The Aberdeen Incident:

"The Aberdeen Incident", 2008 The Aberdeen Incident JAMES V. McKNIGHT, 2004-02 These were the most exciting times in television history This personal narrative fascinating difficult ironic and funny tells of an ordinary life filled with extraordinary moments Emmy Award winning CBS News producer Chalmers Chum Dale examined and documented the human condition in over 300 shows His work took him around the world introducing him to many of the most distinguished citizens and celebrities of our time from Martin Luther King Jr to Bob Hope This compelling memoir written in an approachable conversational style also tells of Chum's lonely struggle in leading a double life A search for a true sexual identity during adolescence WW2 military service a short teaching career and a ten year marriage with two children His existence begins to make sense when he meets his significant other of forty two years and starts piecing his life together Through these enduring experiences Chum's story also explores the compassion and understanding he brought to his assignments at CBS shows that made a difference for millions of viewers LIFE CAN ONLY BE UNDERSTOOD BACKWARDS BUT IT MUST BE LIVED FORWARDS Soren Kierkegaard The Coastguard, Emergency Towing Vessels and the Maritime Incident Response Group Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Transport Committee, 2011-06-23 Under current proposals the Maritime Coastguard Agency plans to close ten of the existing 14 Maritime Rescue Coordination Centres and to leave three that remain open on a 24 hour basis and five that will operate in daylight hours only The Transport Committee found little support for the measures and has no confidence that under these proposals the Coastguard will in future be able to respond to emergencies at sea as well as they do now let alone in a more effective way The Committee is not convinced by the Government's claim that technology can at present replace local knowledge Serious concerns were raised that the safety of people at sea on cliffs and beaches will be jeopardised if the proposals proceed in their current form Ministers must issue revised proposals for further consultation The Committee also strongly condemns the Government's cost cutting decision to withdraw funding for the four Emergency Towing Vessels ETVs stationed around the UK coast large tugs that intercept disabled ships to prevent environmental pollution disasters The Transport Committee also criticises proposals to completely remove government funding for the Maritime Incident Response group MIRG a national fire fighting at sea capability Ministers should instead adopt a slimmed down MIRG which is more cost effective than the present arrangement Lastly the Committee records its disappointment that Mike Penning MP Minister for Shipping instructed regular coastguards not to give oral evidence to the committee on the basis that they were junior civil servants Railway News, Finance and Joint-stock Companies' Journal, 1866 Theologically Engaged Anthropology J. Derrick Lemons, 2018-08-23 After years of discussion within the field of anthropology concerning how to properly engage with theology a growing number of anthropologists now want to engage with theology as a counterpart in ethnographic dialogue Theologically Engaged Anthropology focuses on the theological history of anthropology illuminating deeply held theological assumptions that humans make about the nature of reality and illustrating how these theological assumptions manifest themselves in society This volume brings together leading anthropologists and theologians to consider what theology can contribute to cultural anthropology and ethnography It provides anthropologists and theologians with a rationale and framework for using theology in anthropological research The American News Trade Journal ,1926 Medicine, the Market and the Mass Media

Virginia Berridge,Kelly Loughlin,2004-08-02 This collection opens up the post war history of public health to sustained research based historical scrutiny Medicine the Market and the Mass Media examines the development of a new view of the health of the public and the influences which shaped it in the post war years Taking a broad perspective the book examines developments in Western Europe and the relationships between Europe and the US The essays looks at the dual legacy of social medicine through health services and health promotion and analyse the role of mass media along with the connections between public health and industry This international collection will appeal to public health professionals students of the history of medicine and of health policy The Public Lives of Charlotte and Marie Stopes Stephanie Green,2015-10-06 Charlotte Stopes was the first woman in Scotland to get a university qualification She devoted her life to studying Shakespeare and the promotion of women in public life Though Charlotte is largely forgotten her daughter Marie is well known Green asserts that Marie s success can only be understood in relation to the achievements of her mother

Beyond the Pyramids David Parker,2014-07-08 Ramcon is an American consultant firm located in Egypt to plan and develop the Egyptian government s proposed new city of Ramses fifty miles north of Cairo A lengthy series of errors in soil and survey data from Egyptian government sources has been hindering the Ramcon team s progress for several months Ramcon s head office in New York sends a senior engineer to Cairo with a technical solution for this problem but he inexplicably disappears after landing at Cairo airport and Egyptian police are baffled by his disappearance Next morning Ramcon Manager Mike Harrington receives an unexpected phone call from an engineer friend in Scotland claiming he has vital information on Ramcon s problem which is too delicate for phone or telex communication This is the start of the exposing of a revolutionary scheme against all the countries of the Middle East More Ramcon professionals are kidnapped in this harrowing story prior to the surprising climax involving all 22 Arab nations and Israel That Book Is Dangerous!

Adam Szetela,2025-08-12 An alarming expos of the new challenges to literary freedom in the age of social media when anyone with an identity and an internet connection can be a censor In That Book Is Dangerous Adam Szetela investigates how well intentioned and often successful efforts to diversify American literature have also produced serious problems for literary freedom Although progressives are correct to be focused on right wing attempts at legislative censorship Szetela argues for attention to the ways that left wing censorship controls speech within the publishing industry itself The author draws on interviews with presidents and vice presidents at the Big Five publishers literary agents at the most prestigious agencies award winning authors editors marketers sensitivity readers and other industry professionals to examine the new publishing landscape What he finds is unsettling mandatory sensitivity reads morality clauses in author contracts even censorship of dangerous books in the name of antiracism feminism and other forms of social justice These changes to acquisition practices editing policies and other aspects of literary culture are a direct outgrowth of the culture of public outcries on X Goodreads Change.org and other online platforms where users accuse authors justifiably or not of racism sexism homophobia and other transgressions But rather than genuinely address the economic inequities of literary production this current moral crusade over literature serves only to entrench the status quo While the right is remaking the world in its image he writes the left is standing in a circular firing squad Compellingly argued and incisively written the book is a much needed wake up call for anyone who cares about reading writing and the publication of books as well as the generations of young readers we are raising

The Military as a Separate Society Pauline Collins, 2019-10-09 The exercise of public power by the military in civilian Western democracies such as Australia and the United States demonstrates a tendency toward diminished responsibility for moral behavior Pauline Collins argues that a different system of military criminal investigation and discipline outside the civilian justice system enables the military to operate like a coterie and can lead to a failure in the requisite moral standard of behavior required of military personnel and maintaining civilian institutional control Collins argues that the justifications for separate treatment weakens both the military reputation and the practice of civilian control of the military as well as leading to an overall decline in morality and values in a democratic society

The Crown in Crisis Alexander Larman, 2025-08-22 The thrilling and definitive account of the Abdication Crisis of 1936 On December 10 1936 King Edward VIII brought a great international drama to a close when he abdicated renouncing the throne of the United Kingdom for himself and his heirs The reason he gave when addressing his subjects was that he could not fulfill his duties without the woman he loved the notorious American divorcee Wallis Simpson by his side His actions scandalized the establishment who were desperate to avoid an international embarrassment at a time when war seemed imminent That the King was rumored to have Nazi sympathies only strengthened their determination that he should be forced off the throne by any means necessary Alexander Larman's The Crown in Crisis will treat readers to a new thrilling view of this legendary story Informed by revelatory archival material never before seen as well as by interviews with many of Edward's and Wallis's close friends Larman creates an hour by hour day by day suspenseful narrative that brings readers up to the point where the microphone is turned on and the king speaks to his subjects As well as focusing on King Edward and Mrs Simpson Larman looks closely at the roles played by those that stood against him Prime minister Stanley Baldwin his private secretary Alec Hardinge and the Archbishop of Canterbury Cosmo Lang Larman also takes the full measure of those who supported him the great politician Winston Churchill Machiavellian newspaper owner Lord Beaverbrook and the brilliant lawyer Walter Monckton For the first time in a book about the abdication readers will read an in depth account of the assassination attempt on Edward's life and its consequences a first person chronicle of Wallis Simpson's scandalous divorce proceedings information from the Royal Archives about the government's worries about Edward's relationship with Nazi high command Ribbentrop and a boots on the ground view of how the British people saw Edward as they watched the drama unfold You won't be able to put down The Crown in Crisis a full panorama of the people and the times surrounding Edward and the woman he loved
