

The Aburance Of Faith

Thomas CORNE

The Assurance Of Faith:

The Assurance of Faith Louis Berkhof, 2016-04-26 THERE are some subjects that have a perennial appeal for all serious minded Christians And among these the subject of the assurance of faith or of salvation occupies an outstanding place When our preachers address their churches on that vital topic they may be sure of a goodly number of interested hearers who are anxious for a description of the foundation of their hope and who long for a word that will help them to obtain that blessed assurance and will thus fill their hearts with the joy of salvation It is true that many professing Christians to day will not subscribe to this sentiment In their estimation one who undertakes to speak or write on the subject of assurance is hopelessly behind the time and altogether out of tune with the present trend of religious thought They do not all formulate their objections in the same way but they all agree in the desire to ignore or at least to soft pedal the question of assurance Some emphasize the fact that the character of the Christian battle has changed and the battleground has been shifted Time was when the Bible was accepted as the infallible Word of God and Bible truths were taken at their face value Whatever doubts were entertained concerned one's being in a state of grace The battle was fought single handed in the citadel of the heart But now the trustworthiness of the Bible is called in question and even the great verities of faith such as the incarnation the virgin birth the physical resurrection of Jesus Christ and his physical return in glory are not only doubted but boldly denied This calls for a battle in the open field in which all those who recognize Jesus Christ as their Lord should stand shoulder to shoulder The struggle to maintain the fundamentals of the Christian religion is so all absorbing that it really leaves no time for the question of personal assurance Far more important issues are at stake and must be settled before this question can really mean anything

The Assurance of Faith Randall C. Zachman, 2005-01-01 Common wisdom concerning Luther and Calvin suggests differences in the way they related the testimony of Christ to the conscience Zachman undertakes the long overdue comparison of their theologies especially the ways in which Luther and Calvin define and describe the conscience and relate it to the testimonies of the Word and the Spirit Winner of the Marc Perry Galler Prize for a work of scholarly distinction

The Assurance of Things Hoped for Avery Dulles, 1996-09 Faith since the earliest Christian theologians has been regarded as the fundamental Christian virtue the prerequisite for hope charity and good works In this book Avery Dulles examines the biblical foundations and history of theological reflection on faith from the Greek and Latin fathers to such modern giants as Tillich Rahner and Lonergan Further Dulles presents his own systematic synthesis reflecting on such topics as the nature and object of faith the certitude of faith the birth growth and loss of faith and faith and salvation The result is a refreshingly relevant theology of faith for our day

The Assurance of Faith; Or, the Experience of a True Christian. Being the Substance of a Discourse Delivered at Glenevy ... in the Year 1754 John CENNICK, 1756

Assurance of Adoption Chun Tse, 2020-09-21 This book presents a new paradigm for assurance of salvation It argues that an adoption centric understanding of salvation based on union with Christ enables one to appreciate salvation in its fullest splendor

Seeing assurance from historical exegetical and theological perspectives it contends that assurance of adoption is assurance of salvation

William W. Guth,2015-07-19 Excerpt from The Assurance of Faith Faith has its assurance even more than sight It is like the sensitized plate which the astronomer places in his camera and exposes before the heavens full of visible stars to catch and reproduce the invisible With the eye of faith man looks at the things that are seen and sees the things that can not be seen with the eye of sight The astronomer would have but a partial knowledge of the stellar universe if he could not fix by photography the worlds invisible even to the eye looking through the strongest telescope So man s knowledge would be sadly incomplete if he could not fix by faith the worlds invisible even to the strongest telescope of the intellect It is in this invisible world we live About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at

on Prayer it has a distinct office to fulfill an office that in the judgment of the editor is of immense importance For between and the professor's lecture room and the preacher's study there is a great gulf fixed In the lecture room the lectures on systematic theology are laboriously entered into notebooks which are useful for the exit examinations But when the active work of the ministry begins and so many sermons have to be prepared every week the cupboard into which those notebooks have been stowed away is left undisturbed The preacher begins to spin his sermons out of his own brains with the assistance of such popular books as happen to be at his hand From the Preface
