OUR ROOM:

My name is Tony, and they are my two siblings Ana and George. We are in our room. My hair is black, but Ana and George are very different. His hair is brown and her hair is yellow. He is a brunette. She is a blonde.

This is our room, it isn't clean and organized. It is very messy and dirty. There are three beds and bedside tables but their beds aren't in the photo. There is a white trunk with our toys, and there is a lamp and alarm clock on my table.

On the walls, there are two pictures, one poster of a purple monster and one photograph of our cat. Its name is Mr. Whiskers, he is 10 years old and he is a very nice cat. Its hair is soft and yellow and his teeth are very big.

Our toys are in the big, white trunk, but Ana prefers coloring pencils. Her pencils are on the floor. George loves his boat; his boat is yellow and big. My favorite toys are my teddy bear, on the bed and my mystery books. Our room is our favorite place.

A) TRUE OR FALSE:

- 1- Their toys are in the white trunk.
- 2- His hair is black (Tony)
- 3- Her coloring pencils are on the bed.
- 4- His teddy bear is on the bedside table.
- 5- Their room is messy.

Textual Possessions:

Possessions Julia Horn, Lynsey Russell-Watts, 2003      Voice, Text, Hypertext Raimonda Modiano, Leroy F. Searle, Peter L. Shillingsburg, 2016-06-01 Voice Text Hypertext illustrates brilliantly why interest in textual studies has grown so dramatically in recent years For the distinguished authors of these essays a text is more than a document or material object It is a cultural event a matrix of decisions an intricate cultural practice that may focus on religious traditions modern underground literary movements poetic invention or the irreducible complexity of cultural politics Drawing from classical Roman and Indian to modern European traditions the volume makes clear that to study a text is to study a culture It also demonstrates the essential importance of heightened textual awareness for contemporary cultural studies and critical theory and indeed for any discipline that studies human culture      Fans Cornel Sandvoss, 2005-04-08 Explores the social cultural and psychological premises and consequences of fan consumption This book describes the nature and development of whole fan cultures and focuses on the experience and identity of the individual fan      The Textual Life of Savants Gísli Pálsson, 1995 First Published in 1995 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Verbal-Visual

Configurations in Postcolonial Literature Birgit Neumann, Gabriele Rippl, 2020-04-23 Examining a range of contemporary Anglophone texts this book opens up postcolonial and transcultural studies for discussions of visibility and vision It argues that the preoccupation with visual practices in Anglophone literatures addresses the power of images vision and visual aesthetics to regulate cultural visibility and modes of identification in an unevenly structured world The representation of visual practices in the imaginative realm of fiction opens up a zone in which established orders of the sayable and visible may be revised and transformed In 12 chapters the book examines narrative fiction by writers such as Michael Ondaatje Derek Walcott Salman Rushdie David Dabydeen and NoViolet Bulawayo who employ word image relations to explore the historically fraught links between visual practices and the experience of modernity in a transcultural context Against this conceptual background the examination of verbal visual relations will illustrate how Anglophone fiction models alternative modes of representation that reflect critically on hegemonic visual regimes and reach out for new more pluralized forms of exchange

Troubling Topics, Sacred Texts Roberta Sterman Sabbath, 2021-10-04 Abrahamic scriptures serve as cultural pharmakon prescribing what can act as both poison and remedy This collection shows that their sometimes veiled but eternally powerful polemics can both destroy and build exclude and include and serve as the ultimate justification for cruelty or compassion Here scholars not only excavate these works for their formative and continuing cultural impact on communities identities and belief systems they select some of the most troubling topics that global communities continue to navigate Their analysis of both texts and their reception help explain how these texts promote norms and build collective identities Rejecting the notion of the sacred realm as separate from the mundane realm and beyond critical challenge this collection argues both implicitly and sometimes transparently for the presence of the sacred within everyday life and open to challenge The very rituals prayers and traditions that are deemed sacred interweave into our cultural systems in infinite ways Together these authors explore the dynamic nature of everyday life and the often brutal power of these texts over everyday meaning

Islamic Law Texts , The Self Possessed Frederick M. Smith,2006-12-05 The Self Possessed is a multifaceted diachronic study reconsidering the very nature of religion in South Asia the culmination of years of intensive research Frederick M Smith proposes that positive oracular or ecstatic possession is the most common form of spiritual expression in India and that it has been linguistically distinguished from negative disease producing possession for thousands of years In South Asia possession has always been broader and more diverse than in the West where it has been almost entirely characterized as demonic At best spirit possession has been regarded as a medically treatable psychological ailment and at worst as a condition that requires exorcism or punishment In South and East Asia ecstatic or oracular possession has been widely practiced throughout history occupying a position of respect in early and recent Hinduism and in certain forms of Buddhism Smith analyzes Indic literature from all ages the earliest Vedic texts the Mahabharata Buddhist Jain Yogic Ayurvedic and Tantric texts Hindu devotional literature Sanskrit drama and narrative literature and more than a hundred ethnographies He identifies several forms of possession including festival initiatory oracular and devotional and demonstrates their multivocality within a wide range of sects and religious identities Possession is common among both men and women and is practiced by members of all social and caste strata Smith theorizes on notions of embodiment disembodiment selfhood personal identity and other key issues through the prism of possession redefining the relationship between Sanskritic and vernacular culture and between elite and popular religion Smith s study is also comparative introducing considerable material from Tibet classical China modern America and elsewhere Brilliant and persuasive The Self Possessed provides careful new translations of rare material and is the most comprehensive study in any language on this subject

Bibliography and the Sociology of Texts D. F. McKenzie,1999-09-16 In Bibliography and the Sociology of Texts D F McKenzie shows how the material form of texts crucially determines their meanings He unifies the principal interests of both critical theory and textual scholarship to demonstrate that as all works of lasting value are reproduced re edited and re read they take on different forms and meanings By witnessing the new needs of their new readers these new forms constitute vital evidence for any history of reading McKenzie shows this is true of all forms of recorded information including sound graphics films representations of landscape and the new electronic media The bibliographical skills first developed for manuscripts and books can he shows be applied to a wide range of cultural documents This book which incorporates McKenzie s classic work on orality and literacy in early New Zealand offers a unifying concept of texts that seeks to acknowledge their variety and the complexity of their relationships
