Texte Und Kontexte Studien Zur Deutschen:

The Representation of War in German Literature Elisabeth Krimmer, 2010-06-10 The history of literature about war is marked by a fundamental paradox although war forms the subject of countless novels dramas poems and films it is often conceived as indescribable Even as many writers strive towards an ideal of authenticity they maintain that no representation can do justice to the terror and violence of war Readings of Schiller Kleist J nger Remarque Grass B ll Handke and Jelinek reveal that stylistic and aesthetic features gender discourses and concepts of agency and victimization can all undermine a text s martial stance or its ostensible pacifist agenda Spanning the period from the Revolutionary and Napoleonic Wars to the recent wars in Yugoslavia and Iraq this book investigates the aesthetic theoretical and historical challenges that confront writers of war

current literary theory could move forward through the rediscovery of sunken ideas Women and Family Life in Early Modern German Literature Elisabeth Wågghäll Nivre, 2004 A study of the discourse of gender in 16th century German popular literature Writers of sixteenth century German popular literature took great interest in describing debating commenting on and prescribing gender roles and discourses of gender can be traced in texts of all kinds from this period This book focuses on popular works by Georg Wickram Jakob Frey Martin Montanus and Johann Fischart all of whom published novels joke books plays and or moral treatises on marriage and family life in Strasbourg in the sixteenth century Their works express not only their own ideas on women's roles as wives and mothers but also societal values at a time of religious political and cultural change The view of gender issues provided by these writers is not a simple one as they ascribed widely varying characteristics to woman and her relationship to man The book thus analyzes the social and cultural construction of the concept of woman as indicated not only by the narrators comments but also by the relationships and roles of men and women characters in the narratives Overall the focus is on the disparities that persisted in the sixteenth century discourse of gender confusing all attempts to arrive at definitive gender roles In the end the study argues for something that can best be described as a flowing continuity or a continuous flow in the discourses that form the sixteenth century concepts of woman and man Elisabeth Wågghäll Nivre is associate professor of German at Vxjö University Sweden ationships and roles of men and women characters in the narratives Overall the focus is on the disparities that persisted in the sixteenth century discourse of gender confusing all attempts to arrive at definitive gender roles In the end the study argues for something that can best be described as a flowing continuity or a continuous flow in the discourses that form the sixteenth century concepts of woman and man Elisabeth Wågghäll Nivre is associate professor of German at Vxjö University Sweden ationships and roles of men and women characters in the narratives Overall the focus is on the disparities that persisted in the sixteenth century discourse of gender confusing all attempts to arrive at definitive gender roles In the end the study argues for something that can best be described as a flowing continuity or a continuous flow in the discourses that form the sixteenth century concepts of woman and man Elisabeth Wågghäll Nivre is associate professor of German at Vxjö University Sweden niversity Sweden

Aberrations of Mourning Laurence A. Rickels, 1988 Mental Processes and Narrative Possibilities in the German Novelle, 1890-1940 David Turner, 2005 Although it concentrates on a particular historical period and although it examines a variety of individual works many of them acknowledged Novellen this study is neither an historical survey nor a collection of interpretations Its distinctive approach is taxonomical and comparative Taking as its starting point the surge of interest in the human mind as the nineteenth century drew to a close it examines the kinds of shorter narrative that were generated by that interest On the other hand therefore it investigates how by focusing on particular aspects of the mind writers were led to adopt certain narrative patterns or structures and on the other hand building on the work of Dorrit Cohn but extending her range considerably it explores and evaluates the different modes of presentation which writers exploited as they sought to give life to the inner workings of their characters According to some psychology and the Novelle are incompatible Although the investigation concludes that there is no inherent incompatibility between psychological interest and the aims of the Novelle it also demonstrates that psychological interest in shorter narratives does not always lead to Novellen it explores other narrative structures that may arise when particular models of the mind form their basis

Prostitution in Medieval and Early Modern Literature Albrecht Classen, 2019-07-18 Prostitution is known as the oldest profession in the history of humanity While historians have already given due consideration to the profession s social and cultural meanings across time periods little has been written about literary representations of prostitution Prostitution in Medieval and Early Modern Literature analyses the work of writers from an array of social positions including courtly poets and even religious writers dealing with the topic during the medieval and early modern periods Its study shows that prostitutes and brothel owners were present on the literary stage far more often than we might have assumed Utilizing an interdisciplinary approach and incorporating relevant sources from across the entire European continent dating from the early Middle Ages to the sixteenth century it examines the phenomenon of prostitution in a variety of contexts and highlights the extent to which the institution mattered for both the higher and the lower classes The British Library general catalogue of printed books to 1975 British Library, Jim Emmett, 1981 Directory of American Scholars , 1982 Lesen in Der Fremdsprache Deutsch-Eine Empirische Studie Zum Lesen Linearer Texte... Ute Weis, 2000-06 Modern Drama Scholarship and Criticism 1966-1980 Charles A.
