P. Robert Stephen Silverman,2003-09-22 The 100 Greatest Jews in Sports takes the greatest Jewish athletes in all major sports from the past eleven decades and ranks them against each other using a limited scope and quantitative criteria Each decade has seen someone new emerge as the greatest Jewish athlete from boxer Abe Attell to baseballs Sandy Koufax and Ken Holtzman to golf s Amy Alcott to footballs Harris Barton Sports profiled include baseball basketball hockey tennis golf auto racing boxing soccer football swimming and many others Silverman takes a scholarly approach to ensure reliability and validity of the statistics given The author identified the most common categories of statistics in which the highest paid athletes in all sports had excelled and he assigned numeric values to reflect the performance categories That provided a proportional representation of the most important individual accomplishments in sports By applying those numbers to the records of selected athletes each was ranked against the other Additionally the author asked selected experts of each sport to perform the same ranking with no specific criteria and the results were the same Filled with historic photographs of the athletes profiled and interspersed with interesting tidbits of each athlete s personal life and career this book is certain to be of interest to the casual to serious sports enthusiast alike Boxing's Greatest Fighters Bert Randolph Sugar,2006-01-01 Easily the most enduring of all sports questions is Who was is the best Perhaps in no sport is the question more asked and argued over than in boxing And in boxing perhaps none is more qualified to answer the question than Bert Randolph Sugar In Boxing s Greatest Fighters not only does the former publisher of Ring

Magazine tell us who the best fighters were he lists them in order Could Sugar Ray Robinson have beaten Muhammad Ali Could Sugar Ray Leonard have beaten Sonny Liston The answer most experts agree would be no But what if as Bert Sugar has done here one were to take all the boxers and reduce them in the mind s eye to the same height the same weight and the same ring conditions The answers would be quite different And while some fans may express outrage that Rocky Marciano barely makes the top twenty and Marvin Hagler staggers into the top seventy five others will nod eagerly when they read that Harry Greb and Benny Leonard were better than just about anybody So whether you read Boxing s Greatest Fighters cover to cover pick your favorites at random or simply browse through the many rare photographs at the bell come out arguing

Going for the KO GUSTAVO VIDAL MANZANARES,2024-01-15 The stellar moments of boxing seem to take place in public under blinding spotlights and thousands of eyes fixed on tense muscles But it is not like that everything begins to take shape much earlier In loneliness Sweating to exhaustion in gyms with the smell of basement armpit jogging in fields and parks between shadows and silences of cold dawns Weight diet rest no nights out Sacrifice sacrifice sacrifice That is where success begins to germinate The staging is nothing more than the accumulation of effort and sacrifice almost always worked in solitude almost always in the midst of incomprehension Can a more similar metaphor to life be constructed than those offered by boxing

Historical Dictionary of Boxing John Grasso, 2013-11-14 Boxing is one of the oldest sports in the world reaching back to the Ancient Greeks although it has become popular only in the past century or so But in some ways it is a rather complicated sport since to avoid unnecessary harm it has been endowed with rules to keep it clean referees to see the rules are obeyed and organizations to regulate the sport Boxing was once largely amateur although the professional bouts attracted the most attention but now it is also an

Olympic sport And over the years there has been one champion after another who symbolized what boxing was all about such Joe Louis Mohammad Ali and Cassius Clay Naturally these champions are the focus of the Historical Dictionary of Boxing as well and they have the biggest entries in the dictionary section but they had to fight against someone and there are dozens and dozens of other boxers with smaller entries More of these boxers come from the United States than elsewhere but there are others from Europe Asia and Latin America and there are also entries on the major boxing countries as well Plus entries on the rules on the organizations and on the technical terminology and jargon you have to know just to follow the bouts The introduction provides a broad view of boxing s history while the chronology traces events from 688 B C to 2012 A D Not all that much has been written on boxing that is not ephemeral but much of that literature can be found in the bibliography This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the sport of boxing

this Christian family man beat a boxing legend Harry Greb in the first of the great sporting cathedrals Madison Square Garden It was a victory that stunned the sporting world and made him a household name Yet within a year he had lost his championship on a decision some said was influenced by Al Capone and within another year was dead following a seemingly innocuous operation in the clinic of a controversial surgeon to remove lumps and scars above his eyes Was his death at the age of 34 an accident a result of negligence or something more sinister And what was behind his white manager's attempt to throw Tiger's widow into an asylum and their daughter into an orphanage Flowers inspiring harrowing story set against an horrific backdrop of lynchings and routine prejudice is largely forgotten now but he paved the way for black sporting heroes like Joe Louis Jesse Owens and Jackie Robinson
