

Single Salary Schedule

- ▶ Too much structured step movement tends to cause dissatisfaction among teachers and competitive problems for the district when it comes to the attraction and retention of staff.
 - Teachers perceive that a schedule with too many steps will require too many years of service to get to the top.
- ▶ Too much structured step movement leaves little money to increase the base and pay for senior teachers.
 - Most of the money available for pay increases is used up in step movement when schedules have too many steps.
