The Origins of Fort Rucker Val L. McGee, 1987 Slides - Origins of Fort Rucker Val L. McGee, 1990 Kodak box with carousel of pictures on slides Box 5 United States Army Aviation Digest , 1994 Forth to the Mighty Conflict Allen Cronenberg, 2003-07-30 Alabama and its people played a conspicuous role in World War II Not only were thousands of servicemen trained at military facilities in the state but Axis prisoners of war were interned in camps on Alabama soil most notably at Aliceville and Opelika More than 45 000 Alabama citizens were killed in combat or died as POWs some came home injured and many labored in war factories at home Unofficial Guide to Fort Rucker, United States Army Aviation Center & School , 1969 The Origins of American Strategic Bombing Theory Craig F. Morris, 2017-10-15 Craig F Morris explores the beginnings of American strategic bombing theory why it changed over time the factors that shaped that change and how technology molded military doctrine This much needed book provides a full spectrum discussion of the American strategic bombing concept in a way that advances aviation history In the minds of forward thinking aerial theorists the new technology of the airplane removed the limitations of geography defenses and operational reach that had restricted ground and naval forces since the dawn of human conflict With aviation a nation could avoid costly traditional military campaigns and attack the industrial heart of an enemy using long range bombers Yet the acceptance of strategic bombing doctrine proved a hard fought process This is not the story of any one person or event instead it is a twisting tale of individual efforts organizational infighting political priorities and technological integration By tracing the complex interrelationships of these four causal factors this book provides a greater understanding of the origins and rise to dominance of American strategic bombing theory A History of the Mobile District Corps of Engineers, 1815-1985 D. Gregory Jeane, Bruce Gordon Harvey, 2002 Alabama Warbird Survivors 2003 Harold A. Skaarup, 2002-11-13 Some of the finest military warbirds in American aviation history are still flying in the Southern State of Alabama Many of them are on display in a number of excellent air museums or they have been mounted on pylons to stand as memorials to the many military aviators who called Alabama home This handbook is designed to provide aviation enthusiasts with a simple locating guide on where to find Alabamas retired warbirds within the state Many of the aircraft can be found in the Southern Museum of Flight Birmingham the United States Army Aviation Museum the US Space and Rocket Center at Huntsville Battleship Memorial Park at Mobile Maxwell AFB Park at Montgomery or in the hands of private owners and collectors The handbook provides photographs of many of the aircraft preserved in Alabama along with a brief description and history of its service within the US armed forces The aircraft are listed alphabetically by manufacturer number and aircraft type Famous aircraft found on display in Alabama include the Lockheed A 12 Blackbird and a number of very rare flying machines such as the gigantic one of a kind Boeing Vertol XCH 62 Heavy Lift Helicopter not found in other aviation museums Army History , 1999 Camp Rucker During World War II James L. Noles, Jr., 2002 The story of Camp Rucker Alabama during the Second World War illustrates the colossal effort of a quiet nation to shake off its peaceful slumber and mobilize for total war Camp Rucker's role in that mighty endeavor is told in these pages through vintage photographs from Fort Rucker's Army Aviation Museum Select passages from the War Department's 1944 pamphlet Army Life complement these images to give a unique glimpse at the life of a U S Army training camp during World War II and the men and women who trained there Today Camp Rucker is known as Fort Rucker and is home to the United States Army Aviation Center In 1941 however it was simply a vast acreage of pine trees scrub oak and sub marginal farmland But following the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor the War Department decided to carve out a training camp in this southeastern corner of Alabama By the spring of 1942 the first freshly mobilized units had entered its gates In the following three years Camp Rucker trained thousands of Army soldiers WACs and nurses Many of these young Americans were destined for the battlefields of the Pacific and Europe
