Landscape Ecology in Agroecosystems Management Lech Ryszkowski, 2001-12-27 Successful management of agricultural landscapes depends on the recognition of the relationships between the processes and the structures that maintain the system The rapidly growing science of Landscape Ecology quantifies the ways these ecosystems interact and establishes a link between the activities in one region and repercussions in another A

Agroecological Practices To Enhance Resilience Of Farming Systems Fabio Gresta, Moritz Von Cossel, Danilo Scordia, 2025-08-19 Resource over exploitation coupled with climate change has increased the urgency to act for preserving agroecosystems and their sustainability Unlike conventional agriculture agroecology addresses the current challenges of farming systems harnessing synergy with natural social and human resources in both time and space to produce food sustainably Several strategies addressing climate and environmental specific objectives call for agroecological practices to enhance the resilience of agroecosystems and to formulate transition pathways towards sustainable food systems In the coming decades the resilience of agriculture will be challenged by extreme climate change events such as increased temperature drought evapotranspiration and wind among others altering the conditions for cropland species This Research Topic will explore this hypothesis aiming to disseminate insights from research as evidence of the effectiveness of agroecological practices to enhance the resiliency of agroecosystems and counteract the detrimental effects of climate change

The Dynamic Landscape James Hitchmough, 2004-07-15 The last quarter of the twentieth century witnessed a burgeoning of interest in ecological or naturally inspired use of vegetation in the designed landscape More recently a strong aesthetic element has been added to what was formerly a movement aimed at creating nature like landscapes This book advances an innovative fusion of scientific and ecological planting design philosophies which can address the need for more sustainable designed landscapes It is a major statement on the design implementation and management of ecologically inspired landscape vegetation With contributions from experts at the forefront of development in this area across Europe and North America this work gives the reader a valuable synthesis of current thinking

Architecturalized Asia Vimalin Rujivacharakul, H. Hazel Hahn, Ken Tadashi Oshima, Peter Christensen, 2013-11-01 How did terms like Asia Eurasia Indochina Pacific Rim or Australasia originate and evolve and what are their connections to the built environment In addressing this question Architecturalized Asia bridges the fields of history and architecture by taking Asia as a discursive structure and cultural construct whose spatial and ideological formation can be examined through the lenses of cartography built environments and visual narratives The first section on the study of architecture in Asia from the medieval through early modern periods examines icons and symbols in maps as well as textual descriptions produced in Europe and Asia The second section explores the establishment of the field of Asian architecture as well as the political and cultural imagining of Asia during the long nineteenth century when Asia and its regions were redefined in the making of modern world maps mainly produced in Europe The third section examines tangible structures produced in the twentieth century as legible documents of these notional constructions of Asia In exploring the ways in which Asia has been drawn and framed both within and without the continent this volume offers cutting edge scholarship on architectural history world history and the history of empires Written by architectural historians and historians specializing in Asia and European empires this unique volume addresses the connection between Asia and the world through the lenses of built environments and spatial conceptualizations Architecturalized Asia will appeal to readers who are interested in Asian architecture world architecture Asian history history of empires and world history

Highland Homecomings Paul Basu, 2007-03-12 The first full length ethnographic study of its kind Highland Homecomings examines the role of place ancestry and territorial attachment in the context of a modern age characterized by mobility and rootlessness With an interdisciplinary approach speaking to current themes in anthropology archaeology history historical geography cultural studies migration studies tourism studies Scottish studies Paul Basu explores the journeys made to the Scottish Highlands and Islands to undertake genealogical research and seek out ancestral sites Using an innovative methodological approach Basu tracks journeys between imagined homelands and physical landscapes and argues that through these genealogical journeys individuals are able to construct meaningful self narratives from the ambiguities of their diasporic migrant histories and recover their sense of home and self identity This is a significant contribution to popular and academic Scottish studies literature particularly appealing to popular and academic audiences in USA Canada Australia New Zealand and Scotland
