The Hard Awakening:

The Hard Awakening Hassan Barnaba Dehqani-Tafti, 1988-01-01      The Hard Awakening Hassan B. Dehqani-Tafti, 1981      Iran and Christianity Mark Bradley, 2011-10-27 In this enlightening study Mark Bradley looks at the growing underground church in Iran. Given the hostility of the regime, it is often assumed that Christianity is withering in Iran, but in fact more Iranian Muslims have become Christians in the last 25 years than since the seventh century when Islam first came to Iran. Beginning with an in-depth look at the historical identity of Iran religiously, culturally, and politically, Bradley shows how this identity makes Iranians inclined towards Christianity. He goes on to look at the impact of the 1979 revolution, an event which has brought war, economic chaos, and totalitarianism to Iran and its implications for Iranian faith. The study concludes with an analysis of church growth since 1979 and an examination of the emerging underground church. This is a fascinating work guaranteed to improve any reader's knowledge of not only Iranian faith and church growth but of Iranian culture and history as a whole, thanks to the thorough treatment given to the country's background.      Edinburgh 2010 David A. Kerr, Kenneth R. Ross, 2009 The Centenary of the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh 1910 is a suggestive moment for many people seeking direction for Christian mission in the 21st century. Several different constituencies within World Christianity are holding significant events around 2010. Since 2005 an international group has worked collaboratively to develop an intercontinental and multid denominational project now known as Edinburgh 2010 and based at New College University of Edinburgh. This initiative brings together representatives of twenty different global Christian bodies representing all major Christian denominations and confessions and many different strands of mission and church life to prepare for the Centenary. Daryl Balia, International Director, Edinburgh 2010.      Cries for a Lost Homeland Guli Francis-Dehqani, 2021-08-25 Guli Francis-Dehqani was born in Isfahan, Iran, to a family who were part of the tiny Anglican Church established by 19th century missionaries. Her father, a Muslim convert, became the first indigenous Persian bishop. As the Islamic Revolution of 1979 swept across the country, church properties were raided, confiscated, or closed down. Guli's father was briefly imprisoned before surviving an attack on his life which injured his wife. Soon after, whilst he was out of the country for meetings, Guli's 24-year-old brother, Bahram, a university teacher in Tehran, was murdered. No one was ever brought to justice, and the family were advised to leave Iran. Guli was 14. They eventually settled in England with refugee status. Drawing on the riches of Persian culture and her own dramatic experience of loss of a homeland, Guli offers memorable and perceptive reflections on Jesus' seven final sayings from the cross, opening up for Western readers fresh and arresting insights from a Middle Eastern perspective.      The Church Going Global Tormod Engelsen, Erling Lundeby, Dagfinn Solheim, 2011      The A to Z of Iran John H. Hopkins, 2020-09-22 This work explores the interaction of American Protestant missionaries with Iranians during the 1960s and 1970s It focuses on the missionary activities of four American Protestant groups Presbyterians Assemblies of God International Missions and Southern Baptists It argues that American missionaries predisposition toward their own culture confused their message of the gospel and added to the negative perception of Christianity among Iranians This bias was seen primarily in the American missionaries desire to modernize Iran through education and healthcare and between the missionaries relationship with Iranian Christians Iranian attitudes towards missionary involvement in these areas are investigated as is the changing American missionary strategy from a traditional method where missionaries had the final say on most matters related to American and Iranian Christian interaction to the beginnings of an indigenous system where a partnership developed between the missionary and the Iranian Christian The Genesis of German Conservatism Klaus Epstein, 2015-03-08 Although Conservative parties did not exist in Germany until after the Napoleonic Wars there did emerge around 1770 traceable organized political activity and intellectual currents of a clearly Conservative character The author argues that this movement developed as a response to the challenge of the Enlightenment in the fields of religion socioeconomic affairs and politics and that this response antedated the impact of the French Revolution Believing that Conservatism cannot be treated properly as a specialized phenomenon or simply as an intellectual movement Professor Epstein correlates it with the political and social forces of the time Originally published in 1966 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905      Fearful Times; Living Faith Robert Boak

The Unthinkable Revolution in Iran Charles Kurzman,2005-09-06 The shah of Iran Mohammad Reza Pahlavi would remain on the throne for the foreseeable future This was the firm conclusion of a top secret CIA analysis issued in October 1978 One hundred days later the shah despite his massive military fearsome security police and superpower support was overthrown by a popular and largely peaceful revolution But the CIA was not alone in its myopia as Charles Kurzman reveals in this penetrating work Iranians themselves except for a tiny minority considered a revolution inconceivable until it actually occurred Revisiting the circumstances surrounding the fall of the shah Kurzman offers rare insight into the nature and evolution of the Iranian revolution and into the ultimate unpredictability of protest movements in general As one Iranian recalls The future was up in the air Through interviews and eyewitness accounts declassified security documents and underground pamphlets Kurzman documents the overwhelming sense of confusion that gripped pre revolutionary Iran and that characterizes major protest movements His book provides a striking picture of the chaotic conditions under which Iranians acted participating in protest only when they expected others to do so too the process approaching critical mass in unforeseen and unforeseeable ways Only when large numbers of Iranians began to think the unthinkable in the words of the U S ambassador did revolutionary expectations become a self fulfilling prophecy A corrective to 20 20 hindsight this book reveals shortcomings of analyses that make the Iranian revolution or any major protest movement seem inevitable in retrospect Scribner's Magazine ... ,1907 The Oxford Handbook of Anglican Studies Mark David Chapman,Sathianathan Clarke,Martyn Percy,2016 The Anglican Communion is the third largest Christian denomination and claims a membership of some 80 million members in about 164 countries Given that there are only around two hundred countries in the world this makes the churches of the Anglican Communion the most geographically widespread denomination after Roman Catholicism The 44 essays in this volume embrace a wide range of academic disciplines theological historical demography and geography and different aspects of culture and ethics They are united in their discussion of what is effectively a new inter disciplinary subject which we have termed Anglican Studies At the core of this volume is the phenomenon of Anglicanism as this is expressed in different places and in a variety of ways across the world This Handbook covers a far broader set of topics from a wider range of perspectives than has been hitherto attempted in Anglican Studies At the same time it doesn t impose a particular theological or historical agenda The contributions are drawn from across the spectrum of theological views and opinions It shows that the unsettled nature of the polity is part of its own rich history and many will see this as a somewhat lustrous tradition In its comprehensive coverage this volume is a valuable contribution to Anglican Studies and helps formulate a discipline that might perhaps promote dialogue and discussion across the Anglican world
