail; it is threaded with the never-ending presence of loneliness but more significantly it brings forth the Four Absolutes Honesty Purity Unselfishness Love which were given to me in 1986 I have talked about these principles in my previous books I made clear that if these principles were incorporated in society at hand the world would change in an instant this I believe is the power of these four words the society that exists at present the persistence of selfishness self centeredness permeated with dishonesty beyond reproach the distortion of purity the use of the word love as a panacea to cover the vile of discontent that exists in the world as is lived in every crime every murder every twisted thought every lie every selfish act every thought of hate would be reduced to the pleasantries of memory I cannot predict where society will rest seventy years from now 2016 I do know that in 1927 the world population was two billion 1960 three billion 2011 seven billion projection 2083 ten billion will make up our society if the culture is not changed the present will be a reality for the future this may be a morbid statement it is a true statement for sure society is doing nothing to change the silhouette as is known the simple life is but a dream of realities taken from the books well read by masters of the past what is our destiny
