Ethnic and Racial Consciousness Michael Banton,2014-09-25 Ethnic and Racial Consciousness is a completely revised version of the highly acclaimed first edition published in 1988 At that time no one expected the former Yugoslavia would break up with the brutal slaughter of neighbour by neighbour Few would have predicted the horrific massacres in Rwanda and Burundi which have led to accusations of genocide The ending of the cold war has been followed by struggles in the former Soviet Union in which one group has struggled for dominance and the other for independence Ethnic conflict is now one of the main threats to peace in the contemporary world This new edition offers an up to date introduction to the many issues surrounding our definition and understanding of ethnic and racial difference racism and discrimination in general

Woman's Record; or sketches of all distinguished women, from "the beginning" till A.D. 1850, arranged in four eras. With selections from female writers of every age Sarah Josepha Buell Hale,1853 Woman's Record; or, sketches of all distinguished women from the Creation to A.D. 1854 ... Second edition Sarah Josepha Buell Hale,1853 All the World Over: Interesting Stories of Travel, Thrilling Adventure and Home Life Ella Farman Pratt,Lucia Chase Bell, Frank H. Converse,Louise Stockton,2022-08-21 All the World Over Interesting Stories of Travel Thrilling Adventure and Home Life is a compelling anthology showcasing a diverse range of narratives that transport readers across an array of landscapes and domestic settings The collection expertly balances tales of thrilling escapades with explorations of everyday life highlighting the universal human experiences that connect us all It offers an eclectic mix of literary styles from vivid travelogues that paint distant cultures with rich artistry to introspective tales of home life that draw on the nuances of familiar spaces This anthology provides a vibrant collage of storytelling capturing the essence of exploration in both the external and internal realms The authors Ella Farman Pratt Lucia Chase Bell Frank H Converse and Louise Stockton bring together a tapestry of voices that enrich the anthology's exploration of travel and domestic themes These writers each with their distinct narrative craftsmanship contribute to a broader dialogue reflecting the cultural and literary movements of their time The compilation aligns with a tradition of literature that bridges geographical and psychological divides offering insights into both the world without and the world within This anthology serves as an open invitation to readers encouraging them to journey alongside its authors in exploring the vast spectrum of human experiences Through a harmonious blend of perspectives and styles All the World Over provides a gateway to understanding varied cultural contexts and personal narratives It holds significant educational value by exposing readers to a multifaceted dialogue that spans global adventures and intimate reflections making it an indispensable addition for those seeking both entertainment and enlightenment

Islam and the Politics of Culture in Europe Frank Peter,Sarah Dornhof,Elena Arigita,2014-03-15 Culture is a constant reference in debates surrounding Islam in Europe Yet the notion of culture is commonly restricted to conceptual frames of multiculturalism where it relates to group identities collective ways of life and recognition This volume extends such analysis of culture by approaching it as semiotic practice which conjoins the making of subjects with the configuration of the social Examining fields such as memory literature film and Islamic art the studies in this volume explore culture as another element in the assemblage of rationalities governing European Islam From this perspective the transformations of European identities can be understood as a matter of cultural practice and politics which extend the analytical frames of political philosophy historical legacies normative orders and social dynamics

The Return of the Horsemen Mark Roddy, 2024-01-22 The phone call was short a complaint from Mark Webley a freshman at St Mary's college in Maryland reporting that every Thursday night he was picking up a coded message in morse code that was being repeated verbatim all the way around the world by other ham radio operators The situation is addressed at the next executive meeting at the Carlisle War College in Pennsylvania A decision is made that it wouldn't hurt to set up an informal ROTC program at various schools to explore the possibility that other unfriendly nations might still be using primitive forms of communication against the United States The situation explodes when Mark Webley now an exchange student at the University of Gibraltar intercepts communications that accurately describe the movement of US submarines in and out of the Mediterranean On the surface this novel is a love story between Mark Webley and Maria Blasini as they work their way through the maze trying to get to the end in one piece and return to college where they belong On a second level it is a high action drama involving patriotism loyalty love trust and respect as opposed to lying cheating treason and corruption fueled by massive amounts of money And finally it is a warning to the United States military that although this book is fiction there is truth in it which should not be ignored As for the horses I guess you will have to read the book to find out

The Long, Lingerin Shadow Robert J. Cottrol, 2013-02-01 Students of American history know of the law's critical role in systematizing a racial hierarchy in the United States Showing that this history is best appreciated in a comparative perspective The Long Lingerin Shadow looks at the parallel legal histories of race relations in the United States Brazil and Spanish America Robert J Cottrol takes the reader on a journey from the origins of New World slavery in colonial Latin America to current debates and litigation over affirmative action in Brazil and the United States as well as contemporary struggles against racial discrimination and Afro Latin invisibility in the Spanish speaking nations of the hemisphere Ranging across such topics as slavery emancipation scientific racism immigration policies racial classifications and legal processes Cottrol unravels a complex odyssey By the eve of the Civil War the U S slave system was rooted in a legal and cultural foundation of racial exclusion unmatched in the Western Hemisphere That system's legacy was later echoed in Jim Crow the practice of legally mandated segregation Jim Crow in turn caused leading Latin Americans to regard their nations as models of racial equality because their laws did not mandate racial discrimination a belief that masked very real patterns of racism throughout the Americas And yet Cottrol says if the United States has had a history of more rigid racial exclusion since the Second World War it has also had a more thorough civil rights revolution with significant legal victories over racial discrimination Cottrol explores this remarkable transformation and shows how it is now inspiring civil rights activists throughout the Americas

Featurin Post-national Spain Andrés Zamora, 2016 In the last quarter of the twentieth century a considerable number of Spanish films were involved in the task of essayin the nation that is of attempting to make it or make it over of tryin to reshape a national identity inexorably dictated by General Francisco Franco up to his death The book explores four major issues in this regard 1 the filmic negotiations of the borders of the nation focusin particularly on the debated and controversial development of Basque cinema vis vis the films produced in the rest of Spain 2 the persistence of the old obsession with violence thought of as an inescapable native trait in a large amount of post dictatorial films 3 the newfound insatiable appetite for cinematic travelling for going out and coming in through all possible variations of the road and travel movie genres 4 and the vindication of the mother qua a benign emblem of the land and its people of the nation There is a narrative in Spanish cinema taken as a collective discourse which ties together these four cinematic topoi and proposes a nation whose specificity must be precisely its impurity difference within as essence a hybrid nation located in temporal and spatial rendezvous of past and present tradition and novelty centre and margin inside and outside on and beyond

Library Services to Youth of Hispanic Heritage Barbara Immroth, Kathleen de la Peña McCook, 2000-05-15 As the United States becomes ever more comfortable with recognizing the cultural diversity of the many groups that make up its population library services must seek to meet patrons needs as they are shaped and expressed by their cultural backgrounds This goal is particularly important for youth library services For young people of Hispanic heritage library services attuned to their specific needs and interests are crucial Many librarians struggle with how to properly create and maintain library programs and collections that are suitable to the needs of Hispanic youth In this series of essays prepared for the Trejo Foster Foundation for Hispanic Library Education Fourth National Institute national leaders in librarianship present their insights about how best to meet the needs of young Hispanic library patrons The text is introduced by the editors and the essays are arranged in parts Programs Collections Planning and Evaluating Bibliographical Resources and For the Future Information about the contributors and an index conclude the volume
