The 1945 Revolution:

The 1945 Revolution William Harrington, Peter Young, 1978      Revolution and Dictatorship Steven Levitsky, Lucan Way, 2024-10-29 Why the world's most resilient dictatorships are products of violent revolution Revolution and Dictatorship explores why dictatorships born of social revolution such as those in China Cuba Iran the Soviet Union and Vietnam are extraordinarily durable even in the face of economic crisis large scale policy failure mass discontent and intense external pressure Few other modern autocracies have survived in the face of such extreme challenges Drawing on comparative historical analysis Steven Levitsky and Lucan Way argue that radical efforts to transform the social and geopolitical order trigger intense counterrevolutionary conflict which initially threatens regime survival but ultimately fosters the unity and state building that supports authoritarianism Although most revolutionary governments begin weak they challenge powerful domestic and foreign actors often bringing about civil or external wars These counterrevolutionary wars pose a threat that can destroy new regimes as in the cases of Afghanistan and Cambodia Among regimes that survive however prolonged conflicts give rise to a cohesive ruling elite and a powerful and loyal coercive apparatus This leads to the downfall of rival organizations and alternative centers of power such as armies churches monarchies and landowners and helps to inoculate revolutionary regimes against elite defection military coups and mass protest three principal sources of authoritarian breakdown Looking at a range of revolutionary and nonrevolutionary regimes from across the globe Revolution and Dictatorship shows why governments that emerge from violent conflict endure      The Vietnamese War David W. P. Elliott, 2003 16 Holding On 17 Civil War 18 The Final Chapter Notes Appendix A The Human Cost Appendix B Reflections Bibliography Index      War and Society in Britain 1899-1948 Rex Pope, 2014-01-14 Rex Pope reassesses the impact of war on the political and social structures of British society during the first half of the twentieth century and introduces the reader to current debates about the relationship between war and change      Revolution and Evolution Grace Lee Boggs, 2019-02-15 This book provides a concise and instructive review of the revolutions of the twentieth century with separate chapters on the Russian Chinese Guinea Bissau and Vietnamese revolutions in which the authors seek to extract the principle lessons from each of these struggles and the special course taken by each In these and in a summary chapter on the dialectics of revolution the authors furnish a picture of the principal aspects of Marxism Leninism Maoism and the other currents of Marxism active in the revolutions of our times A second section is devoted to the United States and begins with a survey of the class forces in American history from the settlement of the original thirteen colonies to the present with special attention to the enslaved black population Thereafter the authors present their ideas on the objects and means of an American Revolution Includes new introduction by Grace Lee Boggs      The Death of Consensus Phil Tinline, 2022-06-23 Over Britain's first century of mass democracy politics has lurched from crisis to crisis How does this history of political agony illuminate our current age of upheaval To find out journalist Phil Tinline takes us back to two past eras when the ruling consensus broke down and the future filled with ominous possibilities until finally a new settlement was born How did the Great Depression's spectres of fascism bombing and mass unemployment force politicians to think the unthinkable and pave the way to post war Britain How was Thatcher's road to victory made possible by a decade of nightmares of hyperinflation military coups and communist dictatorship And why since the Crash in 2008 have new political threats and divisions forced us to change course once again Tinline brings to life those times past and present when the great compromise holding democracy together has come apart when the political class has been forced to make a choice of nightmares This lively original account of panic and chaos reveals how apparent catastrophes can clear the path to a new era The Death of Consensus will make you see British democracy differently The Unraveling of Representative Democracy in Venezuela Jennifer L. McCoy, David J. Myers, 2006-03-01 For four decades Venezuela prided itself for having one of the most stable representative democracies in Latin America Then in 1992 Hugo Chavez Fr as attempted an unsuccessful military coup Six years later he was elected president Once in power Chavez redrafted the 1961 constitution dissolved the Congress dismissed judges and marginalized rival political parties In a bid to create direct democracy other Latin American democracies watched with mixed reactions if representative democracy could break down so quickly in Venezuela it could easily happen in countries with less established traditions On the other hand would Chavez create a new form of democracy to redress the plight of the marginalized poor In this volume of essays leading scholars from Venezuela and the United States ask why representative democracy in Venezuela unraveled so swiftly and whether it can be restored Its thirteen chapters examine the crisis in three periods the unraveling of Punto Fijo democracy Chavez's Bolivarian Revolution and the course of participatory democracy under Chavez The contributors analyze such factors as the vulnerability of Venezuelan democracy before Chavez the role of political parties organized labor the urban poor the military and businessmen and the impact of public and economic policy This timely volume offers important lessons for comparative regime change within hybrid democracies Contributors Damarys Canache Florida State University Rafael de la Cruz Inter American Development Bank Jos Antonio Gil Yepes Datanalisis Richard S Hillman St John Fisher College Janet Kelly Graduate Institute of Business Caracas Jos E Molina University of Zulia Mos's Na'm Foreign Policy Nelson Ortiz Caracas Stock Exchange Pedro A Palma Graduate Institute of Business Caracas Carlos A Romero and Luis Salamanca Central University of Venezuela Harold Trinkunas Naval Postgraduate School Cable News from Djakarta Indonesia. The Vietnamese War David Elliott, 2016-04-15 A monumental work of research and analysis this is a history of the Vietnam War in a single province of the Mekong Delta over the period 1930-1975 More precisely it is a study of the Vietnamese dimension of the Vietnam War focusing on the revolutionary movement that became popularly known as the Viet Cong There are several distinctive features to this study 1 it provides an explanation for the paradox of why the revolutionary movement was so successful during the war but unable to meet the challenges of postwar developments 2 it challenges the dominant theme of contemporary political analysis which assumes that people are rational actors responding to events with careful calculations of self interest 3 it closely examines province level documentation that casts light on a number of important historical controversies about the war No other history of the Vietnam War has drawn on such a depth of documentation especially firsthand accounts that allow the Vietnamese participants to speak directly to us

Christie, 2012-12-06 The concept of Asian Values has recently been emphasized by East and South East Asian political leaders These leaders have argued that European political values have exercised an unhealthy hegemony over the international system not only because of global influence exercised by European ideas during the colonial period but because of Anglo Saxon dominance over the world orders that were set up in the aftermath of both the First and Second World Wars This book considers the interaction between indigenous Asian values and European ideology and the influence this relationship had on the nationalist and revolutionary movements of Southeast Asia that dominated the political systems of Southeast Asia in the period 1945-1975
