SECRET

REPORT BY GENERAL MAJOR LANHOUSEN

SIDELIGHTS ON THE DEVELOPMENTS OF THE
"20th of JULY"
IN THE AMT/AUSLAND, ABWEHR, FOR
THE END OF 3rd QUARTER OF 1943

In the consideration of the chief personalities who took part,
namely, CANARIS and OSTER,

I must separate the two opposite me in this project.

Undoubtedly confederates, perhaps more than that, on matters pertaining to the "20th of July" both these officers constantly came to see me only as individuals, -- as I in general assume that CANARIS possibly and probably figured very actively behind the scenes of the plan to do away forcibly with Hitler, but did not, and did not wish to, take his stand in the group of those who labored for the realization of this project.

After my last conversation with Oster -- around October 1944
the impression that CANARIS -- at least at this time was from the "20th of July" circle. What role he thereafter played in the occurrence itself in July 1944, I do not know already a year away from the last hour

Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1975 Hunting Nazis in Franco's Spain David A. Messenger, 2014-05-12 In the waning days and immediate aftermath of World War II Nazi diplomats and spies based in Spain decided to stay rather than return to a defeated Germany The decidedly pro German dictatorship of General Francisco Franco gave them refuge and welcomed other officials and agents from the Third Reich who had escaped and made their way to Iberia Amid fears of a revival of the Third Reich Allied intelligence and diplomatic officers developed a repatriation program across Europe to return these individuals to Germany where occupation authorities could further investigate them Yet due to Spain's longstanding ideological alliance with Hitler German infiltration of the Spanish economy and society was extensive and the Allies could count on minimal Spanish cooperation in this effort In Hunting Nazis in Franco's Spain David Messenger deftly traces the development and execution of the Allied repatriation scheme providing an analysis of Allied Spanish and German expatriate responses Messenger shows that by April 1946 British and American embassy staff in Madrid had compiled a census of the roughly 10 000 Germans then residing in Spain and had drawn up three lists of 1 677 men and women targeted for repatriation to occupied Germany While the Spanish government did round up and turn over some Germans to the Allies many of them were intentionally overlooked in the process By mid 1947 Franco s regime had forced only 265 people to leave Spain most Germans managed to evade repatriation by moving from Spain to Argentina or by solidifying their ties to the Franco regime and Span ish life By 1948 the program was effectively over Drawing on records in American British and Spanish archives this first book length study in English of the repatriation program tells the story of this dramatic chapter in the history of post World War II Europe
