A History of Parliamentary Elections and Electioneering in the Old Days Showing the State of Political Parties and Party Warfare at the Hustings and in the House of Commons from the Stuarts to Queen Victoria Joseph Grego, 2020-09-28 The subject of elections being so indissolubly bound up with that of parliamentary assemblages and dissolutions it will not be out of place to glance at the progress of that institution John was the first king recorded to summon his barons by writ this was directed to the Bishop of Salisbury In 1234 a representative parliament of two knights from every shire was convened to grant an aid later on 1286 came the parliament of Merton and in 1258 was inaugurated the assembly of knights and burgesses designated the madparliament The first assembly of the Commons as a confirmed representation Dugdale was in 1265 when the earliest writ extant was issued while according to many historians the first regular parliament met in 1294 22 Edw 1 when borough representation is said to have commenced From a deliberative assembly it became in 1308 a legislative power without whose assent no law could be legally constituted and in 1311 annual parliaments were ordered The next progressive step was the election of a Speaker by the Commons the first was Peter de la Mare 1377 A parliament of one day September 29 1399 when Richard II was deposed is certainly an incident in the history of this institution the Commons now began to assert its control over pecuniary grants In 1404 was held at Coventry the

Parliamentum Indoctum from which lawyers were excluded and that must have offered a marked contrast to parliaments in our generation In 1407 the Lords and Commons assembled to transact business in the Sovereign's absence Reforms were clearly then deemed expedient in 1413 members were obliged to reside at the places they represented this enactment has occasioned expense and inconvenience in obeying the letter but appears to have otherwise been easily defeated as regards the spirit 1 in 1430 the Commons adopted the forty shillings qualification for county members A parliament was held at Coventry in 1459 this was called the Diabolicum The statutes were first printed in 1483 in 1542 the privilege of exemption from arrest was secured to members and in 1549 the eldest sons of Peers were admitted to sit in the Commons With James I commenced those collisions between the Crown and the representatives of the people which marked the Stuart rule The Commons resisted those fine old blackmail robberies known during preceding reigns as benevolences under which plea forced contributions were levied by the Crown especially during Elizabeth's reign James I pushed these abuses too far in his greed for money
