Atlantic Reporter ,1897 Leadership Reconsidered Ruth A. Tucker, 2008-12-01 While books and articles on leadership abound most of them are written by successful men who look at the world through the lens of a Western business model The standard for success is based on the bottom line financial growth in both the personal and corporate realms This perspective has infected Christian leadership literature as well In Leadership Reconsidered Ruth A Tucker calls for a revised definition one that abandons the love of power and success for the eternal value of legacy She challenges the assumption that a leader must by definition have followers be an extrovert crave recognition and dominate others Instead legacy encompasses the values of behind the scenes influence that are available to everyone and last beyond the grave This unique and refreshing perspective on leadership is accessible and engaging and will make an impact on anyone who takes it to heart

Unsettling Native Art Histories on the Northwest Coast Kathryn Bunn-Marcuse, Aldona Jonaitis, 2020-07-20 Inseparable from its communities Northwest Coast art functions aesthetically and performatively beyond the scope of non Indigenous scholarship from demonstrating kinship connections to manifesting spiritual power Contributors to this volume foreground Indigenous understandings in recognition of this rich context and its historical erasure within the discipline of art history By centering voices that uphold Indigenous priorities integrating the expertise of Indigenous knowledge holders about their artistic heritage and questioning current institutional practices these new essays unsettle Northwest Coast art studies Key themes include discussions of cultural heritage protections and Native sovereignty re centering women and their critical role in transmitting cultural knowledge reflecting on decolonization work in museums and examining how artworks function as living documents The volume exemplifies respectful and relational engagement with Indigenous art and advocates for more accountable scholarship and practices Delaware Reports David Thomas Marvel, John W.
