Art History Eddie Chambers, 2019-11-12 This Companion authoritatively points to the main areas of enquiry within the subject of African American art history The first section examines how African American art has been constructed over the course of a century of published scholarship The second section studies how African American art is and has been taught and researched in academia The third part focuses on how African American art has been reflected in art galleries and museums The final section opens up understandings of what we mean when we speak of African American art This book will be of interest to graduate students researchers and professors and may be used in American art African American art visual culture and culture classes San Francisco Lithographer Robert J. Chandler, 2014-01-29 Grafton Tyler Brown whose heritage was likely one eighth African American finessed his way through San Francisco society by passing for white Working in an environment hostile to African American achievement Brown became a successful commercial artist and businessman in the rough and tumble gold rush era and the years after the Civil War Best known for his bird s eye cityscapes he also produced and published maps charts and business documents and he illustrated books sheet music advertisements and labels for cans and other packaging This biography by a distinguished California historian gives an underappreciated artist and his work recognition long overdue Focusing on Grafton Tyler Brown s lithography and his life in nineteenth century San Francisco Robert J Chandler offers a study equally fascinating as a business and cultural history and as an introduction to Brown the artist Chandler s contextualization of Brown s career goes beyond the issue of race Showing how Brown survived and flourished as a businessman Chandler offers unique insight into the growth of printing and publishing in California and the West He examines the rise of lithography its commercial and cultural importance and the competition among lithographic companies He also analyzes Brown s work and style comparing it to the products of rival firms Brown was not respected as a fine artist until after his death Collectors of western art and Americana now recognize the importance of Californiana and of Brown s work some of which depicts Portland and the Pacific Northwest and they will find Chandler s checklist descriptions and reproductions of Brown s ephemera including billheads and maps as uniquely valuable as Chandler s contribution to the cultural and commercial history of California In an afterword historian Shirley Ann Wilson Moore discusses the circumstances and significance of passing in nineteenth century America David C. Driskell Julie L. McGee,2006 In this inquiry into Driskell s life and work art historian McGee analyzes Driskell s philosophical struggles as he sought to both express his feelings about racial strife in America and stay true to his art The Other Side of Color David C. Driskell,2001 This volume presents selections from the highly respected Cosby collection of African American art Their introductions elaborate on their strong belief that African American families should themselves seek to preserve their cultural history and not rely on the mainstream They also provide interesting background about how they began their collection and what owning the art has meant to them The essay by Driskell curator author and scholar places each artist within the context of his or her era from the late 1700s to the present and explores the historical biographical social and political background of each period Also contains biographies of the artists Beautifully illustrated with 91 color plates and several other illustrations Oversize 10 25x13 25 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Art of Ellis Wilson Albert Sperath, Margaret R. Jones,Eva King,2014-11-04 From the tobacco fields of western Kentucky to the streets of Harlem from the Gullah Islands off the South Carolina and Georgia coasts to the all black republic of Haiti painter Ellis Wilson 1899 1977 examined the scope and depth of black culture One of Kentucky s most significant African American artists Wilson graduated from the Art Institute of Chicago in 1923 He spent five more years in the city before moving to New York where he lived for the rest of his life Aside from his participation in the WPA s Federal Arts Project and a Guggenheim Fellowship he was never able to support himself fully by painting Yet his work has long been praised for its boldness and individuality Black workers were a favorite subject field hands factory workers loggers fishermen and more Of his 1940s series of black factory employees Wilson stated That was the first time I had ever seen my people working in industry so I painted them Over time his documentary style gave way to one that emphasized shape and color over pure representation. Despite exhibitions in New York and elsewhere, Wilson considered a small show at the public library in his hometown of Mayfield in 1947 to be one of the high points of his life. This catalog accompanies the first major retrospective of Wilson's paintings. Rhapsodies in Black Richard J. Powell, David A. Bailey, Hayward Gallery, 1997. Rhapsodies in Black takes a fresh look at the Harlem artistic renaissance, contesting narrow interpretations of the movement and recognizing its global significance. African American Art Smithsonian American Art Museum, Richard J. Powell, Virginia McCord Mecklenburg, 2012. Drawn entirely from the Smithsonian American Art Museum's rich collection of African American art, the works include paintings by Benny Andrews, Jacob Lawrence, Thornton Dial Sr., Romare Bearden, Alma Thomas, and Lois Mailou Jones, and photographs by Roy DeCarava, Gordon Parks, Roland Freeman, Marilyn Nance, and James Van Der Zee. More than half of the artworks in the exhibition are being shown for the first time. Publisher's website. Something All Our Own Grant Hill, 2004. Grant Hill and experts celebrate and examine the creative expression of African American art and artists. Collecting the New Bruce Altshuler, 2013-10-24. Collecting the New is the first book on the questions and challenges that museums face in acquiring and preserving contemporary art. Because such art has not yet withstood the test of time, it defies the traditional understanding of the art museum as an institution that collects and displays works of long-established aesthetic and historical value. By acquiring such art, museums gamble on the future. In addition, new technologies and alternative conceptions of the artwork have created special problems of conservation, while social, political, and aesthetic changes have generated new categories of works to be collected. Following Bruce Altshuler's introduction on the European and American history of museum collecting of art by living artists, the book comprises newly commissioned essays by twelve distinguished curators representing a wide range of museums. First considered are general issues including the acquisition process and collecting by universal survey museums and museums that focus on modern and contemporary art. Following are groups of essays that address collecting in particular media, including prints and drawings, new digital media, and film and video, and national and ethnic-specific collecting of contemporary art from Asia, Africa, and Latin America, and African American art. The closing essay examines the conservation problems created by contemporary works, for example, what is to be done when deterioration is the artist's intent. The contributors are Christophe Cherix, Vishakha N. Desai, Steve Dietz, Howard N. Fox, Chrissie Iles, and Henriette Huldish, Pamela McClusky, Gabriel Perez Barreiro, Lowery Stokes Sims, Robert Storr, Jeffrey Weiss, and Glenn Wharton. Traveling the Rainbow Derrel B. DePasse, 2001. Reveals how the artist recorded his memories of the American railroad and the traveling circus as landscapes. A Shared Heritage William Edward Taylor, Harriet Garcia Warkel, 1996. Highly recommended Choice. This handsomely illustrated catalog presents the work of four African American artists with shared Indiana roots: John Wesley Hardrick, William Majors, William Edouard Scott, and Hale Aspacio Woodruff. Their art, ranging from impressionism and social realism to cubism and abstract expressionism, spans the major trends in 20th century American art while reflecting the artists experiences as blacks in America Aaron Douglas Aaron Douglas, Renée
