Reviving the Ancient Faith Richard Thomas Hughes,1996 This pathbreaking book by Richard T Hughes chronicles the history of Churches of Christ in America from their inception in the early nineteenth century to the 1990s taking full account of the complexity of their origins the mainstream of their heritage for almost two hundred years and their voices of protest and dissent especially in the twentieth century From The Critics Hughes here provides the definitive history of the Churches of Christ from their beginnings in the Stone Campbell movement of the early 19th century through the split with the Disciples of Christ at the turn of the century and all the way into the 1990s Central to this richly detailed and highly readable narrative is Hughes s assertion that this religious movement has evolved from a 19th century sect into a 20th century denomination Choice Because of Hughes s elegant writing and his awareness of the social history surrounding the developing denomination this study transcends mere denominational history and should be read as cultural history It should remain the standard volume on the subject for years to come Publishers Weekly Hughes provides a clear balanced account of an American religious movement that has heretofore received insufficient scholarly attention Journal of American History An excellent denominational history of Churches of Christ Richard T Hughes who admirably balances an empathy born of his lifelong membership in the denomination with the standards of a professional historian labored on this book for a decade and a half and the result is a study both thoroughly researched and clearly written American Historical Review Hughes is the foremost interpreter today of the Churches of Christ as this book illustrates Well written and meticulously documented this book could serve as the definitive history of this movement for a generation Religious Studies Review The Doctrine on Which the Church Stands or Falls (Foreword by D. A. Carson) Matthew Barrett, 2019-03-14 Many factors contributed to the Protestant Reformation but one of the most significant was the debate over the doctrine of justification by faith alone In fact Martin Luther argued that justification is the doctrine on which the church stands or falls This comprehensive volume of 26 essays from a host of scholars explores the doctrine of justification from the lenses of history the Bible theology and pastoral practice revealing the enduring significance of this pillar of Protestant theology The Church in the Shadow of the Mosque Sidney Harrison Griffith, 2008 Amid so much twenty first century talk of a Christian Muslim divide and the attendant controversy in some Western countries over policies toward minority Muslim communities a historical fact has gone unnoticed for more than four hundred years beginning in the mid seventh century some 50 percent of the world s Christians lived and worshipped under Muslim rule Just who were the Christians in the Arabic speaking milieu of Mohammed and the Qur an The Church in the Shadow of the Mosque is the first book length discussion in English of the cultural and intellectual life of such Christians indigenous to the Islamic world Sidney Griffith offers an engaging overview of their initial reactions to the religious challenges they faced the development of a new mode of presenting Christian doctrine as liturgical texts in their own languages gave way to Arabic the Christian role in the philosophical life of early Baghdad and the maturing of distinctive Oriental Christian denominations in this context Offering a fuller understanding of the rise of Islam in its early years from the perspective of contemporary non Muslims this book reminds us that there is much to learn from the works of people who seriously engaged Muslims in their own world so long ago The Christianity Reader Mary Gerhart, Fabian Udoh, 2007-09

Christianity is the world's most populous religion with some two billion adherents. As a world religion, Christianity has flourished because it is capable of taking on new forms in new contexts. To understand both the religion's history and its present state, Mary Gerhart and Fabian Udoh gather original texts from early Christian writings to contemporary documents on church-related issues in The Christianity Reader. The most comprehensive anthology of Christian texts ever in English, this is a landmark sourcebook for the study of Christianity's historical diversity. With newly edited, annotated, and translated primary texts along with supplemental analytical essays, the volume allows Christianity at long last to speak in its many voices. Focusing on Christianity as a religion, Gerhart and Udoh select texts that illuminate issues such as theology, mysticism, and ritual while also articulating the stories of previously marginalized groups as well as those in new and growing epicenters of the religion. With nearly three hundred selections, the texts encompass the entire history of Christian writings, excluding the New Testament, from Justin Martyr and Tertullian to Fabien Eboussi Boulaga and Teresa of Calcutta. Eight thematic sections cover biblical traditions and interpretations, early influences, nascent forms, patterns of worship, structures of community, philosophy, theology, and mysticism, twentieth-century issues and challenges, and the contemporary relationship between Christianity and other world religions. The Reader's contents are arranged chronologically and are supported with introductions and source notes that explain the rationale for their inclusion and their context. Providing a far richer selection than ever before available in a single volume, The Christianity Reader will be welcomed as both a classroom resource and a work of reference for decades to come.

The Catholic Christian Instructed in the Sacraments, Sacrifice, Ceremonies, and Observances of the Church by Way of Question and Answer Richard Challoner, 1843 The Catholic Christian Instructed in the Sacraments, Sacrifice, Ceremonies and Observances of the Church, by Way of Questions and Answer Richard

Challoner, 2024-05-28 Reprint of the original first published in 1843 Proclaiming Christ in a Pluralistic Age J. I. Packer, 2024-02-06 5 Classic Lectures from J. I. Packer Defending the Truth of the Gospel against Humanism, Universalism, and More. Christians today confront complex opposition to the gospel from intellectuals, skeptics, and pluralists who deny the divinity of Christ. But these are not new issues; the first-century church encountered similar challenges to their faith. How did the apostle Paul address these questions and doubts to effectively spread God's word? In these lectures, originally given at Reformed Bible College and Moore College in 1978, renowned theologian J. I. Packer tackles common objections to Christianity, including secular humanism, pluralism, and universalism. By studying the evangelistic efforts of Paul and the early church, Packer skillfully preaches the glory of Christ crucified and helps students, pastors, and believers share their faith in an age of skepticism. 5 Vintage Lectures Covering topics including Jesus's humanity and divinity, substitutionary atonement, and the truth of Christ's resurrection. A Great Resource for Pastors and Thoughtful Christians. Provides gospel-centered answers to different worldviews, including universalism, secular humanism, and pluralism. From J. I. Packer, prolific theologian and bestselling author of Knowing God. A New Systematic Theology of the Christian Faith Robert L. Reymond, 2010-01-31
