The Aboriginal Economy In Town And Country:

The Indigenous Welfare Economy and the CDEP Scheme Frances Morphy, W.G. Sanders, 2004-05-01 Debates the crucial issue of how Indigenous self determination and the rights agenda which argues for the unique and inherent rights of Indigenous Australians sits with or in opposition to the mutual obligation theories of the Howard government's welfare reform

Engaging Indigenous Economy Will Sanders, 2016-04-20 The engagement of Indigenous Australians in economic activity is a matter of long standing public concern and debate Jon Altman has been intellectually engaged with Indigenous economic activity for almost 40 years most prominently through his elaboration of the concept of the hybrid economy and most recently through his sustained and trenchant critique of policy He has inspired others also to engage with these important issues both through his writing and through his position as the foundation Director of The Australian National University's Centre for Aboriginal Economic Policy research from 1990 to 2010 The year 2014 saw both Jon's 60th birthday and his retirement from CAEPR This collection of essays marks those events Contributors include long standing colleagues from the disciplines of economics anthropology and political science and younger scholars who have been inspired by Jon's approach in developing their own research projects All point to the complexity as well as the importance of engaging with Indigenous economic activity conceptually empirically and as a strategic concern for public policy

Social Anthropology and Australian Aboriginal Studies Robert Tonks, Ronald Berndt, 1988-11 This volume summaries major developments in the social anthropology of Aboriginal studies in the 1960s 80s It is valuable as an overview of five important and interrelated topics economy kinship gender religion and law It also contains stimulating comment and criticism and raised important issues for future research as well as current debate in Aboriginal studies

Aboriginal Health and History Ernest Hunter, 1993-06-14 The Royal Commission into Aboriginal Deaths in Custody 1987 1991 focused attention on the behavioural dimension of Aboriginal health and the lack of appropriate services This book is a systematic analysis of the sociohistorical and intercultural aspects of mental health in one area of remote Australia the Kimberley The author shows how the effects of social disruption cultural dislocation and loss of power suffered by Aboriginal people have manifested themselves in certain behavioural patterns The book analyses rising mortality rates from suicide accidents and homicide amongst Kimberley Aboriginal communities and studies the economic impact of alcohol on these communities It also considers the role of alcohol in producing violent behaviour and affecting the general level of health

Assessing the Evidence on Indigenous Socioeconomic Outcomes Boyd Hunter, 2006-06-01 Aboriginal Australian Social conditions Economic conditions

First World, First Nations Gunter Minnerup, Pia Solberg, 2010-10-21 Collects essays on the Indigenous peoples of Australia and Northern Europe exploring the similarities and differences between the Indigenous experiences in the Nordic countries and Australia

The Transformation of Australia's Population Siew-An Khoo, Peter Francis McDonald, Siew-Ean Khoo, 2003 Transformation of Australia's population 1970 2030

Cultural Industries and the Production of Culture Dominic Power, Allen J. Scott, 2004-08-05 Cutting edge perspectives on the functioning of cultural industries are offered in this volume which explores the media entertainment and artistic sectors Contributors place these industries in the new economy and suggest ways in which they can contribute to urban and regional economic and social development

Culture, Economy and Governance in Aboriginal Australia Diane J. Austin-Broos, Gaynor Macdonald, 2005 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are advised that this resource may contain images transcripts or names of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples now deceased It may also contain historically and culturally sensitive words terms and descriptions

Developing Australia's Regions Andrew Beer, Alaric Maude, William Pritchard, 2003-05-01 Delves behind the too often negative media headlines and stereotypes about regional Australia and considers the true state of Australia's regions including metropolitan regions and what can be done to improve their economic social and environmental well being

Policing the Rural Crisis Russell Hogg, Kerry Carrington, 2006 There is a growing sense of crisis in rural ways of life which manifests itself in economic decline depopulation depleted environments and a crisis of rural identities Crime is one potent marker of crisis the more so as it spoils the image of healthy cohesive community The social reaction it elicits the policing of this other rural is also a guide to the dimensions of crisis The social sciences have witnessed a renewed international interest in the study of other rurals the neglected invisible or excluded aspects of country life This book brings a fresh approach to the study of crime that challenges the urban centric assumptions of much western criminology and sociology It explores rural crime and social reactions to it in relation to processes and patterns of community formation and change in rural Australia including the social economic cultural and political forces shaping the history structure and everyday life of rural communities Policing the Rural Crisis is based on five years of extensive original empirical research in rural and regional Australia It draws on ideas and debates in contemporary social theory across several disciplines making the analysis relevant to the study of crime and social change elsewhere

Aboriginal Australia Colin Bourke, Eleanor Bourke, William Howell Edwards, 1998 With an analysis of the traditional colonial and contemporary experiences of indigenous Australians this study examines various facets of the lives of Aboriginal Australians and shows how their struggles enrich the Australian community as a whole Insightful and engaging this reference presents an investigation on the continual struggle facing Aboriginals to maintain a strong identity and heritage while actively participating in and contributing to the modern world

International Handbook of Research on Indigenous Entrepreneurship L. -P. Dana, 2007 This book offers an original collection of international studies on indigenous entrepreneurship Through these specific lenses entrepreneurship greatly appears as a set of cultural values based behaviours Once more culture and human values are placed at the heart of entrepreneurship as an economic and social phenomenon Alain Fayolle EM Lyon and CERAG Laboratory France and Solvay Business School Belgium A must have for researchers of developmental economics as well as for entrepreneurship scholars this collection assembles studies of indigenous entrepreneurship from five continent      Unsettling Settler Societies Daiva Stasiulis, Nira Yuval-Davis, 1995-06-05

Settler societies are those in which Europeans have settled and become politically dominant over indigenous people and where a heterogeneous society has developed in class ethnic and racial terms They offer a unique prism for understanding the complex relations of gender race ethnicity and class in contemporary societies Unsettling Settler Societies brings together a distinguished cast of contributors to explore these relations in both material and discursive terms They look at the relation between indigenous and settler immigrant populations focusing in particular on women's conditions and politics The book examines how the process of development of settler societies and the positions of indigenous and migrant peoples within them reflects the place of these societies New Zealand Australia Canada the United States Mexico Peru South Africa Zimbabwe Algeria and Israel within a global economy      Regional Change in the Economic Status of Indigenous Australians, 1986-91 John Taylor, 1993 Analyses intercensal change in respect to variation of regional economic status to national norms for all populations regional variations in economic status within indigenous populations and in comparison with other Australians      Third World in the First Elspeth Young, 2013-04-03 European colonisation has marginalised the first peoples in industrialised countries such as Australia and Canada In remote regions still the homes of large Aboriginal Indian and Inuit populations this legacy remains strong Modernisation the boom and bust model of state and private development and the partial and biased assistance provided by the state have eroded many communities through their disregard for socio economic structures and the beliefs which underpin them Third World in the First explores the past present and future of these peoples their treatment by the West and the alternative strategies of development which might be available to them

Indigenous Participation in Australian Economies Ian Keen, 2010-12-01 This volume seeks to contribute to the body of anthropological and historical studies of Indigenous participation in the Australian colonial and post colonial economy It arises out of a panel on this topic at the annual conference of the Australian Anthropological Society held jointly with the British and New Zealand anthropological associations in Auckland in December 2008 The panel was organised in conjunction with an Australian Research Council ARC Linkage Grant project on Indigenous participation in Australian economies involving the National Museum of Australia as the partner organisation and the School of Archaeology and Anthropology at The Australian National University The chapters of the volume bring new theoretical analyses and empirical data to bear on a continuing discussion about the variety of ways in which Indigenous people in Australia have been engaged in the colonial and post colonial economy Contributions cover settler capitalism concepts of property on the frontier Torres Strait Islanders in the mainland economy the pastoral industry in the Kimberley doggers in the Western Desert bean and pea picking on the South Coast of New South Wales attitudes to employment in general in western New South Wales relations of Aboriginal people to mining in the Pilbara and relations with the uranium mine and Kakadu National Park in the Top End The chapters also contribute to discussions about theoretical and analytical frameworks relevant to these kinds of contexts and bring critical perspectives to bear on current issues of development In the March 2012 edition of Oceania Diane Austin Broos reviews Ian Keen s Indigenous Participation in Australian Economies historical and anthropological perspectives She opens with an emphatic assertion This is a good book and praises the collected essays for covering geographically and temporally a wide range of Indigenous engagements Austin Broos synopsis of the essays in this collection gives an enticing glimpse of what readers can expect from these textured accounts of local experience She hopes that other like publications will follow this one either in the form of edited collections of sole authored monographs Austin Broos Diane Review of Indigenous Participation in Australian Economies historical and anthropological perspectives by Ian Keen Oceania issue 82 1 March 2012 Indigenous Futures Tim Rowse,2002 In the public debate about the success or failure of Australia s Indigenous policies opinions have been grounded more often in personal experience than in social scientists research This work asks What vision of the good life should guide an assessment of policy The Aboriginal Component in the Australian Economy ,1981 Sociology of Health and Illness Gillian M. Lupton,Jakob M. Najman,1995 Second edition of a collection of readings on the health of Australians originally published in 1989 From a sociological perspective consideration is given to the major social aspects of behaviour likely to affect one s health and the outcome of any health care one may receive Discusses health services recipients of services providers of services and disease prevention and promotion Includes a bibliography and index Gillian Lupton is a senior lecturer and Jake Najman is professor of sociology in the Department of Anthropology and Sociology at the University of Queensland Lupton is co author of Society and Gender An Introduction to Sociology and Najman is the editor of A Sociology of Australian Society
