Griffith,2012-01-09 Amid so much twenty first century talk of a Christian Muslim divide and the attendant controversy in some Western countries over policies toward minority Muslim communities a historical fact has gone unnoticed for more than four hundred years beginning in the mid seventh century some 50 percent of the world's Christians lived and worshipped under Muslim rule Just who were the Christians in the Arabic speaking milieu of Mohammed and the Qur'an The Church in the Shadow of the Mosque is the first book length discussion in English of the cultural and intellectual life of such Christians indigenous to the Islamic world Sidney Griffith offers an engaging overview of their initial reactions to the religious challenges they faced the development of a new mode of presenting Christian doctrine as liturgical texts in their own languages gave way to Arabic the Christian role in the philosophical life of early Baghdad and the maturing of distinctive Oriental Christian denominations in this context Offering a fuller understanding of the rise of Islam in its early years from the perspective of contemporary non Muslims this book reminds us that there is much to learn from the works of people who seriously engaged Muslims in their own world so long ago Some images inside the book are unavailable due to digital copyright restrictions Post-Holocaust Jewish-Christian Dialogue Alan L. Berger,2014-12-23 This volume sheds light on the transformed post Holocaust relationship between Catholics and Jews Once implacable theological foes the two traditions have travelled a great distance in coming to view the other with respect and dignity Responding to the horrors of Auschwitz the Catholic Church has undergone a reckoning of the soul beginning with its landmark document Nostra Aetate and embraced a positive theology of Judaism including the ongoing validity of the Jewish covenant Jews have responded to this unprecedented outreach especially in the document Dabru Emet Together these two Abrahamic traditions have begun seeking a repair of the world The road has been rocky and certainly obstacles remain Nevertheless authentic interfaith dialogue remains a new and promising development in the search for a peace Christian Scholar's Review,2004 The Muslim World Book Review,1994 Encyclopedia of Islam Juan Eduardo Campo,2009 Explores the terms concepts personalities historical events and institutions that helped shape the history of this religion and the way it is practiced today Missiology,1995 An international review Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1996-09 The Qur'an in Christian-Muslim Dialogue Corrie Block,2013-10-08 Offering an analysis of Christian Muslim dialogue across four centuries this book highlights those voices of ecumenical tone which have more often used the Qur'an for drawing the two faiths together rather than pushing them apart and amplifies the voice of the Qur'an itself. Finding that there is tremendous ecumenical ground between Christianity and Islam in the voices of their own scholars, this book ranges from a period of declining ecumenism during the first three centuries of Islam to a period of resurging ecumenism during the most recent century until now. Among the ecumenical voices in the Christian-Muslim dialogue, this book points out that the Qur'an itself is possibly the strongest of those voices. These findings are cause for and evidence of hope for the Christian-Muslim relationship that although agreement may never be reached, dialogue has led at times to very real mutual understanding and appreciation of the religious other. Providing a tool for those pursuing understanding and mutual appreciation between the Islamic and Christian faiths, this book will be of interest to scholars and students of Islam, the Qur'an, and the history of Christian-Muslim relations.

Muslims, Christians, and the Challenge of Interfaith Dialogue Jane I. Smith, 2007-10-11. Christian-Muslim dialogue going on in America for many decades has become more intentional and serious since the events of September 11, 2001. This volume looks at the history of encounter between the two religions, the types of dialogue that are taking place both locally and nationally, and the hope that conversation brings for better interfaith understanding. No book has been written on this topic before. The book combines the history of Christian-Muslim relations, the rise of Islam in America, with an emphasis on groups and individuals who have participated in dialogue and different kinds of dialogue.

At the Feet of Abraham Levi UC Nkwocha, 2020-11-30. This book advances an Abrahamic asymmetric mutual substitutive model of hospitality as a practical approach to establish peaceful coexistence between Muslims and Christians. The merits include its helpful survey of the four models of interfaith dialogue and its clear exposition of the dialogue of life, its constructive use of the philosophy of Levinas, particularly in supporting its vision of asymmetrical moral responsibility among Muslim and Christians, and its familiarity with an extensive philosophical literature on alterity, gift exchange, and responsibility. The research also demonstrates strong command of the relevant Christian and Muslim scriptures and Catholic teaching on interfaith relations, in addition to a wide range of background material on African Ubuntu spirit visible in Nigerian sociocultural and religious interdependent relations. Through a consistent engagement of these philosophical, ethical, and cultural dimensions, the Abrahamic theology of hospitality is ingeniously crafted to fill the age-old gap, mutual inability to deal with religious otherness. At once, the book provokes further scholarship, inquiries on and around the identified concerns. Its commonness and concreteness with the proposed respect for each other's faith commitment further underscores its quality.
