Merton and Victor and Carolyn Hammer F. Douglas Scutchfield, Paul Evans Holbrook Jr., 2014-12-25 Poet social justice advocate and theologian Thomas Merton 1915 1968 is arguably the most influential American Catholic author of the twentieth century In his short lifetime he penned over seventy books and maintained a brisk correspondence with colleagues around the globe However many Merton scholars and fans remain unaware of the significant body of letters that were exchanged between the Trappist monk and Victor and Carolyn Hammer Unable to leave his home at the Abbey of Gethsemani except on special occasions Merton developed a unique friendship with this couple from nearby Lexington Kentucky Carolyn who supplied Merton with many of the books he required for his writing and teaching was a founder of the King Library Press at the University of Kentucky Victor was an accomplished painter sculptor printer and architect The friendship and collaborations between Merton and the Hammers reveal their shared interest in the convergence of art literature and spirituality In this volume editors F Douglas Scutchfield and Paul Evans Holbrook Jr have collected the trio s complete correspondence for the first time Their letters arranged chronologically vividly demonstrate a blossoming intellectual camaraderie and provide a unique opportunity to understand Merton s evolving philosophies At times humorous often profound the letters in this volume shed light on a rare friendship and offer new insights into the creative intellect of Thomas Merton

Strategies of Silence Moy McCrory, Simon Heywood, 2021-02-25 This unique book takes silence as its central concept and questions the range of meanings and values which inform the idea as it impinges on the creative process and its content and contexts The thematic core of silence allows a consideration of silencing and silence as opposite ends of a spectrum one shutting down the other enabling and opening up As a multidisciplinary collection of essays derived from the teaching and implementation of Creative Writing at university level the contributors consider silence as strategic both through the need for silence and as something which compels resistance They explore how writing has employed images and tropes of silence in the past and used silence and gaps technically In considering marginalised and forgotten voices this book shows how writers bring their diverse range of backgrounds and experience to work with and against silence in Creative Writing Studies The first theoretical work on silence in Creative Writing this field shifting book is an essential read for both practitioners and students of Creative Writing at the higher education level

Circus Days and Nights Robert Lax, 2009-06-02 Though many hold him to be one of the greatest American poets of this century Lax has maintained a low profile living and writing in seclusion on the Greek island of Patmos In Circus Days Nights Lax's three great long poems on the circus Circus of the Sun Mogador's Book and Sunset City are collected together for the first time placing this early masterwork in the position within American literature that it so richly deserves Each of the three poems in this collection expresses a reverence for the acts of daring beauty and grace that make the circus the singular event it is What also emerges is the drawing of a link between this world of the circus wherein a tent is erected acts are performed and then the tent is disassembled only to be re-erected the next day and Lax's faith As Denise Levertov has said the radiant security of Lax's faith appears in his work as a serenity of tone Encyclopedia of Catholic Literature Mary R. Reichardt, 2004 The Catholic faith has inspired some of the world's greatest creative works and has been a powerful force in history from the Roman Empire to the present Catholic writers reflect their heritage in their works and generations of readers have continued to appreciate the Catholic literary tradition Many works by Catholic writers hold a high place in the literary canon and have exerted a tremendous cultural and political influence Still others continue to be widely read by contemporary readers and quietly shape modern society Some works too reflect the conflicts of the Catholic Church in the 21st century and capture the struggles of individual Catholics in a secular society This encyclopedia covers the vast riches of the Catholic literary tradition from its origins to the present day Included are substantial entries on more than 70 major works from around the world A special effort has been made to cover women writers and writers of diverse racial and ethnic backgrounds whose works reflect the many dimensions of the Catholic experience The encyclopedia provides entries on such writers and works as St Augustine's Confessions Catherine of Siena's Dialogue Dante's The Divine Comedy Sandra Cisneros' The House on Mango Street J. R. R. Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings and Muriel Spark's Memento Mori Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography of the writer a plot summary of a major work an extended critical discussion an overview of the work's critical reception and a selected bibliography The entries give detailed attention to particular works and explore their relation to Catholic thought The encyclopedia concludes with a selected general bibliography Book jacket

Renunciation Ross Posnock, 2016-01-04 Renunciation as a creative force is the animating idea behind Ross Posnock's new book Taking up acts of abandonment rejection and refusal that have long baffled critics he shows how renunciation has reframed the relationship of writers philosophers and artists to society in productive and unpredictable ways

Art, Performance, Media Nicholas Zurbrugg, 2004 Over the course of fifteen years Nicholas Zurbrugg interviewed the avant garde poets filmmakers dancers writers composers and performance artists who were defying tradition crossing genres and forever changing how art would be created performed and interpreted These conversations with thirty one of the leading multimedia artists in the United States now form a comprehensive record from the insiders perspectives of the most vital component of the postmodern American art world Passionate about postmodernism and committed to innovative creativity Zurbrugg asks these artists probing and insightful questions How did their work evolve Who most influenced them How did they assess changes in contemporary art and what did they think of each other s work Which of their experiences had the most powerful effects on their creative development What could lie ahead for American art As these questions are answered by individual artists the interviews also cumulatively address larger issues of artistic expression including the idea of the avant garde itself The book features interviews with Kathy Acker Charles Amirkhanian Laurie Anderson Robert Ashley Beth B David Blair William S Burroughs Warren Burt John Cage Richard Foreman Kenneth Gaburo Diamanda Galas John Giorno Philip Glass Brion Gysin Dick Higgins Jenny Holzer Mike Kuchar Robert Lax Jackson Mac Low Meredith Monk Nam June Paik Yvonne Rainer Steve Reich Rachel Rosenthal Bill Viola Larry Wendt Emmett Williams Robert Wilson Nick Zedd and Ellen Zweig Introductory notes to each interview provide context and connect the work and experiences of various artists and photographs of these artists contribute a significant visual element to the book Nicholas Zurbrugg 1947 2001 was professor of English and cultural studies as well as director of the Centre of Contemporary Arts at De Montfort University in Leicester England He is the author of The Parameters of Postmodernism and Critical Vices The Myths of Postmodern Theory Merton and Friends James Harford, 2006 Triple biography told largely through their correspondence of 3 college friends who ultimately went on to literary fame religious writer Thomas Merton minimalist poet Robert Lax and author photographer magazine publisher Edward Rice Religion & Literature, 2000 Spiritual Letters (I-II) David Miller, 2004 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2002 An ABC of Contemporary Reading Richard Kostelanetz, 1995 In the Shop of Nothing David Miller, 2007 Poetry In these poems celestial transparency is abandoned for the quieter glow of unruly paradox as Miller writes Anterior dark makes its claim upon light Yet this poetry is anything but bleak For the SHOP OF NOTHING culls the radiance of poetry as witness as alchemical window This ghostliness may in fact be the very stuff of form Miller s poetry locates the site precisely between gaze and image effecting a mode of recognition that somehow conjoins love with love presence with absence ghost with flesh Superabundantly Alive Susan McCaslin, J.S Porter, 2018-10-19 Superabundantly Alive Thomas Merton s Dance with the Feminine is a unique unified multi genre work that includes dialogue imaginary letters poems and reflective essays by two established Canadian poets Taking cues from Merton himself Susan and John establish a playful jazzy dialogic tone superabundantly alive This book invites participation for those who already know Merton s work and for those who are meeting this whole and broken prophetic whimsical paradoxical prophet and visionary for the first time Robert Lax once described Merton s poetry and the man himself as superabundantly alive McCaslin and Porter prove the truth of this description in their enchanting account of the writer mystic who now comes into his second century of stature and significance in the words of Boris Pasternak a live and burning to the end The A-B-C of cost engineering Robert S.

Denham, Sinister Resonance David Toop, 2010-06-24 Sinister Resonance begins with the premise that sound is a haunting a ghost a presence whose location is ambiguous and whose existence is transitory The intangibility of sound is uncanny a phenomenal presence in the head at its point of source and all around The close listener is like a medium who draws out substance from that which is not entirely there The history of listening must be constructed from the narratives of myth and fiction silent arts such as painting the resonance of architecture auditory artefacts and nature In such contexts sound often functions as a metaphor for mystical revelation forbidden desires formlessness the unknown and the unconscious As if reading a map of hitherto unexplored territory Sinister Resonance deciphers sounds and silences buried within the ghostly horrors of Arthur Machen Shirley Jackson Charles Dickens M R James and Edgar Allen Poe Dutch genre painting from Rembrandt to Vermeer artists as diverse as Francis Bacon and Juan Munoz and the writing of many modernist authors including Virginia Woolf Samuel Beckett and James Joyce
