The ABC Movie of the Week Companion Michael Karol, 2008-11-13 Movies made for television were in their infancy when ABC came up with a novel idea a weekly series of films made exclusively for the small screen The ABC Movie of the Week became a great success and a cultural touchstone for a generation of Americans In this loving tribute to the classic series of TV films more than two hundred films in the series are reviewed including well remembered titles such as Duel Tribes The Six Million Dollar Man Go Ask Alice Brian's Song The Night Stalker Bad Ronald Starsky and Hutch Trilogy of Terror That Certain Summer and Killdozer In addition choice bits of trivia about the actors and films and exclusive pictures are sprinkled throughout the book So bit back relax and return to a time when the counterculture was in full swing and you could tune in every week for one or more original films made just for you

The Gatekeeper Alfred R. Schneider, 2001-03-01 From 1960 to 1990 Alfred R Schneider served as head of standards and practices or chief censors for the ABC television network From his unique vantage point Schneider managed issues of taste and morality that determined what millions of U S viewers watched During his tenure the nation's attitudes changed drastically as did the content shown on American airwaves Controversies arose about TV's influence on children its portrayal of violence and its introduction of once taboo subjects

The ABC Movie of the Week Michael McKenna, 2013-08-22 On September 23 1969 five years after the first made for television movie premiered the ABC network broadcast Seven in Darkness This was the first television film for an anthology show called the Tuesday Night Movie of the Week Dedicating ninety minutes of weekly airtime to a still emerging genre was a financial risk for the third place network a risk that paid off The films were so successful that in 1972 the network debuted The Wednesday Movie of the Week Although most of the movies are no longer remembered a handful are still fondly recalled by viewers today including Duel Brian's Song and The Night Stalker The series also showcased pilot films for many eventual series such as Alias Smith and Jones The Six Million Dollar Man and Starsky and Hutch By the end of both shows regular runs in the spring of 1975 the network had broadcast more than 200 made for television films In The ABC Movie of the Week Big Movies for the Small Screen Michael McKenna examines this programming experiment that transformed the television landscape and became a staple of broadcast programming for several years The author looks at how the revolving films showcased the right mixture of romantic comedy action horror and social relevance to keep viewers interested week after week McKenna also chronicles how the ratings success led to imitations from the other networks resulting in a saturation of television movies As a cultural touchstone for millions who experienced the first run and syndicated versions of these films The ABC Movie of the Week is a worthy subject of study Featuring a complete filmography of all 240 movies with credit information and plot summaries a chronology and a list of pilots both failed and successful this volume will be valuable to television historians and scholars as well as to anyone interested in one of the great triumphs of network programming     Restless Gold David William Salvaggio, 2021-04-15 Her stare of anger Sharp tongue Pierced me Like a dagger Consumed with ire Until our unit on A Streetcar Named Desire No matter what period in history teachers must navigate a host of challenges both inside and outside the classroom in order to effectively prepare their students for the future through the process of learning critical thinking skills In a collection of eighty five poems penned from 1980 to 2020 David William Salvaggio shares lyrical insight into four decades filled with significant social change wars political upheaval two pandemics discrimination and civil unrest as he taught a diverse group of high school students who were wealthy poor famous infamous abused successful and categorized as Dreamers With both humor and heartache these timely works reflect the struggles failures and victories of Salvaggio as he witnessed failures heartache and the power of love and hope to overcome all darkness Restless Gold Musings about California Pupils and Other Verses is a volume of poetry inspired by 35 years of teaching high school students Powerful Jessica Yowell Editor Elyssar Press     A deal in wheat Frank Norris,     The New York Times Guide to the Arts of the 20th Century: 1900-1929, 2002 Reviews news articles interviews and essays capturing 100 years of art architecture literature music dance theater film and television     Playing It Straight Milton E.
