Texts In Context:

English Texts & Contexts 1 F. Pollock, L. Dippel, 2003 This book includes chapters dealing with the relationships between composers and responders how to use technology to make texts and how to effectively compose and respond to different types of text There is a wide range of texts presented including film visual and electronic texts Students will learn how to increase their understanding of language features structures the perspectives of composers and responders and the way that context can affect a text

Texts and Contexts Adrian Beard, 2001 The idea of studying texts in context has become a new emphasis in literary studies This book explores the idea of contexts and the way they affect texts concentrating upon the writer's context the reader's context the text's context the language context and the meaning context

Text, Context and the Johannine Community David A. Lamb, 2014-04-24 Text Context and the Johannine Community adopts a new approach to the social context of the Johannine writings by drawing on modern sociolinguistic theory Sociolinguistics emphasizes language as a social phenomenon which can be analysed with reference not only to its broad context of culture but also through the use of register analysis to its narrower context of situation The Johannine writings have increasingly been seen as the product of a distinct Johannine Community depicted by some scholars as a sectarian group opposed both to wider Jewish society and to other Christian groups This model has largely been constructed on historical critical grounds yet given our lack of reliable external information about the origin of the Johannine writings a more fruitful approach may be to examine their lexico grammatical and discourse features to determine what these imply about interpersonal relationships This study compares selected narrative asides from the Gospel of John with a passage section from 1 John and with the two shorter Johannine Epistles It concludes that register analysis of these texts does not support the idea of a close knit sectarian group

Pauline Letters: Texts @ Contexts Menghun Goh, 2024-02-08 In this volume contributors from various social locations in North America Asia Europe and Australia analyse and interpret Pauline letters Engaging both the biblical text and the lives and contexts from different sociocultural religious methodological perspectives each contributor demonstrates the dynamic interaction between text and context in their understanding and explanation of the text The first part of the volume highlights the hermeneutical focus in interpretation That is how a certain chosen worldview e.g. Lutheran liturgical worldview affects one's decision in prioritizing a certain textual dimension and level instead of others Part Two elucidates how even a technical analysis of the text e.g. epistolography is context oriented Part Three shows how such a contemporary contextual interpretation is also an intercontextual and intertextual interpretation that entails intersectional and global local experiences

Theory, Text, Context Christopher Lyle Johnstone, 1996-01-01 Leading scholars of classical rhetoric address contemporary topics in Greek rhetoric and oratory

Studying English Literature in Context Paul Poplawski, 2022-10-13 From early medieval times to the present this diverse collection of thirty one essays sets literary texts in their historical contexts Text, Context, Concepts Cornelia Zelinsky-Wibbelt, 2003 The main concern of this book is to look at the communication of conceptual structures It investigates how speakers rely on the same cognitive dispositions in three different areas of transfer These areas look at metonymies and metaphors intercultural communication and expert lay communication ARTIFACT, TEXT, CONTEXT Li Tang, Dietmar W. Winkler, 2020-01-01 This volume is a collection of papers highlighting recent researches on Syriac Christianity in China and Central Asia The topics range from artifacts to texts and their historical contexts covering the period from the 7th to the 18th century As the studies on Syriac Christianity in China and Central advance focus has shifted from a general historical survey and textual translation to a more micro and meticulous study of specific concepts and terms and particular names of persons and places Methods of Text and Discourse Analysis Stefan Titscher, Bryan Jenner, 2000-07-28 This volume is the most comprehensive overview to date of sociologically orientated approaches to text and discourse analysis and is worth reading even for those who are interested only in purely linguistic approaches to text and discourse Its main merit I think is that it introduces approaches which up to now have hardly been admitted into the universe of scientific discourse Discourse Studies Methods of Text and Discourse Analysis provides the most comprehensive overview currently available of linguistic and sociological approaches to text and discourse analysis Among the 10 linguistic and sociological models surveyed in this book some of the more important are Grounded Theory Content Analysis Conversation Analysis and Critical Discourse Analysis The book presents each approach according to a standardised format which allows for direct systematic comparisons The fully annotated lists of sources provide readers with an additional means of evaluation of the competing analytical methods Interdisciplinary and international in its aims Methods of Text and Discourse Analysis suggests the benefits both linguists and sociologists will derive from a more intimate knowledge of each others methods and procedures How the Light Gets In Graham Ward, 2016 How the Light Gets In Ethical Life I presents a systematic account of the teachings of the Christian faith to offer a vision from a human created and limited perspective of the ways all things might be understood from the divine perspective It explores how Christian doctrine is lived and the way in which beliefs are not simply cognitive sets of ideas but embodied cultural practices Christians learn how to understand the contents of their faith learn the language of the faith through engagements that are simultaneously somatic affective imaginative and intellectual In the first of four volumes Graham Ward examines the complex levels of these engagements through three historical developments in the systematic organization of doctrine the Creeds the Summa and Protestant dogmatics He outlines a methodology for exploring and practicing systematic theology that captures how the faith is lived in cultural social and embodied engagements Ward then unpicks several fundamental theological concepts and how they are to be understood from the point of view of an engaged systematic truth revelation judgement discernment proclamation faith seeking understanding and believing as it relates to and grounds the possibilities for faith This groundbreaking work offers an interdisciplinary investigation through poetry art film the Bible and theological discourse analysing the human condition and theology as the deep dream for salvation The final part relates theology as a lived and ongoing pedagogy concerned with individual and corporate formation to biological life social life and life in Christ Here an approach to living theologically is sketched that is the primary focus for all four volumes ethical life

The Scarlet Woman and the Red Hand Joshua T. Searle, 2014-04-16 This book provides a comprehensive description of how evangelicals in Northern Ireland interpreted the Troubles 1966-2007 in the light of how they read the Bible The rich and diverse landscape of Northern Irish evangelicalism during the Troubles is ideally suited to this study of both the light and dark sides of apocalyptic eschatology Searle demonstrates how the notion of apocalypse shaped evangelical and fundamentalist interpretations of the turbulent events that characterized this dark yet fascinating period in the history of Northern Ireland The book uses this case study to offer a timely reflection on some of the most pressing issues in contemporary negotiations between culture and religion Given the current resurgence of religious fundamentalism in the wake of 9/11 together with popular conceptions of a clash of civilizations and the so-called War on Terror this book is not only an engaging academic study it also resonates with some of the defining cultural issues of our time

Johannine Portrayal of Jesus Yan Ma, 2024-12-02 This book introduces a new methodological framework based on the theory of Systemic Functional Linguistics which can examine the linguistic features of the New Testament text By applying a two-step discourse analysis model that includes a functional semantic analysis and a rhetorical relational analysis this book argues that the twenty-eight occurrences of I am in Jesus's utterances throughout the Gospel of John reinforce John's portrayal of Jesus's divinity In the light of John's construing of Jesus's divinity this new analysis of the Johannine I am phrases demonstrates how Johannine Christology is expressed through the narrative of John's Gospel with various textual characteristics

Rhetoric in Popular Culture Barry Brummett, 2022-09-20 The Sixth Edition of Barry Brummett's Rhetoric in Popular Culture provides readers with in-depth insight into the techniques of rhetorical criticism to analyze the full spectrum of contemporary issues in popular culture Exploring a wide range of mass media texts including advertisements magazines movies television popular music and social media Barry Brummett presents key rhetorical concepts and applies them with critical analysis to a variety of exciting examples drawn from today's popular culture Ideal for courses in rhetorical criticism the new edition includes new and updated sample critical essays and case studies that demonstrate for readers how the critical methods discussed can be used to study the hidden rhetoric of popular culture

Genre, Text, Grammar Peter Knapp, Megan Watkins, 2005 A comprehensive reference text that examines how the three aspects of language genre text and grammar can be used as resources in teaching and assessing writing It provides an accessible account of current theories of language and language learning together with practical ideas for teaching and assessing the genres and grammar of writing across the curriculum

Making Sense of Messages Mark Stoner, 2019-11-13 Making Sense of Messages now in its second edition retains the apprenticeship approach which facilitates effectively learning the complex content and skills of rhetorical theory and criticism A new chapter on The Rhetoric of Ignorance provides needed theory and examples that help students deal with the new rhetorical landscape marked by such discursive complexities as fake news whataboutism and denial of science that creates rather than reduces uncertainty in public argument A new chapter Curating and Analyzing Multimodal Mediated Rhetoric deals with problems of media criticism in the digital age It provides theory models of application and commentary that help novice critics understand and mindfully practice criticism that leads to insight not mere opinion Throughout the book extended and updated examples and commentaries are designed to promote novice to expert agency in students This textbook is ideal for introductory courses in contemporary rhetoric rhetorical criticism and critical analysis of mass media

Researching Chinese Language Education Mark Shiu-kee Shum, Peter Mican, 2018-09-13 The culmination of more than a decade of research this compelling volume offers a fresh approach for applying functional linguistics to assess student performance to inform the teaching and learning of Chinese and to design curriculum and teaching materials Documenting authentic systemic functional linguistics SFL studies in researching and teaching Chinese as a first or second language this research is set in the multilingual settings of Hong Kong and Australia The experiences of SFL and genre teaching in English have been well demonstrated as valid viable and practical in different contexts however this volume covers the relatively new domain of research into the applications of SFL to the teaching of Chinese Using SFL as the research framework the authors cover three major areas in Chinese language education effective pedagogies curriculum and material design and text analysis Covering major local curriculum reforms and the rapid growth of International Baccalaureate programmes worldwide this book will be of interest to linguists language teachers and teacher educators and those involved in the teaching and learning of Chinese around the world

The Proof Texts of the Catechism with a Practical Commentary Augustus Lawrence Gräbner, Louis Wessel, 1920

Yukaghir Texts Elena Maslova, 2001 The book presents authentic texts in two Yukaghir languages Tundra and Kolyma Yukaghir an isolate group of languages spoken by few small communities in Siberia

The major goal of the book is to make primary Yukaghir data accessible for readers who have no previous knowledge of these languages. Each text is provided with a detailed morph to morph translation following the current linguistic standards as well as with idiomatic English translation. In addition, the book contains Yukaghir-English vocabularies for both Yukaghir languages with cross references to all text occurrences of each word, a set of comprehensive morphemic and grammatical indices to text corpora and a brief overview of basic ethnographic and grammatical facts. The principles of text representation are described in a user's guide. The book will serve as a useful source of data for scholars of the Yukaghir languages and cultures as well as for anyone interested in cross linguistic or cross cultural studies.
