

Thailand - a travel survival kit

Thailand's unique culture remains largely unchanged despite the influences of foreigners. For the traveller, evidence of Thailand's heritage is found in its many temples, in its arts, and in the people themselves who have a tradition of friendliness and hospitality.

Thailand also offers secluded beaches on exotic islands, and the brazen nightlife of Bangkok.

Joe Cummings knows Thailand - its people, its culture and its language - and in this book he tells you what to see and how to see it. This edition has been expanded and extensively revised with place names now shown in Thai script, updated facts, more places to see, and more new maps.
