Brown,2011-07-01 Sharing the Easter Faith with Children is theologically sound biblically focused educationally on target and developmentally appropriate Carolyn Brown writes clearly and helpfully with conviction and passion for what to share and how to share one's faith with children It should be required reading for every parent educator and pastor who wants to communicate and celebrate the Easter faith with children Brown packs a lot of practical suggestions insights and activities into this very readable resource I am confident children will mature in their understanding and affirmation of the Easter faith when they have been nurtured in families and congregations that take seriously what Brown offers Donald Griggs author of Teaching Today's Teachers to Teach It is easy to share the Christmas story and faith with children The story is beautiful and lends itself well to pageants and other celebratory events for children It is not so easy to share the Easter story and faith with children because the message and images are complex Many parents have trouble articulating what Easter means to them personally much less answering their children's questions In many congregations children are featured in palm parades on Palm Sunday but they are not specifically planned for at other Holy Week services When schools schedule an Easter break many families go away and thus unintentionally bypass the whole Easter message for years This book explores what the Easter message can mean to children as they grow up The author helps congregations and families share the Easter message with their children and include the children meaningfully in Lent Holy Week and Easter observances Included are materials for children from birth in the church nursery to age 12 and reproducible pages to create a booklet for parents The first section of the book describes the particular parts of the Easter faith that are important to children at different ages and comments on the biblical Easter texts from a child's point of view The second part of the book works through the Lenten season describing ways congregations can include children and providing program and worship plans including Lenten disciplines for children and their families Ash Wednesday Celebrating Palm Sunday or looking ahead on Passion Sunday Maundy Thursday Recalling the Last Supper Keeping Good Friday The church sponsored Easter Egg Hunt Easter Sunday Morning Another part of the book offers help to leaders who want to share the content with teachers parents or committees Also included is a comprehensive list of related resources This carefully researched and well grounded practical resource from a highly regarded Christian educator will strengthen your educational ministry with children and support parents as they shape the faith of their children      The Family Handbook Herbert Anderson,1998-01-01 This

A Year of Grace William S. Kervin, 2004 A grace for every day of the year is provided in this richly sourced collection of contemporary and classic prayers. Most including those specially written by the author are Christian or draw on the psalms for inspiration. A number have been gathered from other cultures and faiths. They are by and large brief, simple yet meaningful and may be used with children and families, friends and colleagues in Christian and interfaith contexts.

Finding Jesus in His Prayers Dr. H. Stephen Shoemaker, 2011-07-01 In this brief but substantive examination of the prayers Jesus prayed, Stephen Shoemaker offers helpful applications of Jesus' prayers as both a way to better understand Jesus and as a way to use his prayers as a model for our own prayer lives. The book addresses our twin hungers for spirituality and for a deeper grasp of who Jesus was. The author takes seriously the way Jesus prayed and how his prayers open a window to our own experience of God. Included are discussions of the Lord's Prayer, Matt 6:9-13, the Prayer of Thanksgiving amid Life's Reversals, Matt 11:25-26, the Gethsemane Prayer, Mark 14:36, the Prayers from the Cross, Luke 23:34, Matt 27:46, Luke 23:46 and prayers from John's Gospel 11:41-42, 12:27, 17:11. The author stays close to the text of the prayers, sometimes including his own translations but explores their meaning in our lives. He uses Abba rather than the English translation Father in order to bring the reader closer to Jesus as he spoke the words of each prayer. A study guide is included to assist leaders in using the book with small groups. Jesus' prayers are a challenge and a scandal to the ways our culture wants to pray. His spirituality found in his prayers is a profound guide to the soul and a remedy to a culture in search of a soul.

siblings aged eleven five and one after their mother died of cancer The new family set about starting over building a family life together from scratch in their rambling farmhouse outside Harare Zimbabwe Their story was on course for a happily ever after ending until their lives and the lives of those around them were destroyed by Robert Mugabe s war of terror unleashed on white farmers and opposition party members launching an era of economic social and political turmoil which eventually saw the family fleeing the country for fear of being killed Eric s fierce love of his country and his principles saw him immersing himself in the dangerous opposition politics of the day where elections were rigged and fellow party members were tortured and murdered Somehow Eric de Jong s irrepressible sense of humour bubbles throughout this absorbing honest and deeply personal account of a growing family of love entrepreneurial success and failure mental illness political exile and the distressing and often absurd collapse of a beautiful African country and stoicism of its people
