Magdalena Kazubowski-Houston, 2015-04-01 Concerned with traditional power imbalances between researchers and participants contemporary social science has begun using collaborative research as an empowering methodology that involves participants in key decisions Collaborative research is a potentially revolutionary method for studying people and their cultures but does it work in practice Staging Strife looks at the limits of this methodology by examining a politically charged theatre performance undertaken with a group of Roma women in Poland The Politics of Language and Nationalism in Modern Central Europe T. Kamusella, 2008-12-16 This work focuses on the ideological intertwining between Czech Magyar Polish and Slovak and the corresponding nationalisms steeped in these languages The analysis is set against the earlier political and ideological history of these languages and the panorama of the emergence and political uses of other languages of the region In Search of Happy Gypsies European Roma Rights Center, 2005 Polish Legal Journal, 2002
