

Did you hear about the Glaswegian who bought his wife a mudpack to improve her appearance? It worked for a couple of days, but then wore off . . .

Did you know that when McTavish found a box of corn cures, he went straight out to buy himself a pair of tight shoes?

Do you remember the one about the man from Inverness who washed his sporran — and couldn't do a fling with it?

Or the Kirkcaldy man who had his dead mother-in-law embalmed, cremated and then buried? It was more expensive that way, but he wasn't taking any chances . . .

Do you realise that for yet more invaluable insights into life north o' the border you'll have to buy this book and read it?
