The Anti-Racist Social Worker Tanya Moore, Glory Simango, 2025-02-28 This is the story of an anti racist campaign staged by social workers and allied health professionals which encourages readers to consider their own possibilities for anti racist action The murder of George Floyd in May 2020 and subsequent expression of anger frustration and grief at the continued existence of racism led to more sophisticated and honest conversations about racism and its impact Social work also started to recognise its own problem with racist systems and its failure as a profession that strives for social justice to have addressed this in any meaningful way The Anti Racist Social Worker describe a successful campaign of anti racist direct action that was staged by a small group of social workers and occupational therapists The opening chapter tells the story of the campaign from the coming together of the campaign group to the concluding day of action Subsequent chapters are written by campaign members at different stages of their career from student social worker to Chief Social Worker for England Each describes journeys to and stories of anti racist activism These stories are about either the writers experiences of racism and how this translated into action or their growing understanding of the impact of racism and subsequent decision to take personal action Importantly each chapter offers a personal case study and therefore a suggestion of individual anti racist action that can be taken by social workers The Anti Racist Social Worker is a call for action told through individual stories It shows how those in social care and allied health professions can contribute in a meaningful way to the creation of the change we need and encourages everyone to consider their own roles in dismantling racism
