Philosophical Introductions Jürgen Habermas, 2018-08-08 On the occasion of Habermas's 80th birthday the German publisher Suhrkamp brought out five volumes of Habermas's papers that spanned the full range of his philosophical thought from the theory of rationality to the critique of metaphysics For each of these volumes Habermas wrote an introduction that crystallized in a remarkably clear and succinct way his thinking on the key philosophical issues that have preoccupied him throughout his long career This new book by Polity brings together these five introductions and publishes them in translation for the first time The resulting volume provides a unique and comprehensive overview of Habermas's philosophy in his own words In the five chapters that make up this volume Habermas discusses the concept of communicative action and the grounding of the social sciences in the theory of language the relationship between rationality and the theory of language discourse ethics political theory and problems of democracy and legitimacy and the critique of reason and the challenge posed by religion in a secular age The volume includes a substantial introduction by Jean

Marc Durand Gasselin which offers a synoptic view of the development of Habermas's thought as a whole followed by concise accounts of his contributions in each of the areas mentioned Together they provide the reader with the necessary background to understand Habermas's distinctive and original contribution to philosophy Philosophical Introductions will be an indispensable text for students and scholars in philosophy and in the humanities and social sciences generally as well as anyone interested in the most important developments in philosophy and critical theory today Native to the Nation Allaine Cerwonka, 2004 In a world increasingly marked by migration and dislocation the question of displacement and of establishing a sense of belonging has become ever more common and ever more urgent But what of those who stay in place How do people who remain in their place of origin or ancestral homeland rearticulate a sense of connection of belonging when ownership of the territory they occupy is contested Focusing on Australia Allaine Cerwonka examines the physical and narrative spatial practices by which people reclaim territory in the wake of postcolonial claims to land by indigenous people and new immigration of foreigners As a multicultural postcolonial nation whose claims to land until recently were premised on the notion of the continent as empty terra nullius Australia offers an especially rich lens for understanding the reterritorialization of the nation state in an era of globalization To this end Native to the Nation provides a multisited ethnography of two communities in Melbourne the Fitzroy Police Station and the East Melbourne Garden Club allowing us to see how bodies are managed and nations physically constructed in everyday confrontations and cultivations Allaine Cerwonka is assistant professor of women's studies and political science at Georgia State University Social, Political, and Economic Contexts in Public Relations Hugh M. Culbertson, Dennis W. Jeffers, Donna Besser Stone, Martin Terrell, 2012-10-12 Two commissions within the Public Relations Society of America have recently defined courses in case study analysis research methods and behavioral science theory as central to an acceptable public relations curriculum To date these three streams within PR education have run independently of each other The authors produced this volume because they believe that there is a growing demand for an integrative applied theory approach to the study of public relations cases The need for PR professionals to study the social political and economic contexts of public relations carefully had been apparent for some time as issues management and environment scanning emerged as focal points of modern public relations Yet there was no systematic framework for such study This volume however with its strong foundation in theory provides just that framework and is highly suitable for graduate level courses in public relations Environment and Social Theory John Barry, 2007-01-24 This thematic rather than theorist centred approach is an essential guide to the way in which the environment and social theory relate to one another including examinations of the works of the key theorists including Marx Mill Habermas and Adorno
