The Hard Trip:

The Hardest Thing I'll Ever Do Linda Guebert, 2013-05 In The Hardest Thing I'll Ever Do Linda Guebert shares her personal grief journey following the sudden death of her husband only nine months after they were married. At times heartrending, occasionally funny, her compelling account moves us through sorrow, anger, and despair to renewed hope and commitment to life. A powerful story of healing and personal growth, The Hardest Thing I'll Ever Do is a valuable resource for those who have suffered the loss of someone they love and for those who strive to understand grief and offer support to others.

The American Road Trip and American Political Thought Susan McWilliams Barndt, 2020-07-06 Americans love road trips. They love to go on road trips. They love to read about road trips. They love to watch road trip stories unfold on television and film. Road trip stories are a consistent feature of the American landscape, a central part of American mythology, and an important piece of the American dream. In The American Road Trip and American Political Thought, Susan McWilliams Barndt argues that the American fascination with road trip stories is about more than mere escapism or wanderlust. She shows in walking through stories like On the Road and The Grapes of Wrath that American road trip stories are a key expression of American political thought. They are not just stories of personal journeys. They are stories of the American nation. McWilliams Barndt shows how Americans have long used road trip stories to raise and explore central questions about American politics in theory and practice. They talk about freedom and equality and diversity and take those vaunted American ideals for a test drive. American road trip stories are where the rubber meets the road in American political thought. The American Road Trip and American Political Thought includes explorations of a wide variety of American authors from Walt Whitman and Henry David Thoreau to Erika Lopez and Cheryl Strayed, from Mark Twain and John Steinbeck to Solomon Northup and Hunter S. Thompson. It covers topics including gender, labor, place, race, and technology in American political life. This is a book that will change the way you think about the great American road trip and the great American story.

Hoover the Fishing President Hal Elliott Wert, 2020-02-24 An intensely private and shy man, Hoover the person was largely unknown to the American public. In this extensively researched biography devoted to the angling side of Hoover, author Hal Elliott Wert examines the often overlooked life of our thirty-first president. In a presidency plagued by the Depression in a time when the country was poised between the agrarian society of the past and the advent of a modern professional class, Herbert Hoover faced numerous challenges. A thinker and a doer who shaped the way we live today, Hoover found relief from the stresses of his professional life in his pastime fishing. Herbert Hoover fished near his hometown of West Branch, Iowa, as a boy and then moved to Oregon where he fished the Rogue, Willamette, McKenzie, and Columbia rivers. As a young man, he attended Stanford and fished and camped throughout the West during breaks. He fished and spent time in the outdoors throughout his life and especially in his years as president. He founded Cave Man Camp at Bohemian Grove north of

San Francisco a yearly getaway for powerful Republicans and Camp Rapidan in Virginia while he was in the White House In addition to freshwater fishing Hoover enjoyed fishing the salt On trips to Florida later in his life he stalked bonefish and fished for permit and the larger species such as sailfish Fentonville Dale McMillan,2012-03-16 The small town of Fentonville is a typical small town with its social elitists and country club crowd who steer the content of the social register Athaleigh Fenton the bank presidents wife and Lucy Burke the mayors wife are high in the pecking order Nancy Fenton Athaleighs daughter is in love with a little country boy Ben Locke who lives two farms down the road from her grandmother Ben is not acceptable to Athaleigh so she forces Nancy to date Joe Burkes Lucys son Follow the trail of trials and heartache as Nancy struggles with problems at home and Ben is a Marine in Korea in the heat of the Korean conflict Nancy winds up living under the protection of her grandmother Granny Fenton Granny is a pioneer woman and she is the granddaughter of the founder of Fentons trading post which later became Fentonville Granny Fenton somewhat eccentric still lives a pioneer lifestyle living off the land raising her garden milking her cow and preserving her food She and her son Reginald the bank president are somewhat estranged because of Grannys frequent outbursts in Fentonville What most in the town do not realize is that Granny is very intelligent and wealthy Her son actually works for her The Stanford Quad ,1915
