Chronology I Everett Jenkins, Jr., 2024-10-16 The 1400s were a pivotal time in the history of Africans The Songhai Empire rose to prominence and new city states arose in Hausaland Yorubaland and Benin One of the most significant developments however was European and Asian exploration of the continent and the rapid expansion of the slave trade By the end of the century African slaves could be found from India to the Indies and the foundation was laid for a peculiar institution that would last for over 400 years From the time of the first European expeditions to Africa to the end of slavery in the United States this work chronicles the most significant events in African Pan African and African American history Many of the entries e g Columbus discovery of America and the death of Toussaint L Overture are supplemented by brief historical accounts that set the event in context There are extensive see references to related happenings A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula Fernando Cabo Aseguinolaza, Anxo Abuín González, César Domínguez, 2010 A

Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula is the second comparative history of a new subseries with a regional focus published by the Coordinating Committee of the International Comparative Literature Association As its predecessor for East Central Europe this two volume history distances itself from traditional histories built around periods and movements and explores from a comparative viewpoint a space considered to be a powerful symbol of inter literary relations Both the geographical pertinence and its symbolic condition are obviously discussed when not even contested

Written by an international team of researchers who are specialists in the field this history is the first attempt at applying a comparative approach to the plurilingual and multicultural literatures in the Iberian Peninsula The aim of comprehensiveness is abandoned in favor of a diverse and extensive array of key issues for a comparative agenda A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula undermines the primacy claimed for national and linguistic boundaries and provides a geo cultural account of literary inter systems which cannot otherwise be explained
